For speed, safety and comfort she is equal to any steamship in the United States, as no expense has been spared to make her first class in her construction. She is now in order for immediate service. For further particulars inquire of Capt. JAMES H. HODGDON, the ONLY authorized agent for the sale, on board the ship, above Vine street, in the port of PHILADELPHIA.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—NEW YORK AND CALIFORNIA steamship line, via Nicaragua Accessory Transit Company, of Nicaragua, proprietors.—Through in advance of the mail; 700 miles shorter than any other route, avoiding the deadly Panama fever and two miles of dangerous boating in Panama bay. The Nicaragua line has no connection with New Orleans. The splendid double engine steamship NORTHERN LIGHT, 2,500 tons burthen, Captain Tinklepaugh, will leave pier No. 3 North River, at 3 o'clock P. M. precisely, for Punta Arenas, on Thursday, September 20, connecting with the steamship Uncle Sam, 2,000 tons burthen, over the Nicaragua Transit route, having but twelve miles of land transportation by first class carriages. For information, or passage at the reduced rates, apply only to CHARLES MORGAN, agent, No. 2 Bowling Green. Letter bags made up at the office. Stamped letters taken for 6¼ cents each.

AUSTRALIA—PIONEER LINE—CARRYING THE U. S. Mail.—The new and beautiful clipper ship BLACK SEA, D. Oakes, master, now at her berth, pier 9, North river, will positively sail on or before 10th September. The accommodations for a limited number of passengers are on the most approved principles for light, ventilation and comfort, being all on deck. The success of the Pioneer line since its first establishment four years ago is perhaps unprecedented—no serious accident having occurred, and no claim having been made on the insurance offices, while among the thousands of passengers absolutely no sickness has been known. The advantages of employing first class ships and experienced commanders is demonstrated by the following remarkable passages, never equalled from this country:—ships Ocean Steed, 88 days; Flying Scud, 76 days; Windward, 87 days; Nightingale, 74 days; Gertrude, 59 days. The Black Sea will be succeeded by the clipper bark Nimrod, on her third voyage, to sail on or before 1st October. The fast sailing ship Vandalia for Sydney, with immediate despatch, now loading at pier 12, East river. For freight or passage apply on board, or to

The boat is peculiarly adapted for such purposes, having two flush decks and a large promenade deck. For terms apply to the Captain on board, at the foot of Jay street, or of WILLIAM GAGE, No. 4 Hall of Records.

A CARD.—WE, THE PASSENGERS OF THE PRESIDENT Fillmore, unanimously, cordially and gratefully unite in presenting our sincere thanks to Peter Nelson, Esq., captain of said vessel, for the kindness we have experienced on our voyage from Glasgow to New York. We are glad in having this opportunity of thus publicly testifying to his ability as a captain, and conduct as a gentleman, and do aver that unity, harmony and comfort seemed his sole aim. To intending emigrants, we could not recommend one who would study their interest more than P. N., and we unanimously wish him every success, personally and relatively. J. NOTMAN.
