DRY GOODS, &C.

AN IMPORTER'S SALE OF PARIS CLOAKS, MANTILLAS, RAGLANS, &c., Manufactured by the celebrated artist, JEAN DE LA MAIR, Of La Ville de France, Paris, At 503 Broadway, Three doors below St. Nicholas Hotel.

The subscriber, about to retire from business, and anxious to close out the balance of rare and valuable merchandise, (previously shipped to the United States) as speedily as possible, has concluded to offer further inducements to his patrons, by submitting the entire collection of ladies' outer garments at the mere cost of importation.

The collection comprises the following articles:—
SUPERB LYONS VELVET CIRCULARS,
Do. TRIMMED POINT LACE.
Do., with Greek flowing sleeves and capouche.
ELEGANT CASTOR BEAVER RAGLANS,
Do. do. do. with crochet adornments.
Do. do. do. with robe de Angleterre.

A number of exquisite productions in the style of Louis Quatorze.

The beautiful envelope called "LA FIGLIA DEL REGIMENTO," With an endless variety of light and fancy wrappers, dusters, sleighing and promenade cloaks, &c.

As these extraordinary advantages can only be offered for a very limited period, it is manifestly to the advantage of all purchasers instantly to avail themselves of an opportunity so seldom met with.

JEAN DE LA MAIR, Fabricant de Modes, 503 Broadway, N. Y., and La Ville de France, Paris.
