VALUABLE FARMS AND TIMBERED LAND FOR sale—2,025 acres. I offer for sale my farm, known as Oakland, lying in the county of Surrey, Virginia, four miles from the beautiful village of Cabin Point, and five miles from James River, and lying on the Swans Point and stage road leading from Petersburg to Smithfield, Va. This farm contains 525 acres; 150 acres is cleared, and in a high state of improvement; the land is well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, oats, tobacco, and has proved to be as healthy as any farm in Eastern Virginia. There is on this farm a large dwelling, nearly new, containing seven rooms and a passage, and all necessary out houses for the accommodation and convenience of the farm. There will be completed in seeding, in a few days, 125 bushels wheat, on good land, which will go with the purchase of the farm. There is a good store house, small dwelling and cook house about a quarter of a mile from the farm on the very public road, and within thirty steps of the railroad built by Messrs. Allen, Hopkins & Seldon—an excellent stand for a country grocery. This railroad is completed to this store, and is transporting wood and lumber daily a distance of six miles, to James River, where wood is readily selling from $3 to $3½ per cord, with an upward tendency. This railroad runs through the wooded land which will yield from 6,000 to 8,000 cords of good pine wood, suitable for the Northern market; there is also a deal of saw mill timber on this track.

2d. 500 acres of wood land, heavily timbered, within one mile of the above farm, and fine natural land for agricultural purposes, which will be from a quarter to a half mile parallel to the railroad, which is heavily set in pine and oak, suitable for sawing purpose and wood cutting.

3d. I will also sell my present residence, containing 1,000 acres; the buildings are all new, as they were completed last year, 2½ miles from the above lands; all the above lands I will sell low, as I purchased them when land was very low in this county. My terms will be accommodating. In this neighborhood are several gentlemen who came from the State of New York and purchased farms, and enjoy good health summer and winter. These lands possess many advantages, which I deem needless to name, as those wishing to purchase will come and examine. Persons landing at Carter's wharf or Allen's wharf, Claremount cars reach my residence in an hour and a half. Those wishing to purchase must make early application. E. A. MADDERA, P. M., Spring Grove, Surrey County, Virginia.

WHOLESALE DRUG ESTABLISHMENT FOR SALE.—On the first of January next, the stock, good will, and building, if required, or lease of same, of an old established drug house in a South ern city, now doing a fine business, is offered for sale. The stock now on hand comprises such as is usually found in establishments of the kind, and to one understanding the business, a rare chance is offered of making a valuable investment. To an approved purchaser the terms would be easy. For further particulars inquire of S. R. VAN DUZER, wholesale druggist, 198 Greenwich street.
