Pipes, handsome and cheap, at Becker's Cigar Store.

Mrs. A. C. Millman of Sioux Falls, visited friends in this city last week.

Wm. Potta, who is employed on the Inwood Herald, was in Canton Sunday.

Miss Edna Walter of Sioux Falls, spent New Year's day at the home of E. L. Wendt.

Miss Edna Stone of Sioux Falls visited at the home of Mayor Gemmill last week.

Thorsten Holter and Nerie Tostenon left for Sioux City Friday to buy a car of feeders.

Miss Florence Lien of Sioux Falls, daughter of Ex-Mayor Lien, visited friends in the city last week.

Deputy State Treasurer Ed Cassill returned from his Iowa visit Friday and departed for Pierre Saturday.

Don't forget Becker's cigar store when you want a first class cigar or a handsome pipe.

Miss Ethel Bennett left for DeSmet last Saturday to resume her duties as teacher in the public schools of that city.

Miss Nora Harlan returned last week from Viborg, where she spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Kellar.

Miss June and John Hieborn returned last week from Sioux City, where they spent Christmas with their parents.

Miss Hannah Nordtvedt left for Madison, Minn., Sunday, where she holds the position of preceptress in the Lutheran Normal.

Robert Parker Mills, famous lecturer, will give the third number of the citizens lecture course at Augustana College on Monday January 21st.

Samuel Sletten arrived home from his Turner county visit last Saturday, accompanied by his cousin, Selmer Sletten, who came over on a few days visit.

Rev. J. D. Bohm of Rock Rapids, Iowa, was in Canton Friday, visiting his brother Ell. Rev. Bohm is State Missionary for the American Bible Society.

S. F. and Will Keith left for Murdo Monday, where they will take up their residence on their claims. Will's claim is located three and one half miles from Murdo, while his brother's is five miles. They will prove up on their land before returning and went out two weeks ahead of the required time, which will give them ample time to erect comfortable dwellings.

Builds up waste tissue, promotes appetite, improves digestion, induces refreshing sleep, gives renewed strength and health. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. I. M. Helmey & Co.

The "Crawford Cigar" made by E. C. Becker, is the finest 5 cent cigar on the market.

Miss Gussie Uline returned to Dell Rapids after a very pleasant visit with Canton friends.

Miss Wilkinson resumed her duties as teacher in the Kinsley school in Highland township Monday.

Richard James called Saturday and renewed his subscription to the Leader and Weekly Inter Ocean.

John Ingretson of Fairview, was a renewal subscriber who favored this office with a call last Saturday.

State Treasurer and Mrs. Cassill left for Pierre Friday and attended the banquet at Huron Friday night in honor of Gov. Crawford.

Selmer Sletten returned to his home in Turner county Monday after a few days visit with his uncle, I. T. Sletten, and family of this city.

Hans Relerson and Peter Rude returned to their homes at Mitchell last Friday, after spending the holidays with Grand Valley relatives.

Hon. H. H. Cable and Will Ingham left for Pierre Friday, Mr. Cable to become a lawmaker and Mr. Ingham to enjoy the festivities of the session.

C. O. Johnson of LaValley township, was among our welcome visitors Saturday. He called to renew his sister Eveline's subscription to the Leader.

Floyd Cooper and Frank Cuppet and Miss Eva Conklin and Miss Louise Kruger left for the State University Monday. Win Bennett preceded them, going down last week.

Hon. Thomas Thorsen with Mrs. Thorsen and Miss Bullard left for Huron Friday to attend the banquet given in honor of Gov. Crawford, after which they proceeded to Pierre.

Amos Severson of Klondike, was a visitor last Saturday and left 85 on subscription. Amos is holding his own and time deals kindly with him. He has a splendid war record and was a member of the famous First Minnesota volunteers.

Arthur Goetz entertained a large number of his young friends last Friday evening. The evening was spent in dancing and at a late hour a delicious lunch was served. Miss Mary Uline chaperoned the young people.

Some of the sidewalks in the business part of the city need salting badly. The street commissioner should see that ice covered walks are cleaned or heavily salted. Somebody is going to get hurt unless the walks are cleaned.

Mrs. A. E. Kinyon of Harrisburg, died Friday morning and the funeral was held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. She leaves a husband and an adopted daughter. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. H. Shurtlett of Harrisburg and Rev. Frank Davis of Sioux Falls. Undertaker Byrnes had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Miss Helen Skartvedt of Mott, Hettinger County, North Dakota, writes her father, Sivert Skartvedt, that western North Dakota has been enjoying delightful winter weather so far, and that very little snow has fallen. She says the dreadful tales about freezing and snow storms has no reference to Mott or Hettinger county where the weather is mild and coal mines are within the reach of all.

Wanted: Lady to advertise our goods locally. Several weeks home work. Salary $12.00 per week, $1.00 a day for expenses. Saunders Co., Dept. W., 46-48 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill. Nov. 30-Jan. 17.

The Gate City Cigar is a winner. It's a favorite and makes a delightful smoke.

Sivert Ainess, one of the prosperous Highland township farmers, was a visitor Saturday. His daughters, Sophia and Iola, who had been home for the holidays, came in with him, the former going out to Platte where she is teaching and the latter, Miss Iola, going to Madison where she is a student in the State Normal. Another daughter, Miss Agatha, is teaching in district 57, north of Harrisburg. All enjoyed their vacations at home.

Ed Lien and Oscar Helvig, of Fairview, make regular bi-weekly visits to North Highland. We would advise the Fairview Bachelor to keep his eye on them and find out their intentions.

Mrs. Ole Steensland gave a 6 o'clock dinner to a number of her friends, including Mr. and Mrs. S. Ulrickson and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hustel of Canton, last Sunday evening.

Messames Gilbert and Theo Thompson of Lincoln township are back from their holiday visit at Kenosha, Iowa.

Albert Helvig is husking corn for his father in South Highland.

Noble Helvig was going to take his best girl to the Fairview dance last Friday evening, and started out about 4 o'clock p. m. to catch his horse in the pasture, but old Nancy evidently knew what was expected of her, and utterly refused to be caught, and the result was a very disappointed young man and maiden.

The Christmas exercises at the school-house was a complete success, the program being one of the finest rendered there, and all honor due to our teacher, Miss Gunda Knutson.

The little folks in Dist. 41 were made very happy Friday before Christmas when their teacher, Mr. O'Conner, distributed candy, fruits, and nuts, and as this is quite a large school it was certainly very generous of Mr. O'Conner to do as he did.

The Misses Louisa and Anna Elster and Dora Sandven and Martin and Oaf Olson and Perry Elster went to Risty's at Springdale to spend New Year.

Mrs. Pete Peterson visited Mrs. Andrew Peterson recently.

Miss Louisa Elster came down from Sioux Falls to spend Christmas and a part of the New Year with relatives and friends.

Gust Risty and family of Springdale attended services in Beaver Creek Church Dec. 26 and visited at the home of Anthon Elster.

Miss Alpha Peterson is visiting relatives in Inwood, Iowa.

Mrs. Hans C. Peterson who has been with her daughter Mrs. Michael Olson in Canton, for some time, has returned to her home with her son John E. Peterson.

Mrs. Angell visited with Mrs. Ollanna Olson during the holidays.

George Angell visited with his brother L. Angell and family over Christmas.

Miss Hilda Olson of Sioux Falls, visited her brothers Anthon, Peter and Ulric of Dayton, and her sister, Mrs. Sorenson of Harrisburg during the holidays.

Mrs. Sorenson of Harrisburg visited relatives in Dayton recently.

Miss Dora Sandven of Inwood, Iowa, is visiting her cousin Mrs. Anthon Elster.

One evening during the holidays quite a number of the young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthon Elster and had a good time. Amusements of various kinds were indulged in and refreshments served and the guests all departed with the knowledge of having had a jolly good time.

The Misses Gena Haug, Louise Elster and Inga Naklein and Alfred and Adin Haug visited at the home of Arthur Sogn at Moe.

The Christmas tree exercises in the Beaver Creek church was well attended, the church being packed. The program was very good and showed good training by Miss Haug, who is always thorough in whatever she does. After the rendering of the program by the little folks who did very well and some very good selections by some of the older ones, and the one musical selection, the beautiful tree was stripped of all the good things, much to the delight of those receiving them and one and all departed for their homes feeling it was good for night's rest and friends to come together and worship in one house and feel the right Christian spirit, and no better time can be found than when all receive the wonderful gift of God's Love.

A Happy New Year to all! Corn husking is all done in Grand Valley, and consequently every one was ready for the snow on New Year's day.

Carl Holter was the first man seen making use of sleigh bells and cutter, in the new year. But so absorbed in thought was he, that he drove in through the wrong gate, and never noticed his mistake until the people of the house came out and spoke to him. Of course Carl was too polite to turn around and go back, so came in and spent a very pleasant evening. And the very next day accompanied by his mother, called on his other friend.

Christian Torberson and sisters attended the dance at Worthing last Monday evening.

Charles Guptill, Jr., from Running Water, is visiting old friends and neighbors in this locality during the holidays.

The social at C. B. Strand's last Friday night was well attended, and the sum of $10 was realized from the supper, which goes to the Ladies Aid Society.

Ed Lien and Oscar Helvig, of Fairview, make regular bi-weekly visits to North Highland. We would advise the Fairview Bachelor to keep his eye on them and find out their intentions.

Mrs. Ole Steensland gave a 6 o'clock dinner to a number of her friends, including Mr. and Mrs. S. Ulrickson and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hustel of Canton, last Sunday evening.

Sure Cure
for Lump Jaw

I have used Berigan's Lump Jaw Cure and recommend it to be good. I had a steer that had a bad case as I ever saw three months ago. I used the medicine at that time—only one dose, and now it is ready for the feed yard.

Here's a New Year greeting to every reader of the Leader.

May showers of blessings be your portion every day of the New Year.

He was a jolly fine fellow Old 19 and 6. He's gone! Her's a greeting flunk after.

He portioned our grieving and laughter.

Speed to his parting. A form in the distance comes forth our life to leave.

We'll toast him! 'Tis fair 19 and 7.

Mrs. Laurits Olson and two little sons from Earling have been visitors at E. Olsons during holiday week.

Rudolph Steensland and Sven Rikensrud took in the Aid Society Supper at C. B. Strand's in Grand Valley last Friday night.

Miss Inga Enervold returned to Madison, Tuesday, after a pleasant visit with J. Steensland and other relatives.

Ida Olson went down to Hawarden last Wednesday to spend a few days with friends.

Martin Holter of Riverside, his mother and sisters Laura and Cora were visitors at E. Olsons last Friday.

Inga Olson came down from Arlington, Monday to spend her vacation from her school duties up there.

Uno enjoyed a two weeks vacation down at Hudson.

"Uno" has figured on taking Rudolph Steenslands threshing job. It will be something unusual to hear a threshing outfit come puffing along this time of the year.

Charley Johnson, who was injured some time since, is slowly improving.

Mr. Redfield of Canton was out here accompanied by Mr. Johnson, of Iowa, who was looking over a place with a view of renting the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl are rejoicing over the arrival of a young lady who came to stay with them. She came Dec. 29 and John goes around with one of the sweetest smiles ever seen.

Mrs. John E. Peterson called on Mrs. John Wahl Friday.

There was a jolly party of young people gathered at the home of James Elster Saturday last and a good time was had. Games were played and refreshments served and all had a good time.

Mrs. John Elster called on Mrs. Wahl last Friday.
