lic's square. The brigade looked well, though it did not muster as many as usual. They were dismissed about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

STEAMBOAT COLLISION IN THE BAY.—The steamtug Achilles ran into the sloop Herald, Captain Peterson, yesterday, about 5 o'clock A. M., opposite Robbin's nest. The sloop was from Woodbridge, N. J., and was loaded with fine clay. The collision was so great that the vessel sunk immediately. Captain Peterson, who was in the cabin at the time, was drowned, but the two deck hands, named respectively Christian Phillips and Jacob Swartz, were saved by the crew of the steamtug.

FIRE IN KING STREET.—About two o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered in a stable in the rear of No. 45 King street. The firemen were promptly on the spot, and extinguished it before it spread beyond the building in which it originated. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Mr. Geo. Boyd owned the stable. His loss is about $100. No insurance. Mr. John Grant occupied the stable, in which he had two horses; they were taken out uninjured. Mr. Grant estimates his loss in harness, feed, &c., at about $100. No insurance. Michael Cochran, a milkman, also stabled his horse there; he was got out uninjured. Mr. Cochran lost some harness.

FIRE IN SIXTH STREET.—Shortly after seven o'clock on Wednesday evening an alarm was given for a fire in the Fifth district, caused by some shavings taking fire in the wheelwright shop of Jacob Smith, No. 256 Sixth street. No damage.

FIRE IN HUDSON STREET—WARD SCHOOL NO. 3 ON FIRE.—About 12¼ o'clock yesterday afternoon smoke was discovered issuing from the basement of Ward School No. 3, on the corner of Hudson and Grove streets. The principal of the school—Mr. David Patterson—on being told that the building was on fire, sent one of his teachers to ascertain its truth, and on his return dismissed the scholars, who passed out in single file, in good order there was some little crowding, but considering that there were upwards of 1,100 children in the building, it is surprising that no accident occurred. The teachers are all deserving of praise for their coolness and presence of mind in preserving order. The discipline of this school speaks well for the teachers. The fire originated in the basement, among a lot of benches and stools stored there by the Board of Education; but how it got there is unknown at present. The Fire Marshal will investigate the matter. The damage done to the building will amount to about $500; no insurance. The janitor—Mr. Thomas Loney—was in the basement splitting wood about eleven o'clock. At that time there was no appearance of anything being wrong about the premises. The children had just returned into school from the 12 o'clock recess.

RUMORED DEATH OF A CHILD BY VIOLENCE.—Information was received at the Coroner's office yesterday afternoon, that a girl, about five years of age, was lying dead in the house corner of Carmine and Bedford streets, and that it was currently reported by the neighbors she had come to her death from a severe beating received at the hands of her mistress, there residing. Dr. Chartemy, of the Coroner's office, examined the body of deceased, and found several marks of violence upon the person of deceased. An inquest will be held to-day.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

A GREAT BOOK FOR THE TIMES.—NOT OF THE past but our day, we write and trace the future with vision clear. Now ready—

LUCY BOSTON;
OR, WOMAN'S RIGHTS AND SPIRITUALISM.
Illustrating the follies and delusions of the 19th century.
BY FRED. FOLIO.

This is the age of oddities let loose.

A beautiful 12mo. volume, 406 pp., with ten illustrations, by Coffin. Cloth, gilt, $1 25.

A FEW EXTRACTS FROM NUMEROUS CRITICISMS.

A glance at Lucy Boston assures us that the author is a man of most excellent wit. His wit is biting, but not coarse; the weapon he wields is of the best Damascus steel, and keen as a Toledo blade.—Utica Gazette.

It possesses a highly dramatic character, and abounds in excellent hits. It will prove a taper more effectual antidote to these delusions than it if had taken the form of a sober and well sustained argument.—Puritan Recorder.

Fred. is a shrewd observer of the signs of the times. His book is full of keen satire and capital hits at the absurdities of spiritualism and woman's rights. If there is not a great deal of laughing over it, we are no prophet.—Boston Olive Branch.

It is one of the books of the season. Get it and read it.—Auburn Daily American.

Fred. is a man of a brave heart and a deal of the kind of stuff that won't bend, to dare such a subject, and coolly laying out woman's rights and spiritualism, thus writes out their epitaph—

Twins in birth, and ill-begot;
Twins in their graves—there let them rot.

If the reader would laugh heartily, and withal pick up much philosophy and good sense in a pleasant way, buy the book.—Providence Tribune.

It possesses many rare excellences which the reader will appreciate.—Hampden Statesman.

There is a deal of fun in it which may be enjoyed, even by those who believe in spiritualism and woman's rights.—Telegraph, Nashua, N. H.

No. 126 Nassau street, New York, publish on Wednesday,

I.
FAMILY PASTIME; OR, HOMES MADE HAPPY.

A collection of games for the social circle. 12mo., gilt sides and edges. Price 75 cents.

Every household of which young people are a part has felt the need of a volume similar in character to the one now offered to the public. No such full and adequate collection of games suitable to the wants of the parlor circle, and adapted either for youth or "children of a larger growth," has previously appeared. The collection includes all the old established favorites of the parlor, together with many new and original games.

II.
HOME COMFORTS; OR, THE ECONOMY OF LIVING WELL FAMILIARLY ILLUSTRATED.

This is an important volume for young housekeepers. It is quite a novelty. In the form of a story it illustrates and inculcates many valuable lessons upon economy, in matters appertaining to the household, and practice shows as well as describes how things should be done. The interest of the volume is enhanced by its charming style, and its many amusing and graphic incidents. 12mo. Price 25 cents.
