A Certificate from Com. M. C. Perry.—I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the truthfulness of the scenes depicted by Mr. Heine, in the Panorama of China and Japan, now on exhibition in this city. The original sketches were made under my especial notice, and represent very faithfully the peculiarities of Japanese and Lewchewan scenery, their buildings, vessels, boats, figures, costumes, &c., and with respect to the drawings illustrative of China, by Mr. West, it gives me additional satisfaction to say that as far as my observation in that country may authorize an assertion, I can speak in terms of equal praise of the fidelity with which he has executed his part of these interesting and instructive delineations.
M. C. PERRY.
