DRY GOODS, &c.

A CARD.—TO THE UP TOWN PUBLIC, AND THE LAdies in particular.—Mr. Oswin O'Brien embraces the present occasion to return his sincere thanks to all those kind friends and patrons who have honored him with their patronage and confidence during the last five years that he has been engaged in the dry goods business on the corner of Fourteenth street and Sixth avenue, but more particularly for the warm interest and kind feeling manifested towards him by all since his recent troubles in business, which he can assure his friends was occasioned by no mismanagement, neglect, inattention or extravagance on his part, but rather by a combination of circumstances over which he had no control. For these kind assurances Mr. O'Brien feels deeply grateful, and will be remembered by him with gratitude. Mr. O'Brien's object in this card is to particularly recommend to all his former customers and friends who was a convenient, cheap, and desirable place to trade—a store where they will be served politely, fairly and honestly in every respect, and where they will find almost everything in the dry goods line, and at the very lowest prices—the establishment of Mr. JNO. M. CORWIN, corner of Nineteenth street and Sixth avenue, in whom they can place the most implicit confidence as a merchant of integrity, honesty and politeness. Very respectfully, OSWIN O'BRIEN.

IRON WORK FOR BUILDINGS.—BUILDERS, AND those designing to build, are respectfully invited to examine our stock of iron work for buildings. The more ready adaptation of iron work to any style of architecture, and its superiority in point of strength and cheapness, have in a great measure superseded the use of brown stone. The increasing demand, more particularly for window lintels and sills, has induced the subscribers to get up an additional number of new patterns, now numbering sixteen in all, of different styles, the cost of which being about ONE THIRD THE PRICE OF BROWN STONE. Cut in the same manner. The following buildings in New York city and other places, have been furnished with our lintels:—

Mr. W. B. Astor's buildings, 167 Greenwich street.
Mr. Peter Cooper's buildings, Lexington avenue and 22d street.
Mr. O. Brant's buildings, 50 Murray and 52 Leonard street.

WE, THE SECOND CABIN AND STEERAGE PASsengers on board the De Witt Clinton on her late voyage from Liverpool to New York, beg leave to express our deep sense of gratitude to Captain Edward Funk, for the ability with which he has conducted the various departments of the said ship, and for the tender interest he has, throughout the passage, manifested in the welfare of all his passengers especially the sick and feeble. We have also great pleasure in acknowledging the kind attentions and services of his officers, and will remember with the utmost esteem and thankfulness the untiring labors of Mr. Berry for our comfort. And we are of the opinion that the wonderful preservation of our health during a voyage at the season of the year, is mainly attributable to good provision, cleanliness, ventilation, order, and the kind attention of all. And in conclusion, we hope that you and your officers may be spared to witness many other such successful voyages. Signed on behalf of the aforesaid passengers.

JAMES LONGFORD, Chairman.
JOSEPH WITHERTON, Secretary.
