THE MILITARY.

AT A MEETING OF THE MORGAN RIFLES LIGHT Guards, held on their return from their first annual excursion for target practice on Thursday, the 18th inst., it was unanimously resolved that the thanks of the company be tendered to the gentlemen and guests for the kindness and liberality bestowed upon the company in presenting to them the many and valuable prizes contended for by the company on the above occasion. It was also resolved that to Mr. Stephen G. Wood, of No. 142 West street, we return our most sincere and heartfelt thanks for the bountiful and sumptuous repast furnished by him on our return from the excursion. It was further resolved that the above resolutions be published in the New York Herald and Sun. J. MAUCKAY, Captain.
J. MOUTHE, Secretary.

AT A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE BRADY GUARD, held on Friday evening, Nov. 19, 1858, at No. 28 Whitehall street, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, the dispensation of an all-wise God has deprived of life our late captain and friend, Daniel Stackpole, while yet in the youth of manhood; and whereas, through the instrumentality of these cowardly miscreants who thus hurried him to an untimely grave, we have lost a tried friend and companion, one whose heart was ever open to the call of the distressed, and who by his energy and perseverance had won many firm and fast friends; the void in whose hearts time cannot fill; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathies to his afflicted parents and family, and earnestly counsel them to bear with Christian fortitude and resignation their great affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of the above preamble and resolutions, duly attested, be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be published in the Herald. B. COLEMAN, Chairman.
M. J. CULLEN, Orderly Sergeant.
J. BRADLEY, Secretary.

BOWERY THEATRE MUSKETEERS.—THIS COMPANY will meet on Sunday, at one o'clock P. M., at the Bowery theatre, for business and drill. Also on Monday, November 22, at 7 o'clock A. M., for parade. Punctual attendance is required. By order G. L. FOX, Captain.
WASHINGTON Q. HERRON, Orderly.

FIRST WARD MUSKETEERS.—AT A SPECIAL MEETing of the First Ward Musketeers, held at 110 Greenwich street, on Friday evening, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of Daniel Stackpole, a late member of this company, and tender to his afflicted family their sympathy for his sudden and untimely death, the following resolutions were adopted unanimously:—

Resolved, That we sympathise and condole with the family of our late friend and associate, Daniel Stackpole; his quiet and inoffensive manner had made him endeared to all his acquaintances. To his afflicted family we tender our heartfelt sympathy for their sad bereavement in the loss of an affectionate and dutiful son, a kind and loving brother. We trust that an All-wise Providence will bear them up to meet this misfortune.

Resolved, That the members of this company meet at 110 Greenwich street on Sunday, the 21st inst., at 11½ A. M., to attend the funeral of deceased.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the New York Herald, and a copy of them be given to the family of deceased. EDWARD HOGAN, Chairman.
P. KERRIS, Secretary.

MADISON LIGHT GUARD.—THE MEMBERS OF THE above company are hereby notified to attend a meeting to be held at Thomas Rice's, corner of Catharine and Madison streets, this afternoon, at 2½ o'clock. By order of JEREMIAH SHINE, Captain.
DANIEL COLLINS, Secretary.

THE ROBERT GREEN MUSKETEERS, CAPTAIN J. Connolly, made their first target excursion on Thanksgiving day. They numbered fifty one muskets, and presented a very favorable appearance. Jones' Wood was their place of destination, where they contended for several valuable prizes.

ANOTHER WEEK FOR THE LADIES TO BUY BARgains.—On Monday, November 22, at 10 o'clock, at ISAACKS', 104 Duane street, five doors west of Broadway, in dry goods, at the large sale of Kobbe & Corlies, I purchased the greatest bargains ever offered in this city. More antique silks, all colors, at 3s. 6d.; broad cloths from $1 to $6 per yard, silks as low as from 50 to 62½ cents; French merinoes 2s., worsted plaid from 1s. 6d. to 3s.; satins, bombazines, turlesons, crepes, and the best of kid gloves for ladies and gentlemen, at 4s., 5s. and 6s.; these gloves are the best gold medal and warranted, superior to Alexander's. As I have had the popular aristocratic trade for the last twenty years, I am determined to put a stop to the high prices of Broadway; 10,000 cartons of elegant ribbons, superb designs, at half the cost; a large invoice of mount velvets, black silk velvet ribbons, ¼ inch to 9 inches wide, superior dress trimmings and fringes, from 6 cents to 12s. per yard, silk tissues, elegant silks, for parties and balls, from 4s. 6d. to 6s., embroidered with gold and silver. Ladies, remember the store where the motto is quick sales, small profits, and politeness, at T. E. ISAACKS, Agent, 104 Duane street, five doors west of Broadway.

A VARIETY OF CHILDREN'S FURNISHING GOODS, comprising reglans, basques, silk dresses, boy's pants and jackets can be obtained at Mrs. ROBERT LYON'S, 276 Sixth avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets. Ladies would do well to call, goods cheap.
