of our export trade, and asking for various suggestions from the Treasury relative to revenue laws, &c.

VETO MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT.

A message from the President was received, returning with his objections the bill for the improvement of the Des Moines Rapids. He says it is liable to the objections urged against other similar bills, and refers to his previous message on the subject.

The House then, under the operation of the previous question, repassed the bill, notwithstanding the President's veto, by yeas 130, to nays 54.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE POST OFFICE.

The bill making appropriations for the support of the Post Office Department was then passed without debate.

THE NAVAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. HARRISON, (dem.) of Ohio, rising to a personal explanation, read an extract from Mr. Burlingame's speech at Dayton, in which he (Harrison) was designated as a doughface, with the remark that "there would be no doughfaces, if doughface constituents were not behind them." He (Harrison) could scarcely believe that Mr. Burlingame went out of his way to endorse the vague charge of irresponsible persons, and he trusted that it would yet be found that the reporter was mistaken. But if the language attributed to Mr. Burlingame was intended, directly or indirectly, to charge him, or any portion of his constituents, with tendering subserviency to any portion of the country, or to any party in the House, he pronounced the charge as infamous and unmitigated calumny.

THE ARMY BILL.

On motion of Mr. CAMPBELL (nigger worshipper), of Ohio, the army bill, returned from the Senate without the Sherman proviso, was taken up. He simply asked the Clerk to read the clause from the constitution.

Mr. SHERMAN—I object.

Mr. LETCHER—It's out of order to read the constitution here.

The second article and amendments of the constitution were subsequently read.

Mr. CAMPBELL said having sworn to support the constitution he should vote against retaining the Sherman proviso.

Mr. PENNINGTON (nigger worshipper), of N. J., suggested a substitute to avoid all constitutional scruples, namely—"Declaring that no part of the military force, for the support of which appropriations are made by this act, shall be employed to aid in the enforcement of any enactment of the body claiming to be the Territorial Legislature of Kansas, until such enactments shall have been affirmed and approved by Congress; but this proviso shall not be so construed as to prevent the President employing adequate military force; but that it shall be his duty to employ such force to prevent the invasion of the Territory by armed bands of non-residents, or any other body of non-residents acting as a posse comitatus of any officer in the Territory in the enforcement of any such enactment, and to protect persons and property therein, and upon the national highway leading to the Territory, from all unlawful searches and seizures; that it shall be his further duty to take efficient measures to compel the return of and withhold all arms of the United States distributed to said Territory in pursuance of law."

Mr. CAMPBELL said as Mr. Pennington's proviso did not violate the letter or spirit of the constitution, and taking all the circumstances into consideration, he would accept. He moved the previous question.

Mr. COBB, (dem.) of Ga., rose to a point of order. He said the Senate's amendment to the bill was to strike out the Sherman proviso, and the House was compelled to vote on that only.

The SPEAKER decided that the amendment was in order, and was sustained by 16 majority.

Mr. PENNINGTON's proviso was adopted, by 101 against 86.

The Senate's amendment thus amended was returned to that body.

Light house appropriation and other bills of minor importance were then passed.

Recess till 7 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. SIMMONS, (nigger worshipper,) of New York, spoke of the various contrivances to deplete the public treasury, and advocated reform.

Mr. CAMPBELL, of Ohio, moved that the committee rise and report to the House the resolution pending, to refer the various parts of the President's annual message to the appropriate committees.

Mr. WALKER, (K. N.,) of Alabama, objected, as the evenings had been set apart for general debate, not business.

Mr. CAMPBELL replied, if Mr. Walker, who was a recent convert to, and now acting with the administration, objected, he had nothing more to say. He had made the motion more out of respect to the office of President than to the matter contained in the message.

Mr. WALKER asked Mr. Campbell to put his finger on a single act or vote to demonstrate his (Campbell's) respect for the President.

Mr. CAMPBELL responded that he had stated very distinctly he had respect for the office of President, not for the doctrine of the message. He had not, thank God, voted to sustain the policy of this administration. He was an unyielding political enemy.

Mr. WALKER said he was no convert to the administration. He did not say so in his late speech, nor make any allusion to its policy. He had confined himself to the line of action he should pursue, not only as a Southern man, but as a patriot, in the Presidential election. He had not sunk into the low character of a partizan, but trusted he was governed by better motives.

Mr. CAMPBELL refered to the fact that the provision making evening sessions for general debate terminated last week.

Mr. LETCHER, (dem.) of Va., when this report was closed, was addressing the committee in reply to Mr. SIMMONS, charging the latter with having helped to increase the expenses which he had to-night so earnestly condemned.
