POLITICAL.

4TH WARD.—AT THE CLOSING MEETING OF THE Buchanan and Breckinridge Club of the Fourth ward, held at Washington hall, corner of Henry and Catherine streets, on the evening of the 14th instant, Dr. Wm. O'Donnell, President, in the chair, and George W. Casserly acting as Secretary, the following resolutions were offered by Oliver O'Donnell, and were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, the glorious victories which have just been achieved by the united strength of democratic principle, fill our hearts with the greatest joy, affording as they do, the sweet guarantee for the preservation of our noble Union, and the perpetuity of our free and happy institutions—

Resolved, That we congratulate our democratic brethren throughout these United States upon their successes over the allied forces of sectionalism and religious intolerance.

Resolved, That in the triumphant election of James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, as President and Vice President, we all feel the greatest confidence, that under their masterly superintendence, our national affairs, both at home and abroad, will be managed with that firmness and energy which their high standing, character and ability, give so satisfactory a promise.

Resolved, That now, supported by the fiat of a nation of sovereigns, we have, if possible, a still deeper and more abiding faith in the great political truths embodied in the Cincinnati platform, combining as they do, the sacred dogmas of the constitution—that palladium of our liberty, that ark of our national safety.

Resolved, That we look with ridicule upon the sickly efforts of our opponents in antifusion of 1856, and would advise them to send the wooly horse and their bantling to the rural districts of Mariposa, to revive their shattered constitutions; for it would be like biting on a file should they again enter the lists with the democracy with such materials.

Resolved, That as members of the Buchanan and Breckinridge Club of the Fourth ward we feel a just pride in reverting to the glorious manner in which our ward has distinguished herself in the late canvass by rolling up the large and unprecedented majority of two thousand in favor of the democratic nominees—a fact highly creditable to our untiring exertions during the campaign.

Resolved, That we heartily concur in the resolutions adopted by the Democratic General Committee on the 10th inst., and that we will cheerfully attend the grand jubilee at Tammany Hall on the evening of the 26th inst.

WM O'DONNELL, President.

JOSEPH ROSE, JAMES G. SMITH, EUGENE SHINN, MAURICE O'KEEFE, } Vice Presidents.

EDWARD M. MORRIS, GEORGE F. BICKFORD, } Secretaries.

DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN GENERAL COMMITTEE.—At the Democratic Republican General Committee for the city and county of New York, held at Tammany Hall on the evening of Monday, the 10th instant, Mr Charles A. May of the sixteenth ward, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted with great unanimity, there being but one vote in the negative:—

Resolved, That the Democratic Republican General Committee of the city of New York, in view of the result of the late Presidential election, congratulate the friends of Republican institutions throughout [illegible] Union the continued preservation of this glorious American Union, now confirmed in the success of the democratic party, asserting and maintaining genuine republican and constitutional principles.

Resolved, That the democracy of the country having now safely passed through the most trying and critical period of its history, in which it has contended with unscrupulous and desperate enemies with no aid except the purity of its principles and the integrity and patriotism of its candidates, extend to the friends of republicanism throughout the world greetings and congratulations and renewed assurances that the stability of the American Union is planted firmly and unshakeably upon a foundation as solid and immoveable as its founders were wise and patriotic.

Resolved, That to the democracy of the Union we also extend our heartfelt congratulations. For them and for us it is a proud and triumphant day. Never has the party or the country passed through so threatening an ordeal; the organizations of the former never been so severely tested, or the permanency of the latter placed in more critical condition.

Resolved, That we are especially proud of the position which the Empire city has assumed and maintained in this glorious contest. She has been true to herself, true to Tammany Hall and her ancient and time honored usages, true to the democracy of the Union, in the hour of its deepest peril true to her own fame and mighty commercial power and enterprise; true to the memory of her revered statesmen and soldiers, who by great sacrifices rendered such efficient aid in the original establishment of our liberties and of our federal government, and more than all, at the present time, true to her chief magistrate, of whom she is justly proud, the acknowledged head and front of the victorious democracy.

Resolved, That if there be cause for congratulations to the world and the whole Union in the success of our electoral ticket, so is there cause of congratulations to the people of New York irrespective of party, in the election of Fernando Wood.

Amidst the most unscrupulous opposition (internal and external), an opposition characterized by the fiercest malignity, unequalled in any preceding political contest, he has shown the calm, clear evidence of a consummate leader, and the bold unshaken front of a successful general, not intimidated by threats, not moved by the fearful combinations formed against him, in which the basest of all other political organizations, united with the unprincipled of every hue he relied confidently upon the virtue and intelligence of the democracy, and the people seeing in the result the assertion of the right, and that the wreath of the conqueror's laurel would surround his brow.

Resolved, That though the election of Mr. Wood possesses peculiar points not applicable to the other democratic candidates, we are still not unmindful of the great victory achieved in the election of Richard Busteed and the other candidates of the party; they are good and true men, in whom the democracy take especial pride, and whose election we hail with great satisfaction.

Resolved, That we warmly congratulate the democracy of the city and county of New York in having so nobly stood by their congressional candidates, and elected a delegation to the next Congress, of whom not only their own constituency but the nation at large may be justly proud.

Resolved, That in view of these results the democracy are requested to assemble in the Old Wigwam at Tammany Hall on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst., at 7½ o'clock, to celebrate these victories, and that a committee of one from each ward be appointed by the Chair, to make the necessary preparations for their reception.

Signed, WILSON SMALL, Ch'n, Dem. R. G. Com.

SAMUEL L. BENEDICT, ALFRED CHANCELLOR, PETER B SWEENEY, JOHN Y. SAVAGE, } Secretaries.
