REMEDY AGAINST ASIATIC CHOLERA AND DYSentery, by Doctor Theodore Gaillardet, Professor of Medicine and Surgery of the Faculty of Paris, &c., &c.—As proprietors of the above remedy we have established in this city our depot for the retail trade, at the store of Messrs. D. T. Lamman & Co., 69 Water street. The price, in this city, of one bottle of the liquid and of one box of powders, (which are sufficient for the treatment of the disease and during convalescence,) is four dollars. The circulars, which are published in French, English and Spanish will be distributed gratis at the above store. Wholesale orders can be addressed to us directly at No. 4 South William street, as also all letters in either English, French, Spanish or German. The directions accompanying the bottles and boxes bear the written signature of Doctor Gaillardet and our own; the circulars bear printed signatures. As soon as agents shall have been appointed in other cities we shall make it known through the newspapers of widest circulation. In order to avoid purchasing a spurious article, attention should be given to our circulars and the particular marks, &c., which invariably accompany our remedy. DURAN & RUIZ.
