LOST FOR A HUNDRED YEARS.
This is true of ITALIAN PEARL WATER, the wondefully pleasant and effective qualities of which were known to an ignorant, uncivilized nation, more than a century ago. Never before known in America, it is alone in its pre-eminence as a most agreeable and efficient purifier of the skin and complexion. Having none of the detrimental qualities of acidulous cosmetics, it imparts a softness and firmness to the flesh, eradicates as by magic eruptions of the skin, and ministers unfailingly to the thousand delicate necessities of a lady's toilet. Notice that the trade mark is on every bottle. Price 50c. For sale at the following stores:—
Robert A. Tovey, corner Forty-fourth street and Sixth avenue.
Alexander Menzies, 577 Eighth avenue.

SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE.—THIS UNEQUALLED sauce, originally made by Alexis Soyer, and now from his recipe, is a most refreshing and pleasing stimulant to the appetite, and is composed principally of Turkish condiments, combined with various culinary productions of the East. It is an exquisite relish with fish, meats, poultry, game, and forms a valuable addition to soups, hashes, stews, and meat pies, as well as to salads. To steaks and chops it imparts a highly delicious flavor.

OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS.
We recommend our correspondent to try Monsieur Soyer's new sauce, entitled the "Sultana Sauce." It is made after the Turkish recipe: its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of slow and weak digestion.—The Lancet.
The Sultana Sauce is savory, piquant and spicy; a happy combination of flavors and essences worthy of the delicate taste of a Sultana, the genius of a Soyer, and the universal patronage of a discriminating public.—Observer.
A concentration of all the piquant resources of Turkey and Russia.—United Service Gazette.
As a titillater of the appetite the sauce stands alone. It is a most valuable adjunct to fish, flesh or fowl, and should be placed on every dinner table.—Atlas.
The Sultana Sauce is a most delicious zest.—Morning Chronicle.
The above can be had of the following grocers:—Driggs, 681, J. S. Pierce, 693, J. & W. Geery, 719, Gibson, 807, B. V. R. Corwin, 811, Tompson & Bro., 872, Corwin & Co., 930, and H. SCOTT'S TOOTHACHE DESTROYER.—TOOTHACHE cured in a few minutes. A sure and permanent cure, without pain, sold at the drug store,
506 GRAND STREET, CORNER OF ALLEN.
After trying every other remedy, this will give immediate relief; it will not injure the teeth, has no bad taste or smell, and will remove all soreness from
CLICKRATED TEETH, SWOLLEN FACE.
It will also render a decayed tooth as useful as ever. One application is generally sufficient to stop the pain of the most violent toothache. This remedy will draw the inflammation from the gums and remove the pain almost immediately. Persons troubled with the toothache should try a bottle before going to a dentist, as they will thereby avoid the torture of the dentist's instruments. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold only at the above store, 506 Grand street, corner of Allen.
