AUSTRALIA—PIONEER LINE—CARRYING THE U. S. Mail.—The new and beautiful clipper ship BLACK SEA, D. Cote, master, now at her berth, pier 8, N. R., will positively sail on or before 1st September. The accommodations for a limited number of passengers are on the most approved principles for light, ventilation and comfort, being all on deck. The success of the Pioneer line since its first establishment four years ago is perhaps unprecedented—no serious accident having occured, and no claim having been made on the insurance offices, while among the thousands of passengers absolutely no sickness has been known. The advantages of employing first class ships and experienced commanders is demonstrated by the following remarkable passage, never equalled from this country:—Ships Ocean Steed, 88 days; Flying Scud, 76 days; Windward, 87 days; Nightingale, 74 days; Gertrude, 90 days. The Black Sea will be succeeded by the clipper bark Nimrod, on her third voyage, to sail on or before 1st of October.
