MORTON'S REMEDY.—CARD.—AN EMINENT PHYSIcian, of much experience, offers to the public an infallible cure for a certain prevalent disease. A method requiring no internal medicines, dispensing entirely with the nauseous drugs usually employed in such cases. Its action is direct, safe and effectual. It has never been known to fail of performing a perfect cure, and a single trial will convince the most skeptical of its superior merits. The public will understand that it is not offered as a cureall, but intended solely for one class of disease. Directions accompany each bottle. Price $1. Sold at the following drug stores:—Chas. H. Ring, 192 Broadway; 169 and 267 Bleecker street, 374 Grand street, New York; 99 Montgomery street, Jersey City, 151 Grand street, Williamsburg, and corner of Fulton and Pineapple streets, Brooklyn.
