ADDITIONAL FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTH STAR AND KANGAROO.

The Effect of the New York Panic in Europe.

SHIPMENT OF GOLD TO AMERICA, &c., &c., &c.

The United States mail steamship North Star, Captain Lefebre, which left Southampton on the 7th inst., arrived early yesterday morning, with the German, French and English mails.

The screw steamship Kangaroo, Capt. Jeffrey, which left Liverpool at 10 o'clock on the morning of 7th inst., also arrived yesterday forenoon.

The news had been anticipated by the Europa at Halifax.

Purser Kavanagh, of the Kangaroo, has our thanks for full files of papers and the latest news.

The United States corvette Plymouth sailed from Southampton on the 4th inst. for the United States. Her officer were handsomely entertained by ex Mayor Andrews a few days prior to their departure. One of the seamen on the corvette gained access to the spirit room, and drank to such an excess as to produce congestion of the brain, from which he speedily died.

The great annual cattle fair at Ballinasloe, Ireland, commenced on the 5th inst. The attendance was numerous and the supply of stock very fine. Over seventy thousand sheep were sold on the first day.

The report of the select committee of the House of Commons in regard to the charter of the Hudson Bay Company, had been issued. It recommends that a certain portion of the territory be ceded to Canada; that the connection between the company and Vancouver's Island be terminated; and that the colony should be extended to the west of the Rocky Mountains. The committee considers it desirable that the company should continue to enjoy the privilege of exclusive trade, except in the parts alluded to in their report.

The buildings for receiving the Atlantic telegraph cable at Plymouth dock yard had been completed, and the landing of the cable was expected to be completed from the Niagara in about six weeks, when she will return to New York to repair. The Susquehanna had left Plymouth for Spezzia.

The differences between France and Denmark in regard to the settlement of the Sound dues had been arranged. France is to pay her quota of the indemnity in forty half yearly instalments.

The Paris Constitutionnel announces that the French government has taken certain measures to encourage the production of cotton in its West Indian possessions.

It had been rumored that a circular was to be issued from the French Foreign Office relative to the Stuttgardt interview and its consequences, but a despatch from Paris to the London Post contradicts the statement, and also questions the existence of any circular from Austria on the meeting at Vienna.

It is stated that Lord Strafford had called the attention of the Porte to the large quantities of weapons which the ultra Mahommedans were supplying to their fellow believers in India, and that the Grand Vizier replied that he could not possibly interfere with any private speculations of the kind.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says:—According to the latest despatches received by the French government from Hong Kong, the Court of Pekin had returned no reply to the demands for satisfaction addressed to it by the French Minister in China. There is a talk here of operations being commenced as soon as Baron Gros shall arrive at his post.

The Russian war ship La Forte, which was lost, was caught in a squall when under double reefed topsails.

The Royal Bank of Berlin had raised the rate of discount on commercial paper to 6½ per cent.

A despatch from Berlin of the 5th inst. says:—The Empress of Russia arrived at Potsdam last night. The King of Saxony has just arrived here. The Emperor Napoleon is not expected here any time this year.

Typhus fever was gaining ground at Lisbon, and the deaths were quite numerous. The English mail packets did not communicate with the city.

The London Star says, referring to the American mare Princess:—

The Chester Autumn Meeting was not remarkable. The success of Sanniteer was the most interesting of the racing incidents, and it showed that the horse had suffered little from his recent voyage to and from France. The pride of the American turfites was still further humbled, for their "crack" mare Princess sustained a more ignominious defeat than that which befell her at Goodwood and Lewes. Brother Jonathan must now be satisfied of the inferiority of his race horses compared with our own, for not one of the "Americans"—with the exception of the least thought of, Babylon—has been able to make even a show of a race with second and third rate native
