N. N. Coon was a renewal subscriber who called Tuesday.

Miss Grace Luther arrived home from Grand Forks, N. D., last Saturday.

President O. A. Rudolph of the State Mutual Fire Association, went up to Milbank Monday on business.

B. Soles, of southwest Highland, and daughter, were welcome visitors at this office Monday. Mr. Soles called to renew his subscription.

Mrs. Bagley and her son, Lane W. of Dayton township, left for Mitchell Tuesday evening, where Mrs. Bagley will reside while Lane attends College there.

Mr. Fred A. Bucknam and Miss Pearl Brown both of Inwood, Ia. were married at the Congregational parsonage last Thursday forenoon by Rev. Geo. S. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Coon went to Ireton, Iowa, Saturday, being called there by the illness of her sister. Mr. Coon returned home Monday and Mrs. Coon remained to take care of her sister.

The first real touch of winter dropped upon us Monday night, when the mercury crawled down to zero, but Tuesday morning opened up fair and clear and the sun smiled sweetly upon chilled nature, and the thermometer apologized for its undue haste.

Chris Jensen and his brother Alfred, returned from Montana Tuesday, where they secured homesteads in the Musselshell valley. Chris reports Mr. Ryan and other Cantonites as happy and full of hope for the future.

Cashiers checks, bank checks, wheat checks or any other kind of asset, currency taken at the LEADER office. If you have any doubts as to the actual value of such paper come to the LEADER office and get your subscription data marked up. Gold, silver and greenbacks taken as heretofore.

Martin Knudston of Dayton township, was a visitor and a new subscriber Monday. The Knudston home is one of the handsomest and most attractive in the township. Martin is a progressive young gentleman and farms the old John Lee quarter in addition to the Knudston homestead, and he grows strong and healthy over the extra work.

E. J. Straw of the real estate firm of Wendt & Straw, returned Saturday from a two weeks whirl up in Hand, Hyde, Spink and Beadle counties with men seeking farm lands, and sold during that time 1440 acres or nine quarters. Mr. Straw is of the opinion that the demand for South Dakota lands next year will be greater than this, judging from information at hand.

Edwin Winge, a prominent young farmer in Dayton township, who makes his home with Albert L. Johnson, drives one of the finest autos in the county. He came in town the other day with his big auto enclosed in leather and glass and looked like some millionaire farmer out for a spin. Edwin is a philosopher and a gentleman and a fine judge of what constitutes human happiness, because he is a living example of human happiness and would be a heap more happy than he is if he didn't have to drive over the roads alone. He graduated from Augustana in the class of '05.

The best cigar in town without regard to price is Becker's Gate City Club. It's a 5 cent cigar but it is better than any 10 center. Try it.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up every minute to treat myself with drops and my weight was no more than 100 lbs. I had given up all hope, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One bottle cured me of my Bright's disease. I had been told that it was a waste of money, but I had no other recourse. I had been told that it was a waste of money, but I had no other recourse. I had been told that it was a waste of money, but I had no other recourse."

P. A. Anderson was among our renewal subscribers Monday. Peter is working in Chraft & Hansen's big double store.

Rev. Geo. B. Brown of Belgrade, Minn. was a guest of Rev. Evans at the Congregational parsonage last Friday.

Mrs. A. P. Dixon came from Chicago to attend the funeral of Mrs. Shuffelt, one of her dearest and best beloved friends. Mrs. Dixon will return to Chicago in a few days, where she has been visiting with her sons, Cyrus and Andrew, and will then go south for the winter and will visit for a time with her son Robert of Weleetka, Oklahoma, who is a member elect of the legislature of that new state.

John J. Zimmerle, one of the best farmers in the county and one of the tallest, who has rented I. F. Hunt's fine farm down in Lincoln township, stopped the editor on the street Saturday and indicated our lack of generosity by saying that he had been a steady Canton visitor for some time and that we never held him up on the street and asked him to subscribe. We admitted our sublime modesty and lack of strenuous initiative in this direction and said we were willing to apologize and correct mistakes, but he modestly handed out a dollar and a half and cut our eloquence short by directing that we send the LEADER to his address on Route 1, and thus another patriot joined the LEADER family. There may be others who think we have neglected our duty in this direction, but if they will call our attention to this delinquency we will make it clear that we are not altogether to blame. The subscription list of the LEADER is so large now that we can't keep track of every name and every face in a family of fifteen hundred, and when a fellow asks a friendly face, once in awhile, if he don't want the LEADER, and is told with a smile of satisfaction that he has been a subscriber for a year or more, it makes the newspaper man feel like telling a lie to escape from the hole where he planted both feet so innocently. Mistakes will happen, but if there are any who feel aggrieved because a LEADER solicitor hasn't been around, please drop us a postal card, or better still, call at the office and smoke a new subscriber's pipe of peace and then we can discuss corn, winter wheat, the weather, the price of pork and a few other things. Such a visit will do any man good and we are willing to bank cashiers checks on the proposition that the editor will feel just as happy as the new subscriber.
