A CARD—THE UNDERSIGNED ANNOUNCES HIMself an independent candidate for Assemblyman in the Second Assembly district. The so called regular democratic candidate was nominated by a packed convention. He is no democrat and has no principle in common with the democratic party. He claims to be a friend of the people and an anti monopolist. His connection with the Plainfield bank affair is a practical demonstration of his sincerity. His opponent is a Know Nothing. Neither have any interest in Brooklyn, their business being exclusively in New York. I am long and well known to the electors of the district, and I call upon men of all parties who coincide with me in the above sentiments to rally to my support.
THOMAS MULOAHY.
