TRIESEMAR—THE GREAT EUROPEAN DISCOVERY —Protected by royal letters patent of England, and secured by the seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie in Paris, and the Imperial College of Medicine, Vienna. Triesemar, No. 1, the remedy for general debility, shattered constitutions, and all the distressing consequences arising from early abuse, &c. Its effects are efficacious in youth, manhood and old age. All physical impediments vanish like magic before its influence, thus rendering its use invaluable to those entering the marriage state. Triesemar, No. 2, completely and entirely eradicates all traces of those disorders which copaiba and cubebs have so long been thought an antidote for, to the ruin of the health of a vast portion of the population. Triesemar, No. 3, is the great European remedy for that class of disorders which, unfortunately, the English physician treats with mercury, to the inevitable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the sarsaparilla in the world cannot remove. Triesemar, Nos. 1, 2 and 3, are quite devoid of taste or smell, and all nauseating qualities. They may be laid on the tables unobserved without the use being suspected. Sold in the cases, $5 each, divided into separate doses, as administered by Valpeau, Lallemand, Ricord, &c. To be had, wholesale and retail, of Mr. H. A. BARROW, 51 Greene street, near Canal, New York, as agent for the United States and every other part of America. Immediately on receiving a letter with a Barrow stamp affixed the Triesemar to any part of the world, securely packed and addressed according to the instructions of the writer. Sold also by W. E. Fieber, bookseller, 44 South Third street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia. Have agents wanted. Terms cash.
