We had the pleasure this week of meeting J. J. Roberts of Sioux Falls, who is acting in the capacity of state manager for S. F. Baker & Co. of Keokuk, Iowa, manufacturers and proprietors of the well known Dr. Baker's Remedies. They now have a branch office at Sioux Falls and Mr. Roberts informed us that they soon expect to have every county in the state east of the Missouri River filled but stated that he still had some very desirable territory in the southeastern part of the state. This would be a splendid opportunity for some of our wide awake hustlers among the Lincoln county boys as this is an old reliable firm and has been established for nearly fifty years and they have a good proposition for men that are willing to work.

—Trust paid 17 cents for butter fat at Centerville while the Canton creamery paid 21 cents. It is reasonable to suppose the trust would have been paying 17 cents in Canton if there had been no creamery here. Remember this every morning.

—Patronize a home creamery. Your neighbor can't maintain a creamery and high prices alone.

The Canton Philatheas and Baracas entertained the Sioux Falls Philatheas and Baracas with an elegant banquet in Baraca hall last Friday evening after the basket ball game. It is no wonder that the Sioux Falls Baracas won the game, having such a charming and beautiful bunch of young ladies to cheer them on.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millage had a wedding anniversary last Sunday, it being the tenth milestone in their joyous and happy voyage through life. Mrs. Millage adjourned the celebration of the event until Monday evening when a number of friends assembled to extend congratulations, and singular as it may seem, every guest brought along a great big tin spoon and presented the same to the blushing ten year bride. Then came supper and it was a royal feast, after which Mrs. Eli Bohlen spoke, briefly and pleasantly of the happy event and of the pleasure she had in behalf of the assembled guests, in presenting the bride and groom with a set of silver knives and forks. The bride responded briefly and thanked the friends for their kindness and consideration and hoped that every wedding anniversary in the future might be as fruitful in good results, after which the social features of the event were enjoyed until an hour later.

There is a case before Justice Hawn which seems to attract a good deal of interest among the little fellows who are in the habit of throwing stones. Sometime ago Eli Stein's boy was hit by a stone and the next day Mr. Stein got after Roy Rudolph and, punished the boy with unnecessary harshness, frightening the little fellow badly. Ernest Rudolph, the eldest brother, called at the Stein home to enquire into the matter and he was attacked, and then Art. Goetz interfered and got Ernest away from trouble, and Stein squared away to give Art a so-ler plexus bunt but the ring rules were suspended by the arrival of Judge Kennedy and Thomas Thorson, who declared an armistice in place of a Queensberry decision. Then Mr. Stein was arrested charged with disturbing the peace, and the trial, after several hearings and a change of venue, reached a call for a jury Wednesday evening, when an adjournment was taken to Thursday, and on Thursday the case rested, the prisoner was absent without permission. It is getting to be a famous case, and from what we can learn, Roy Rudolph did not throw any stones at the time the trouble began. Stone throwing is a dangerous practice and has led to many a fight and many a bloody nose. Judge Kennedy appears for the city and Judge Forrest for the defense.

Canton Odd Fellows to the number of twenty-six went over to Inwood Tuesday afternoon in seven rigs, and found a genuine welcome awaiting them. The Inwood lodge had work on hand. Five candidates were in waiting for the preliminaries that would pass them into the innermost circles, and then some. The Canton party took charge of the work and when they got through the new Odd Fellows were satisfied. A splendid banquet followed the initiation, and by six o'clock in the morning the Canton braves were wending their way down the Iowa bluffs towards the placid Sioux, when the rig Harry Berg was driving met with a mishap. One of the wheels broke down and another followed and the party consisting of the driver, G. B. Scott, F. A. E. Goodroad and O. L. Campbell were out on the ground and hunting for damages. Some had peeled shins and bad bruises while Mr. Scott had his shoulder dislocated. Odd Fellows are nearly all doctors in an emergency and they soon had the dislocation fixed. The balance of the crowd came on home and sent Fred Keldel out after the wrecked party with a buss. Wednesday morning Bro. Waldo looked as if he had attended a corn husking bee and got the "red ear."

Smoke Gate City cigars. Better than ever. Sold by all first class dealers. E. C. Becker, Maker.

—Clean skimming; capacity; durability and light running are essential to a good Cream Separator. The above qualities are found in the EMPIRE. For sale by Jones B. Gray, Canton, S. D. 32-1f.

Mrs. Shufelt's Funeral.

The funeral of this well known lady took place last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Congregational church, the service being conducted by Rev. G. S. Evans, who preached a sermon full of hope and consolation to the aching hearts called there by the sudden demise of one whose cheerful presence and happy greetings made her an esteemed friend of young and old.

Mrs. Shufelt was a noble hearted motherly woman, generous in christian charity and ever ready to assist the needy and relieve the distressed. Suffering or sorrow appealed to her generous and loving disposition and none ever appealed for help in vain. Her sudden death came as a shock to all, and the evidence of sorrow was general in the final act of life's journey.

The floral tributes of loving friends were numerous and beautiful and the final service at the grave was conducted by the officers of the Gate City chapter of which Mrs. D. H. Hawn is Worthy Matron, assisted by L. E. Tillotson as Worthy Patron, Mrs. L. E. Tillotson as Chaplain, and the five points of the star was represented by Mrs. Puckett, Mrs. Jamieson, Mrs. Seely, Mrs. Averill and Miss Nora Oliver. Just as Undertaker Campbell was lowering the casket into the grave the Stars sang "Nearer My God to Thee," and the last honors to their beloved friend was rendered.

A devoted husband and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Lee, are left to mourn the death of a devoted wife and mother, and this community joins with the LEADER in extending to them the deepest sympathy that loving friends can express.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned desire to express their sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so generously and lovingly rendered assistance at the funeral of our beloved wife and mother.

The North Dakota Chautauqua, Devils Lake, N. D. Herbert Leon Cope, the humorist, believes in looking on the bright side of things. In his talk Saturday afternoon he went after the man who goes through life with a long face, challenging anything to make him look good-natured. To reform such men is the mission of Mr. Cope. There is no gainsaying the millions who will be forced to laugh if Mr. Cope continues in the same happy vein he has so far pursued. As a humorist he is simply irresistible.—Inter Ocean.

Mr. Cope will be heard at the College Chapel next Monday evening November 18th. Don't fail to hear this side splitting genius.

Reserved seats at Helme's at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.
