"IT GLOWS WITH THE GENIUS OF ROMANCE." HARPER & BROTHERS, 327 to 335 Pearl street, (Franklin square), publish this day:

THE DAYS OF MY LIFE.
AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY.
By the author of "Margaret Maitland," "Lilliesleaf," &c., &c.
12mo, muslin, 75 cents.

Full of touching passages and well wrought scenes.—Examiner.

The gifted authoress of "The Days of My Life" exhibits in a marked manner the first requisites of an eminent novelist—fertile invention, picturesque powers, poetic feeling, and considerable constructive skill. We are strong, too, with the breadth of her manner. The conception of the story is both large and simple, and it has the merit of perfect originality. The story is most eloquently written, and is extremely attractive and skillful. It glows with the genius of romance—the romance of social circumstances and affections. We cordially congratulate the gifted authoress on the success she has achieved.—The Press.

The author of this novel is one of the most truthful delineators of domestic life. Each of the chapters of her clever tale is a perfect sketch in itself, producing a combination which imperceptibly wins favor and makes indelible impressions. "The Days of My Life" is quite equal to "Margaret Maitland." With most novels the excitement of a first reading passes away as soon as the denouement is reached. This is not the case with these author's books. We continually recur to them, and often a third reading, and, like the novels of Sir Walter Scott, the more frequently they are reverted to the greater the pleasure. We have very little doubt that the same marks of permanent favor which yet abide by the tales of Miss Edgeworth and Miss Austen, and the novels of Scott and Bulwer, are in store for the gifted lady's agreeable works of fiction.—Messenger.

The truthful delineation of this writer's style is still maintained, combined, perhaps, with more of strength.—Spectator.

The author writes with her usual the capacity for the picturesque, her preference for simplicity, her knowledge of certain types of character, and her invariable good sense, good feeling and good taste. No part of the narrative is uninteresting.—Athenæum.

Will be published April 18,
May number of the
YOUNG PEOPLE'S ILLUMINATED MAGAZINE.
It will be at top top number.

We depart from our usual rule of not nodding serials, to bestow a few words of passing commendation on this pretty little periodical. The articles are well written, and are just what are suited to publications of this sort, being neither too elaborate in style, nor yet written down below the level of children's comprehension—an error but too common nowadays. The magazine is prettily illustrated, and will, no doubt, find favor with a class of juvenile readers. Buy No. 11.—From the N. Y. Herald.

This Magazine is certainly in typography and illustrations, one of the most elegant periodicals ever issued in this country. The editor is evidently a practiced writer for children, and presents a rare combination of natural ease and grace in his styles.—Day Book.

It is seldom that you find such a collection of choice things gotten together so appropriately.—Times.

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURG, FORT WAYNE AND Chicago Railroad Company, Pittsburg, March 20, 1857.—Notice is hereby given that the company are prepared to issue their new stock in exchange for that of the Ohio and Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Companies, upon the terms and in the manner prescribed in the articles of consolidation, viz.—Ohio and Pennsylvania, interest to July 1, 1856, and 20 per cent premium; Ohio and Indiana, interest to July 1, 1856, and par; Fort Wayne and Chicago, interest to July 1, 1856, and 6 per cent premium. Stockholders in either of the old companies who may have assigned any portion of their stock previous or subsequent to the consolidation, (August 1, 1856) without having had such stock transferred on the books of the old companies, and parties holding the certificates for such stock, are notified that this company will not recognize the transfer of such assigned stock, as the full shares of the interest to July 1, 1856, and premium have been credited to the original holders. Scrip certificates will be issued to each original holder in cases where fractional amounts of interest and premium in the old stock exist. F. D. MCKENZIE, Secretary.

SALES AT AUCTION.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY, AUCTIONEER.
$36,000 eight per cent city and county bonds.

ALBERT H. NICOLAY will sell at auction, at his regular semi-weekly auction sale of stocks and bonds on the day April 9, 1857, at 12½ o'clock at the Merchants' Exchange, $27,000 Hancock County (Illinois) 8 per cent bonds, dated July 1, 1855, and redeemable at the American Exchange Bank, in New York July 1, 1876; interest coupons payable annually on the 1st of July, $1,000 each.

$9,000 Warsaw city (Illinois) 8 per cent bonds, dated May 21, 1856, and one at the American Exchange Bank, in New York, May 21, 1876; interest coupons, payable January and July 1, $1 000 each.

The Hancock county and Warsaw city bonds were issued in conformity with a act of the State Legislature authorizing the issue of bonds to aid in the construction of the Warsaw and Rockford Railroad. The amount of taxable property in the county for last year, 1856, was $5,306 949; taxes, $73,156; population about 25 000; area in acres 483 840. The authorized issue by the county is $100,000. The amount of taxable property in the city is $1 000,000; taxes $8,080; population 3,400. The authorized issue by the city is $50 000. Hancock county is one of the most prosperous in the state, and the above railroad, it is expected, will be finished 50 miles (viz. from Warsaw to Quincy Junction) in about sixty days from the present time.

And for a permanent investment no safer bonds can be found in the market. For further particulars apply to the auctioneer, No. 4 Broad street.
