Good beds 37½ cents and 50 cents per night, or $2 and $3 per week. JOSEPH BROOKS, Proprietor, late of Cincinnati, and formerly of Manchester, England.

HIGH BRIDGE HOTEL, WESTCHESTER SIDE.—Boarding for the summer.—This establishment is now open for the reception of permanent or transient boarders, on the most reasonable terms. Its easy access to the city by the Harlem Railroad every hour, and the splendid scenery, with ten acres of fruit, renders it one of the most desirable resorts in the vicinity of New York, especially for the health and safety of children. Inquire of THOS. JONES.

PENATIQUIT HOUSE, OPPOSITE FIRE ISLAND.—This house is now open for the reception of visitors. Its easy access by Long Island Railroad, twice daily, and the splendid situation of the house, render it one of the most desirable resorts in the vicinity of New York. Boats always in readiness to take passengers to Fire Island. Persons wishing to visit this house will leave the cars at Thompson station.
SELAH STRONG, Proprietor.

RICHMOND HILL HOTEL, STATEN ISLAND, IS open for the season. Charges, $7 a week; children under ten years of age, $4; servants, $4 50; horses, $5. Handsome suites of rooms, with parlors. Particulars at S. W. Benedict's store, No 5 Wall street, N. Y. Good sea bathing. J. P. KELLETT, Proprietor.

SIBLEY'S HOTEL, (LATE N. MILLER'S), NEW ROchelle.—Families desirous of obtaining board in the country can be accommodated by applying as above. The location offers many inducements in the way of bathing, fishing and hunting, and is of easy access to the city, being within a few minutes' walk of the New York and New Haven depot, cars passing several times during the day. The house has recently been refitted with new furniture and fixtures, and for comfort and convenience is unsurpassed.

SEA BATHING.—NATIONAL HOUSE, LONG BRANCH, N. J., is now open for the reception of visitors. Having had the premises put in thorough repair, and gas introduced, the subscriber, into whose hands the property has now passed, feels assured that his friends and patrons will find this one of the most pleasant and healthy places on the Atlantic coast. Terms the same as last year—$10 per week. Communication twice daily, per steamboats Ocean Wave and James Christopher, from foot of Jay street. WOOLMAN STORER.

THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING OPENED HIS HOUSE, can accommodate a few boarders, if application is made soon. As a healthy, cool and quiet retreat, and facility for sea bathing, it is not surpassed. For further particulars, inquire of Gilbert Davis, Esq., corner of William and Pine streets, New York, or of John Martin, at Riverhead, Long Island; or by letter to the subscriber, at Quogue, Suffolk county, L. I.
