Resolved, that the Ninth Ward National Democratic Republican Committee have heard read with pleasure and satisfaction the able, explicit and convincing address issued by the Democratic Republican General Committee of the city and county of New York on the 6th of May, 1857, and signed by its presiding officer Wilson Small, Esq., and the Secretaries, that we recognize no higher authority for our political action than the said General Committee and the sanctioning the acts of our delegates in our General Committee in appointing two of their number to act in the convention called by the Tammany Society, yet by that action we intend in no manner to recognize their acts except so far as they may tend towards the formation of a plan for referring our primary elections that we renew our adherence to the above General Committee of which Wilson Small is chairman, feeling that it is the only true representation of the democracy of the city; that our delegates to said Committee having been duly elected, have no right at the behests of any secret organization to lay down the trusts that have been confided to them by the Democratic voters of this ward.
