ALBERT H. NICOLAY, AUCTIONEER.—ABSOLUTE sale of forty valuable building lots in Brooklyn, at auction.—Albert H. Nicolay will sell at auction, on Wednesday, June 20, 1855, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange, in N. Y., forty desirable lots of ground on the Poole Homestead, in the Eighth and Ninth wards, in the city of Brooklyn, situated on Flatbush, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth avenues, and Union, Sackett and Degraw streets; the Fifth, Ninth and Flatbush avenues are graded and paved; the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth avenues are opened, and the Street Commissioner has reported in favor of an application to grade and pave them. The county has purchased seventeen lots in the immediate vicinity of this property for a Court House. This is one of the most attractive parts of Brooklyn for private residences or for business purposes. The Flatbush avenue railroad, when completed, will also greatly increase the value of this property, it being the intention of the company to complete the work, if possible, during this summer. These all the numerous improvements combined offer unusual inducements for the investment of capital, and parties desirous of purchasing should examine this property and attend the sale, as every lot put up will positively be sold to the highest bidder, in order to close an interest. Terms liberal, as fifty per cent can remain on bond and mortgage for three years, and the titles are unquestionable. For lithographic maps and full particulars, apply to ALBERT H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer, No. 11 Broad street.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY, AUCTIONEER.—POSITIVE sale.—Yorkville lots.—Albert H. Nicolay will sell on Wednesday June 20, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange, Second avenue, corner of Eighty-fifth street, the valuable lot situated on the northeast corner of Second avenue and Eighty-fifth street, 24 feet 2 inches front and rear, by 100 feet in depth. Also, the lot adjoining the above, on Second avenue, 22 feet front and rear, by 100 feet deep. The above lots are situated in the centre of Yorkville, formerly belonging to the Lecount estate; and no lots have been sold this season that offer greater inducements for the investment of capital or improvement, as the Second Avenue Railroad runs by this property, and the sale is to be made without reserve to the highest bidder. 50 per cent can remain on bond and mortgage for three years, at 7 per cent, if desired. The title is unquestionable, and the lots will be sold free from all incumbrance. For further particulars apply to ALBERT H. NICOLAY, Auctioneer, No. 11 Broad street.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY, AUCTIONEER.—THE ELegant brown stone Italian basement house and lot 299 West Twenty-second street, to be sold at auction.—ALBERT H. NICOLAY will sell on Wednesday, June 20, at 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange, without reserve, to the highest bidder, the new and superb English basement brown stone house and lot 299 West Twenty-second street, built in the very best manner and contains all the modern improvements. Terms easy, and title perfect. For full particulars see the advertisement in the Courier & Enquirer.
