CAUTION.—ALL PERSONS ARE HEREBY CAUTIONed against purchasing, or in any way negotiating two New York Central Railroad debt certificates or bonds, of $1,000 each, one numbered 6,596 and the other 2,940, as they were stolen from my office yesterday morning, by forcibly breaking open an iron safe which contained them. Any party having purchased the same will do well to communicate with me at once, as the party who committed the theft is well known and measures have been taken for his arrest.

FROM THE NANTUCKET ENQUIRER.—TELEGRAPH to Nantucket.—It is with no little feeling of pleasure that we inform our readers this morning that Nantucket is soon to be connected with the main land by means of the electric wire. Our citizens, with their usual spirit of enterprise, have furnished the necessary means, and the work is already begun. There are still a few remaining shares, which will doubtless be soon be taken up. Messrs. Brewer & Baldwin, the proprietors of the Cape Cod line, are the contractors for the extension of that line to Nantucket, and Mr. S. C. Bishop, gutta percha manufacturer, 181 Broadway, New York, holds the contract for manufacturing and laying the cable, the line to be in working operation by the last of July. The work of setting the poles will be commenced in about a week; they are to be set at a distance of 150 feet apart, from the foot of Orange street to Great Point. The route for the wire through the town has not yet been determined upon. From Great Point, the cable, which consists of a wire covered with gutta percha, the whole about an inch in diameter, is to be extended to Monomoy Point, a distance of twelve miles. The cable is to be sunk by means of weights, and in a short time will become so deeply imbedded in the sand as not to be affected by the tides. The gentlemen who hold these contracts guarantee to our citizens to place the telegraph in their hands in perfect order. We are glad these big greater enterprise about to be carried into effect, and regard it as indicative of the future prosperity of our island. Of the many advantages to be derived from this mode of communication we need not speak, they are sufficiently well understood by all, and will doubtless prove of immense benefit to our citizens. To the gentlemen through whose exertions this enterprise was consummated, too much praise cannot be awarded. They will ever be held in grateful remembrance by the present and future generations. Success to the Nantucket Marine Telegraph Line.

MASONIC.—MR. EDITOR—UNDER THE HEAD OF "City Intelligence" in yesterday's Herald, I notice a statement that "St. John's Grand Lodge was about joining in the celebration of the anniversary of St. John's day, on the 24th inst., and that St. John's Grand Lodge and the Grand Lodge meeting at 600 Broadway do not belong to the great body of the Masons, though measures are now in progress to unite them in one family union." Permit me to correct the impression that any such union is ever spoken of, nor would it for a moment be listened to by any of the members under the jurisdiction of St. John's Grand Lodge. The union of 1850 taught them a lesson not easily forgotten; and although each and every member would rejoice to see but one family in the State of Masonry, such an event could happen without a sacrifice of principle, yet they are not prepared to unite with any body of Masons, the expenses of which are $10,000 per annum, and out of that sum the widows and orphans received but $1,020; and more particularly when there is no appeal from the decision of the Grand Master. The members of St. John's Grand Lodge are satisfied where their sons and brothers are open to all who can prove themselves Masons. Yours, respectfully,
HENRY C. ATWOOD, P. G. M., 46 Division street.

Manhattan, season of fruits, 6th moon, year of discovery 361 of Independence 80, and of the institution the 68th.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK EXPRESS.—For upwards of two months I have been the victim of your malevolent and unprovoked attacks. So long as they met myself personally, or my exhibition, I was silent, for they evidently amused you, and certainly have done me no harm. Now, however, that you attack my audiences, characterizing them, in your paper of this evening, as "men about town, half grown boys, and, in general terms, a class of persons who may be supposed to have, as the rabble of Judea had, more sympathies and respect for the thief upon the cross than for him who was crucified with the thieves." I can no longer be silent. Your statement is false, and only worthy of men who seek to twist and pervert everything to their own purposes. My patrons are the elite of New York society; my box book contains the names of the first families of this city, and the concourse of ladies who nightly crowd my hall fully controverts your statement. If more be required, I can produce letters, which I am daily receiving, from people whose names are household words in the literature and arts of this country—thus giving an utter refutation to your preposterous and malignant assertion. I do not represent sacred tableaux as such but only as copies of those great works which are equally venerated and esteemed in the United States as in Europe; and the American public is far ready appreciation of my entertainments, has shown itself entirely adverse to countenancing the designs—not the opinions—of the editors of the express, in their Quixotic crusade against the arts for politico-personal objects. LOUIS KELLER.
