Saturday was another of those delightful spring days.

Mrs. J. G. Little called Saturday to pay for the LEADER.

Banker Wasmen of Harrisburg was a renewal subscriber Saturday.

Mrs. Sadie Eastcott left for Luverne last Friday for a week's visit with friends.

Charles Seely and Tom Eastcott left for New Mexico last Friday to secure a patient for the Indian Asylum.

W. D. Hyndman, one of the prosperous Lynn township farmers, was a visitor Saturday. He called to pay for his LEADER.

Ole Hanson of Fairview, was among the corn enthusiasts who favored this office with a visit last Saturday. He brought in a fine sample of corn for the contest.

John A. Gilbertson of Lynn township, was among our renewal subscribers Saturday and said he had some good corn which he would enter in the contest this week.

Dr. R. R. Stevenson the well known eye, ear, nose and throat specialist of Sioux Falls and assistant will be in Canton, Tuesday, Feb. 11th, Wednesday, Feb. 12th, and Thursday, Feb. 13th, at Rudolph Hotel. Glasses also fitted correctly.

Miss Ida Herrig recently returned from Minneapolis and North Dakota, where she has been visiting for nearly a year. "I love dear old Canton better than any other place, and I am glad to get home," remarked Miss Herrig with a smile of satisfaction.

Ole Haugen and Ulrik Ulrikson of Highland were among our renewal subscribers who called Saturday. Both are prominent farmers and deeply interested in the question of corn. Ulrikson wanted to see Tom's big ear of corn, but it hadn't arrived from Norway on Saturday.

The old saying that "honest goods" brings many customers is true, and that is the reason S. Tossini has such a big trade.

Edward Orth of the Minneapolis Journal stepped into Ed. Becker's cigar store Saturday. "Orth," said Becker, "I used to know a boy in New York of that name who used to attend the same school with me," "and I'm that same Orth," the Minneapolis man responded. Then the old school chums began to tell stories, and how the teacher could use a flat rule and how their hands used to burn, and they had a very happy reunion after 25 years.

Banker W. H. Wasmen of Harrisburg, accompanied by Mrs. Wasmen and their sweet little daughter, Fern, were in Canton Saturday on business, and favored this office with a visit. Banker Wasmen drives the finest auto in the county and his family enjoys the speed and charm of the big machine. The Harrisburg Bank has grown to be a solid and popular institution under Mr. Wasmen's able and careful management and furnishes banking facilities to a growing and prosperous section of the county.

To the Farmers.

Having good corn that fully matured and made good solid corn all these last years of early frost and backward seasons, and have had so many calls for seed in the fall, I concluded to pick some for seed which I will now offer for sale at a reasonable price. Remember all the complaints of imported corn that did not mature here, and don't wait till you have to depend on that for your seed this year. This corn can be delivered any time between now and the 15th of February, sample can be seen at Jones Gray's and the LEADER office, or call at my residence on the John Isakson farm 7 miles northwest of Canton.

One who admires a handsome school house with a nice fence and attractive surroundings, called the editor's attention to district 17, on the main traveled road two miles west of Canton. "I would love dearly to see it fixed up—with flag staff and bell, and a few flower beds and some ornamental shrubbery," remarked a lady who is interested in district 17.

"I am sure the children would appreciate it and thus create a desire for the beautiful in the youthful mind. Back in Ohio where I went to school we had a school house and grounds that was the admiration of the country people for miles around, and I have never forgotten the impressions thus formed."

The editor is not familiar with the financial condition of district 17, but it would seem that that little school house out on the public highway and within plain view from the railroad might be made more attractive to the little ones who spend so much time there.

District 17 ought to be one of the handsomest school buildings in the county and the LEADER would like to see the improvements made. You can not make the dear little school building too nice or too attractive for your boys and girls where they begin life in an educational way, and education is life. The LEADER wants to see every school house in the county made as handsome and attractive as 28, the winner of the LEADER prize.

Finest Ever Seen in Canton.

Mr. Edmund Carroll who will appear at the Canton Opera House on Friday evening Jan. 31, in Mr. Walker Whiteside's great comedy success "We Are King," makes some remarkably quick changes of costumes.

In portraying the dual role of Gustavus Venner, correspondent for the London Record and Hector, King of Kahnburg, he disappears out of one door and immediately appears elsewhere as the opposite character. In the first act, Mr. Carroll makes four distinct changes, the last being accomplished in nine seconds. This is so mystifying to the public that they are many times deceived and cannot realize that one man is playing both parts. Such, however, is the case and Mr. Carroll deserved much credit for his clever efforts.

For fresh oysters, fruits and home made candies, call on Tossini.

Lee M. Stevenson writes from Sioux, Nebraska, directing that his LEADER be sent to his new address.

J. M. Nelson of Norway kindly remembered the LEADER with a check for $3.50 on subscription this week.

T. J. McDermott of the Rudolph, went up to Luverne, Minn., last Saturday on business, returning Tuesday.

County Commissioner Smith came in from Lennox Monday bringing several samples of Grant township corn for contest.

Ole Kaitson, a prominent Norway township farmer, was a visitor and a renewal subscriber Monday. Ole says Roosevelt is his choice for president.

The temperance meeting in the Methodist Church Sunday evening was well attended and much interest was manifested by those who are opposed to saloons.

Alderman Redfield writes the LEADER from Denver that he has been troubled with rheumatism and other house confinement annoyances most of the time he has been in the mountain city. He reports Mrs. Redfield well and hopes for better things for himself in the future. He says all are for Roosevelt in Denver.

Misses Nellie Brenner and Jessie Roderick of the G. G. C's entertained the other members of the club and about a dozen gentlemen friends in the Masonic hall last Saturday evening. The invitations announced that it would be a "tuffy-pull" and that guests should bring aprons. The guests were supplied with tuffy and they proceeded to "pull" to see who could prepare it best for inspection. Miss Eva Conklin won the prize. After the tuffy-pull lunch was served. It was a very enjoyable affair.

John Ulberg, a former Canton contractor and builder, came down from Mott, North Dakota, last week to attend to some business matters and visit relatives and friends, and all were glad to see him. He likes Hettiger county and its splendid climate and states that he has had all the business he could attend to since he located at Mott. He will return home in a few days and travels by the Milwaukee to Lemmon.

John—"What kind of tea do you like best?" Priscilla—"Go-tees, some, but Rocky Mountain Tea best." John—"Way Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea best?" Priscilla—"It speaks for itself, John." (Makes lovely complexion.) I. M. Helmey & Co.

Oscar Fodness of Grant was a renewal subscriber Monday.

W. M. Parke, a former Lincoln township pioneer and prominent in the early history of the county, writes the LEADER from Wibaux, Montana, enclosing a three dollar money order for his LEADER. He reports prospering and a bright future for that country. He is located on the line of the Northern Pacific two miles from Wibaux. He says the weather has been fine so far, no snow, no cold days and little wind.

Oscar Fodness and Palmer Nelson of Grant township, were welcome visitors Monday. The young gentlemen came over from Grant to visit at Iver Schlager's and while in town called on friends at Augustana. They both seemed well satisfied with their visit, and Mr. Fodness remarked that Mr. Nelson would be a frequent visitor at Canton hereafter, and he smiled knowingly while Mr. Nelson was inclined to blush. We assured him that we could keep a secret.

Henry Sterken who lives on the Iowa side of the river above Fairview, was in town Monday on business and favored the LEADER with a visit. Mr. Sterken is a successful breeder of Hereford cattle and has sold nearly all he intends to dispose of for the present. He has a few head of those handsome white-faced cattle left and if you want any you must call on him soon. He is justly proud of white-faced cattle and those who purchased are equally as well pleased.

A Great Play.

"We Are King" with Mr. Edmund Carroll in the leading role is a comedy in three acts by Lieut. Gordon Dean, author of "The Magic Melody," and was used by Mr. Walker Whiteside for three seasons as a starring vehicle. The action is in Kahnburg, a small principality in Germany and deals with the complications in trying to dethrone King Hector, a despot, who has run his kingdom into debt and ground down his subjects.

Gustavus Venner, correspondent for the London Record, a lighthearted fellow, wanders into Kahnburg in search of news. He is arrested as a spy, Prime Minister and his followers who are plotting to rid the kingdom of Hector, are so impressed with Venner's marvelous resemblance to the king, that they induce Venner to impersonate the king, who is away on a secret mission.

Venner, under the impression that he is rendering the king and the court a favor, and seeing "good copy" in sight, consents, Hector Venner costumed as the King and accepted by the Court, proceeds to run the kingdom. He lowers the taxes on the people, throws the palace open to the public and gets himself into all sorts of ludicrous complications through his ignorance of court affairs.
