CITY POLITICS.

The Result of the Whig Primary Elections.

The whigs met at their respective ward headquarters yesterday, to elect delegates to the State Convention, to assemble at Syracuse on the 26th proximo; also, delegates to City, County, Senatorial and Judiciary conventions, to nominate candidates to be voted for next November.

In most of the wards the issues were purely local and personal in their character. The extreme Sewardites were generally successful, from their control of the Ward General and State Central committees, the State patronage, and a portion of the city offices. But the "woolly heads" were too cunning to put their own men forward exclusively, and it will be noticed that the list given below includes straight-out whigs, republicans, Know Nothings, Know Somethings (who are quite strong in the Eighteenth and Third wards), liquor dealers, and other parties representing diverse and opposing interests. Among the delegates elect are a number of local celebrities, including Congressmen, Assemblymen, Aldermen, besides a host of pan-fish and small-potato politicians and office seekers.

The elections were held at an unusually early hour for the old fogy whigs, who don't relish getting up at six o'clock to do their voting, and, consequently, the more active and wide awake politicians had it all their own way while the old fellows were asleep and snoring.

RESULTS IN THE SEVERAL WARDS.

FIRST WARD.—Poll held at No 11 Broadway. The excitement was not great, and but slight opposition was manifested to the ticket headed by Justice Green. Some opposition was manifested to "Bob Collins" on account of his being appointed by the General Committee as inspector to the Eleventh ward election, an undue interference, as his constituents thought, and he was left at home.

SECOND WARD.—The regular Williamson, Welsh and Clifton ticket was chosen without opposition, as our reporter understood. The ticket embraces a fusion of all the whig elements of this ward, which, though small in population, has made quite a stir in the political history of the city. The election came off at 22 Ann street.

THIRD WARD.—Two elections were held in this ward. The inspectors of election appointed by the Ward Committee at first advertised their call for the election to be held at Tyler's, in St. Peter's place, but the call was amended in some of the whig journals of yesterday by the change of place to College place, a division occurring among the election inspectors, who have pretty nearly all to say in whig primaries as well as in those of every other party as at present constituted. The contest in the Third ward has been produced by quarrels of a personal and political nature between Messrs. McMullen and Cochrane, as to the dispensation of the State patronage for this city. The inspectors of election, with their political friends and adherents, went through the farce of holding two primary elections at both the places we have mentioned. Hon. Guy R. Pelton, whig and K. N. Congressman elect, is on both tickets for the Judiciary Convention. So is Capt. Robert B. Coleman, Seward and anti-Maine law member of Assembly for the Second district, who is on both tickets for the Syracuse Convention.

FOURTH WARD.—The McLaughlin ticket was as usual chosen, and among the delegates elected are William H. Sparks, M. Jones, and William West, counsel for the tenantry, and quite notorious for some years as an orator of the workingmen. No opposition of consequence was given to this ticket, except by a small number of individuals who got hold of some of the tickets used at the late primary elections of the softs, and put in a few in order to frighten the election inspectors; but as the latter functionaries had considerable experience, and the inside of the track, they were not badly scared. Election held at Alderman Baird's, 17 Oak street.

FIFTH WARD.—No opposition in this ward to the ticke elected under the auspices of the ward committee. Poll held at 147 West Broadway. Among the delegates elected are Gen. William Hall, Alfred B. Booth, George J. Cornell, Charles S. Tappen, and Thomas E. Smith.

SIXTH WARD.—The ticket known as the "Jim Taylor ticket" is elected with no material opposition, except on one of the delegations, where C. W. Schaffer had 25 votes to 19 for George Kavanagh, but was chosen.

SEVENTH WARD.—The Morgan woolly ticket elected without opposition.

EIGHTH WARD.—The "Silkcocks ticket" is chosen, with a slight opposition. The delegates to the Senatorial Convention are understood to be favorable to the nomination of Hon. Wyllis Blackstone. Election at Oberle's, in Wooster street.

NINTH WARD.—There were two tickets in the field here, one known as the long ticket and the other as the short. The latter prevailed by a vote of 200 to 40. Hon. George Briggs, ex-member of Congress, was on both tickets for delegate to the State Convention. Election in the old Bleecker street House, up stairs. George P. Nelson, Samuel Brevoort, George B Deane, Jacob Cholwell and Cornelius V. Anderson are among the delegates chosen.

There was nothing particular to note in the Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth and Thirteenth wards, except that the woollies were generally successful.

FOURTEENTH WARD.—In this ward there was a terrible fight between the adherents of what was known as the Wood and Macomber tickets. The dispute arose out of the conflicting claims of certain parties who wished to go to Syracuse. There was also some trouble about the delegation that would vote for Street Commissioner. The affair terminated in a grand row, in which the ballet-boxes were broken. Both tickets, of course, claim to be elected.

FIFTEENTH WARD.—A Union fusion ticket elected. No opposition.

SIXTEENTH WARD.—There was no opposition to the ticket elected. Among the delegates chosen are Surrogate Bradford, Hon. John P. Cumming, Ex-Aldermen Sam Delamater, George Clark, Abraham Pearce, (the Harbor Master,) and Ex-Alderman James E. Wood, formerly of the Third ward. Election at the Utah House.

There was nothing of note in the upper wards. The workingmen had to come to their business in the lower part of the city, and the politicians had it all their own way.

SHIP LAUNCH.—Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, a bark was launched from the Westervelt ship yard, foot of Houston and Third streets. An unusual large number of spectators were present, among whom were many ladies and some of our first merchants and shipmasters. The launch was as successful as could be wished by the many admirers of the beautifully modelled vessel. She is named the Zephyr, and was built for Messrs. Chamberlain, Robinson & Co., for the Mediterranean trade, and has been constructed upon a new and novel plan, which it is anticipated will make her as fast as any vessel afloat. She is 155 feet long, 27 feet beam, 15 feet depth of hold, and about 650 tons carpenter's measurement. Her bulwarks are solid, and have four ports on each side. Her chocks, hatch combings, &c., are all of African mahogany, while her hull is built of Maryland white oak and tamarac. The poop deck is elevated two feet above the main deck, and her cabin is very neat, and well designed for comfort and convenience. Her ceilings are from eight to ten inches thick, and the outside plank from three and a half to six and a half inches, all of white oak; clamps, six inches. She has a full set of knees, and extra set of beams and knees, fore and aft. The cooking arrangements in the galley are complete in every respect, and a state room is attached to it for the steward. The sailors will have nothing to wish for, as their comfort has been studied by the erection of a house for them on deck. She was built under the superintendence of Capt. J. H. Toone, and reflects much credit upon him for the taste he has exhibited in her superior model and perfect finish; and the young and enterprising Messrs. Westervelt, her builders, may well feel proud of her, as being one of the finest specimens of naval architecture afloat. May success attend her.

Naval Intelligence.

The U. S. sloop of war Cyane, commander Wilson, arrived at Pensacola on the afternoon of the 8th inst., from Havana.

THE NEW U. S. STEAMSHIP MERRIMAC AND OTHER WAR VESSELS.—We learn that the boilers and machinery of this ship, being constructed at the Charlestown (Mass.) Navy Yard, are all on board and being placed in position. The vessel will be ready to go to sea as early as the latter part of October.

It is thought at the Navy Department, that the existence of the yellow fever at Norfolk and Portsmouth, with the attending circumstances, must necessarily delay the final completion of all the U. S. ships being constructed there at least six months.—Washington Star, Aug. 20.

U. S. STEAMSHIP PRESLE.—The U. S. practice ship Preble put into Portland last week, and was visited on Tuesday by Collector Carter and several other gentlemen, [illegible] to all from that port on Wednesday, for Boston. [illegible] midshipmen on board, who, with the crew and officers, make about 140 persons in all.

ARRIVAL OF THE PACIFIC.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

NOTHING NEW FROM THE CRIMEA.

Bombardment of Taganrog.

SPAIN SENDS 25,000 MEN TO THE WAR.

Arrival of Madame Rachel.

CONSOLS 91.

Cotton Steady---Breadstuffs Dull, &c., &c., &c.

The United States mail steamer Pacific, from Liverpool, Saturday, August 11, arrived at this port at half-past 6 o'clock this morning.

M'lle Rachel and suite are passengers.

The Pacific arrived out on Sunday morning the 5th, at 15 minutes past two o'clock.

The steamship Arago arrived off Cowes at 10 o'clock, the morning of Friday, the 10th.

The news by this arrival is unsatisfying—many rumors and few facts. Nothing definite from the Crimea. Private advices say that the bombardment had been resumed, but as yet we do not know with what effect. General Markham is spoken of in certain circles as likely to succeed to the command; but the statement is doubtful. Sir Colin Campbell's appointment would be more popular. The Queen is desirous to nominate the Duke of Cambridge, but he prudently declines the honor, offering, however, to go out as second in command. Meantime General Simpson continues with the army. Omar Pacha is appointed commander-in-chief of the Turks in Asia. Some operations, of no great moment, have been executed by the allies in the Sea of Azoff. The Black Sea fleet is still concentrated for some great movement. A coup de main is confidently expected in the Baltic. Ninety ships are assembled at Nargan, and opinions on board are divided as to whether their destination lie Revel or Sweaborg—most probably the latter.

The well informed Paris correspondent of the London Times states that Austria has just made spontaneous advances of more friendly relations towards the Western Powers. Lord Palmerston, in Parliament, conveyed a similar meaning, but the public are slow to believe in Austrian friendship.

Paris correspondence is full of allusion to what is termed a "legitimist conspiracy." The sum and substance of the affair seems to be that two Frenchmen, MM. D'Escars and Chapot, have been in communication with the Count of Montemolino, with the immediate view of encouraging the Carlist insurrection in Spain, and the ulterior hopes of bringing about a favorable chance for Henry V., so called Russian complicity is proved in the matter, and the French government has eagerly seized the opportunity of making political capital both at home and in Spain. Closely following on the exposure of this "conspiracy" is an announcement that Spain will definitely contribute 25,000 men to the allies, (to be paid by France and England,) and that France agrees to uphold the throne of Isabella against all danger faom whatever source. This intelligence is stated in positive form, but requires further confirmation.

Liverpool cotton market was reported steady at previous rates. Breadstuffs dull and lower, and weather again favorable. Money tighter. Consols 91. American securities quiet, mostly unchanged.

Twenty-five shocks of an earthquake were felt at Broussa. Abd-el-Kadir is sick.
