THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, DELEGATES TO THE Liquor Dealers' Nominating Convention of the First Assembly district, convened at Montgomery's, 15 Beekman street, Friday, 26th inst., do hereby protest against the endorsement of Michael Ryan as the liquor dealers' candidate for the office of Assemblyman, as all the candidates in nomination for that office by the various political parties have answered favorably to our cause, viz: Daniel Mahen, democrat; Michael Ryan, democrat, and Peter Van Houghton, whig; and in accordance with the fourth article of the liquor dealers' platform, adopted at Syracuse on the 8th of August last, which, in all such cases, obliges that any endorsement or nomination should be made, and which reads as follows:—

"No State, County, Town, Village or Ward Convention, or organization, shall nominate candidates for office, or endorse any of another party, unless it shall be necessary to defeat the election of candidates nominated by the party of coercive prohibitionists, or those in favor of their principles; in which case, the strongest candidates who may be opposed to any prohibitory liquor law whatever shall be nominated or endorsed without regard to his party politics."

4TH WARD ON DECK—GRAND DEMONSTRATION of the united democracy.—At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the democrats of the Fourth ward, held at Shakspeare Hotel, on Friday evening, October 26, on motion of James G. Smith, who called the meeting to order, Dr. P. R. O'Reilly was appointed president; Jerey Bess, Wm. Locker, Gustave Bock, James Tagan and Dr. Philip Meyer were chosen vice presidents, and Jeremiah Donovan, Geo. B. Wooldridge and Henry Stadtlander, secretaries.

Mr. Wm. Locker offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted amid great cheering:—

Resolved, That in economical administration of the State and city governments is absolutely necessary to the harmony of our republican system, and is only to be secured by the success of the democratic party—a party whose opposition to the prodigal expenditure of the public money has always been manifested by its financial policy in the State and national councils.

Resolved, That we cordially approve and endorse the nomination of Daniel E. Sickles as the democratic candidate for the State Senate, and hail it as an evidence of that fraternal feeling and desire for union which animate the masses of the democracy, and that we find in him a zealous, bold and able champion, whose steadfast adhesion to democratic principles renders him eminently worthy of support, while his acknowledged capacity and brilliant attainments would reflect credit on the party which we are confident will constitute him its representative in the Senate of the state.

Resolved, That we view the ensuing November election as a prelude to the grand struggle in which the democracy will next year behold itself involved with the factions that hitherto under various names have carried on a warfare against the supporters of the Constitution and the Union, but which are preparing to accomplish by a fusion of their heterogeneous elements that which they have only partially effected as separate organizations.

Resolved, That the alliance formed by our enemies places the democratic party under the necessity of abandoning those differences which hitherto impaired its efficiency, and even perilled its existence, and requires such a perfect union among all true democrats, as will render their acknowledged majority apparent and efficient.

Resolved, That, as democrats, understanding the principles of our party, and rendering homage to the great doctrines which form the basis of our faith, we necessarily disapprove and oppose the oppressive and unconstitutional enactment known as the Maine Liquor law, and the anti-republican and illiberal tests of the Know Nothings, while we acknowledge and approve the doctrine of popular sovereignty embodied in the Kansas and Nebraska bill.

The meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by Mr. M. Allen, Gustave Bock, and Daniel E. Sickles, Esq.

The meeting then gave a round of enthusiastic cheers for the democratic union candidate for Senator, and then adjourned, to form a torchlight procession through the ward. P. R. O'REILLY, President.
DANIEL E. SICKLES,
Joseph Rose, Wm. Locker, Gustave Bock, James Tagan, Philip Meyer, Vice Presidents.
Jeremiah Donovan, G. B. Wooldridge, Henry Stadtlander, Secretaries.

16TH WARD.—UNION, HARMONY AND VICTORY.—At a large and enthusiastic mass meeting of the United Democracy of the Sixteenth ward, held at Lent's long room, on the evening of 26th of October, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations for charter officers, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the democratic republican electors of the Sixteenth ward, in mass meeting assembled, cordially approve of and endorse the principles contained in the resolutions adopted at the Baltimore Convention of 1852.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the spirit and provisions of the act or law known as the Maine or Prohibitory Liquor law, that we regard it as infringing upon the inalienable rights of man, and as contrary to the provisions of our constitution, which should be the only guide of our legislators, and not calculated to attain the object for which it was passed. That we consider the law as inequitable and unjust in its operation, because it reverses the fundamental principle of law, in presuming persons charged or accused thereunder as guilty before trial.

Resolved, That we are opposed to the proscription of any persons or class of persons on account of their religion or birthplace, considering such proscription anti-republican, and as against the interests of our country.

Resolved, That we cordially approve of the nominations for charter officers made by the united conventions of the ward, recognizing in the nominees men of tried and unswerving principles, and worthy of the warm support of the electors of the ward; and that we heartily recommend the nominees to the citizens of the ward as persons in every way qualified to fill the offices for which they are nominated.

For Alderman	Charles A. May.
Assessor	John Perrine.
School Commissioner	Alexander King.

POLITICAL.

AMERICAN UNION CLUB HEAD-QUARTERS.—FELlow citizens of the city and county of New York—In addressing you at this crisis, we do so with some hesitation but with a consciousness that the purity of our principles and the ability and integrity of our nominees will be a sufficiently self evident and patriotic motive to all reasonable men in thus stating our platform and soliciting your suffrages, while four or five powerful parties are in the field "with their armor on," battling on that thrice bloody field, "The Spoils!"

We appeal not to your sectional, religious or political feelings, but to your own feelings of self knowledge and experience, when we say that the time has arrived when men (New Yorkers) should throw aside their exclusive party feelings and prejudices, and with united vigor put down this despotism of conventions and bargainings for office which have so long disgraced this favored but corrupt city. Without solicitation on their part, the "American Union Club" have nominated the gentlemen named below. They are, with a few exceptions, "to the manor born," and though dearly attached to their own country and city, they have always been known to be champions of universal liberty, opposed to the proscriptive Know Nothings, and in favor of the platform adopted by us, and to which we call your attention. It is as follows:—

Whereas, the present state of parties requires energetic and vigorous action on the part of the people, who have been so long led by a set of huckstering politicians; and whereas, the signs of the times point to the young men of the nation as the proper persons to carry forward the progress and destiny of this country—therefore,

Resolved, That we form ourselves into a society, to be called "The American Union Club," whose primary object shall be to elect no person to office who are is honest, capable and true.

Resolved, That we profess no political creed except that which is based on the fitness of the persons nominated, and the sound conservative principles of the day, discarding all isms and sects.

Resolved, That we are opposed to all secret societies, whether "Know Nothing" or otherwise,
