OCULISTS AND AURISTS.

TWENTY YEARS EXPERIENCE IN THIS CITY, TOgether with an opportunity, during my recent tour, of observing the modern practice of the celebrated oculists and aurists in Europe, enable me to treat the diseases of those delicate organs with unusual skill and success, and to restore many persons hitherto deemed incurable. I have also procured instruments through which I can look into the eye and ear and detect the slightest disease. Patients may rest assured they will be told truthfully whether they are curable or otherwise. Artificial eyes imported, which move and look exactly like the natural. At home from 9 to 4 o'clock daily. JAMES W. POWELL, M. D., oculist, aurist, &c., 502 Broadway, nearly opposite St. Nicholas Hotel.
