Police Intelligence.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED COUNTERFEITER—RECOVERY OF A LARGE QUANTITY OF COUNTERFEIT MONEY, CHEMICALS, &c.—A few days ago Deputy Superintendent Carpenter learned that a man named Baxter, keeper of an oyster saloon corner of Twenty first street and Third avenue, was engaged in "shoving" counterfeit money. He also investigated the matter in the hands of detective officers Sweeny, King and McCloud, who, after watching the movements of Baxter, became satisfied that what had been communicated to Deputy Carpenter was true. Accordingly they determined to arrest him, and about half past ten o'clock Saturday night they made a descent upon Baxter's place, and took him into custody. His place of business, and also his residence in First street, was searched, and about $200 worth of counterfeit pieces on the Dartmouth Bank, of Dartmouth, Mass., was discovered; about one half of the above amount was found upon his person. At his residence was discovered a large quantity of chemical corrosive composition, bill presses and bank paper, with other articles used for altering and manufacturing bills. Baxter, when arrested, gave his name as N. B. Baxter. He was locked up to await an examination before Justice Welsh this morning.

BOLD ATTEMPT TO COMMIT A RAPE.—On Sunday forenoon a party of young men decoyed a young woman, named Sarah Burns, on board a vessel at the foot of Watts street, and there attempted to violate her person. Captain Hutchins, of the Fifth precinct, was informed of the fact, and he hastened on board the vessel and there detected the ruffians in their unnatural scheme. On the approach of the Captain the ruffians fled, and only one of them, named Thomas Smith, was arrested. He was taken before Justice Connolly, at the Tombs, and locked up for examination. The girl is very respectable. She was sent to the House of Detention for witnesses.

"LORD DUNDREARY" IN A NEW PHASE.—On Sunday morning Edward A. Sothern ("Lord Dundreary"), of Laura Keene's theatre, appeared before Justice Kelly at the Jefferson Market Police Court, and made a complaint against his groom, Brian Brien, whom he charged with stealing his gold watch, worth $125. It appears that the complainant, when dressing for the stage, is in the habit of entrusting his watches and valuables to his groom. On Saturday Brien, the groom, however, proved faithless to his employer, and in an evil hour stole his master's watch, and in company with a brother groom went on a spree. Brien was arrested, but the watch was not recovered. The prisoner was locked up on a charge of grand larceny.

ATTEMPT TO PASS COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—James Hennessy was arrested on Saturday evening for attempting to pass a three dollar counterfeit bill on the Merchants' Bank, of Salem, Mass., at a store in Seventh avenue. The bill had a very oily appearance, and appeared to be a photograph. The name of the bank, in long red letters, is printed across the top of the bill, and a long medallion "three" is at the centre of the lower part of it. In all probability this bill is one of a new issue of "green backs."

Personal Intelligence.

The Vanderbilt sailed on Saturday for Southampton and Havre, with 263 passengers, including Hon. John Sherman and lady, of Ohio; Hon. Ira Harris and family, of Albany, New York; Hon. Robert Marshum, of England, &c. She also took out three beautiful horses for the Emperor of the French, from Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, of Baltimore, and nearly a million in specie.

The City of Baltimore, which also sailed on Saturday, carried sixty six cabin and 170 steerage passengers, total 236, and $360,000 in specie. She goes to Liverpool.

AN ABSCONDING CASHIER CAUGHT IN TEXAS.—Last October, James A. McCorkle, cashier of the People's Bank, Richmond, Ind., suddenly disappeared, carrying with him some $15,000 belonging to the bank. Mr. W. J. H. Robinson, Deputy Sheriff of the county, was employed to ascertain the whereabouts of the absconding cashier, and has been absent the whole winter in this undertaking. News has just been received that after a long chase he found McCorkle at San Antonio, Texas, and that he left New Orleans on the 11th of the present month with his prisoner, for Richmond. Previous to this affair, McCorkle had sustained an unblemished reputation, and was a member of the Episcopal church. His relatives in Ohio and Indiana are said to be of the highest respectability. The whole matter until now has been kept a profound secret, and the blow will be a heavy one to his relatives and friends.

Court of General Sessions.

Before Recorder Barnard.

SENTENCES.

Yesterday being the last day of the term, the Recorder was occupied in passing sentences on those prisoners who were convicted of various offences during the month.

Patrick Burke, convicted of an assault and battery on John McArdle, was fined $10. Christopher Johnson and George Moore, who were found guilty of an assault on a waiter named Simon Harris, who purchased a sewing machine from Singer & Co., but who on refusing to pay the balance due, resisted the attempts of the man to remove it, were each fined $2 and discharged.

Patrick Duffy, who assaulted Francis Clark, was sent to the penitentiary for twenty days and fined $20.

David Hanford pleaded guilty to forgery in the fourth degree, and was sent to the Penitentiary for three months.

John Kernan, guilty of grand larceny, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

Herman Isaacs, convicted of receiving stolen goods, was sent to Blackwell's Island for four months.

Abraham Buckley, who was convicted of grand larceny, was sentenced to five years imprisonment in the Sing Sing prison, being the extreme penalty of the law. Paul Ritter, who was also convicted of grand larceny in stealing the property of John Sykes, was sent to the same institution for three years.

Henry P. Smithurst, keeper of a ticket office in West street, who was convicted on Friday of swindling a countryman out of $9, was sent to the Penitentiary for six months.

EXPEDITIONS TO LIBERIA.—The colonization packet Mary Caroline Stevens not having arrived at Baltimore from Liberia, cannot, therefore, sail again May 1 next, as announced. Some one hundred slaves, besides fifty, formerly of the estate of John McDonough, of New Orleans—all liberated for the express purpose of colonization—and over thirty free persons of color, are stated to be ready to embark for the young African republic. In addition to these, a large number, nearly forty colored persons in New York and thirty in Pennsylvania, purpose emigrating about the same time. Should the M. C. Stevens not arrive soon, another vessel will be despatched. Johnson, Trapier & Dunbar, a firm of colored men in New York, have recently bought a ship, which is intended as a regular trader between that city and Liberia. She is expected to sail in a week or two, and will take out some forty emigrants. One of the principals, the Hon. J. D. Johnson, of the Liberian Legislature, was formerly a poor barber in Williamsburg, and has materially improved his condition and prospects by a few years' residence in Liberia.—Philadelphia Ledger, April 23.

CASE IN SPRINGFIELD.—An adultery case is pending in Springfield, Mass., the defendant in which is one Morris Shicler, of Connecticut, who is charged by Edward Donovan, of Springfield, with having committed adultery with his (Donovan's) wife. Mrs. Donovan has been hired to absent herself from Springfield, and her "confession" cannot be obtained.

AGAIN UNITED.—A young man of Chicago recently found his wife, whom he married at the age of seventeen, and separated from seven years ago, in a brothel in Milwaukee, to which she had fled compelled to resort by poverty. He reclaimed her, and on last Wednesday they were remarried.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

SUNDAY, April 24—6 P. M.

Trade during the past week has been sensibly affected by the prospect of war in Europe. All articles which would be enhanced in value by war have risen; among these we may mention wool, which is higher and in active demand. In other articles the business done has been moderate, and at generally steady rates. Coffee is very firm, except for San Domingo, which is weaker. Sugars are lower, the receipts exceeding, for the time, the demand for consumption and export; to effect sales a decline of ¼c. from last week's prices is exacted. Many holders, however, prefer withdrawing their stock from market to making concessions from previous rates. Hides are rather dull, with a downward tendency; the stock continues remarkably light. The same remarks, both in regard to the market and stock on hand, will apply to leather. Tea is steady at previous rates. There was an auction sale on Wednesday, at which the bidding was spirited, and full prices were obtained by sellers.

The warlike advices from Europe, and the news of a check to speculation at Liverpool, have operated against our cotton market; to effect sales holders are obliged to make concessions of ⅛c. a ¼c. Most holders prefer remaining idle to submitting to the decline, and the consequence has been that extreme dullness has pervaded the market. Advices from the South confirm our estimates of the crop. The receipt at the ports last week was 50,000 bales, against 66,000 bales same week in 1858, and 29,000 bales same week of 1857; making the total receipts to date 3,370,000 bales, against 2,584,000 bales to same date last year, and 2,707,000 bales to same date of 1857. We have exported to date 2,169,000 bales, against 1,716,000 bales exported to date in 1858, and 1,766,000 bales in 1857. The leading cotton brokers freely express the opinion that, come war or come peace, the European manufacturers must have our cotton, and we have only to hold it to compel them to pay our prices. Flour and grain have declined since last week from 10c. a 15c. the barrel flour, and 2c. a 3c. the bushel wheat and corn. Prices are still too high on this side to admit of the shipment of breadstuffs to Europe. Holders are encouraged to wait by the lightness of the stocks in the interior; the reduction of railroad freights from the West to tidewater has simply availed to induce Western holders to advance their prices. The crop prospects continue excellent. Farmers write that the weather has been very favorable for planting spring wheat; and they have had throughout the West so much rain during the past month that there is little prospect of such wet weather in May as injured the crops so sadly last year. Beef and pork continued in good demand at previous rates; the stock on hand is very light. Thus far, in April, the export of beef has been equal to that of last year; of pork we have exported twice as much as we did in the same period of 1858. Ashes are steady, the export in excess of last year. Tobacco is quiet, without change in prices.

The following Custom House tables of the foreign trade of the port for the past week, and same week of the two previous years, show that our imports of foreign goods continue large—the total import for the year to date being over a million and a quarter in excess of that of the corresponding period of 1857. Our exports both of produce and specie are larger than those of the same week of 1858:—

The principal export of specie during last week having been yesterday, the average to be made up to-morrow will not feel its effect; it may therefore be expected that the banks which showed an average of $25,478,107 last Monday, will show no decrease to-morrow—the export per New York on Saturday, 16th, say $130,000, being counterbalanced by the gain from the Sub Treasury. The interior exchanges, with the exception of New England, are in favor of the city; the exchange with Boston is against us. The deposit line is expected to show an increase; it is hoped that the discounts will not be larger than last week. The Sub Treasury balance stands at $6,894,810, against $7,099,621 at the close of last week. Money continues abundant and cheap. The banks are lending at 5 per cent on call; but the brokers are offered more than they can use at 4. We hear of some loans of stocks for a long period of time at 6 per cent. As soon as the speculative spirit revives capitalists will find ample employment for their means in the stock market. There has been rather more paper made lately, but the supply is still below the demand. We quote, as before, short first class endorsed paper at 5, occasional lines being done as low as 4½; six months paper, endorsed, 6 a 7; single names, short date, 5 a 6; second class paper, 6 a 8 months, 7 a 9 per cent. It is generally supposed that whatever happens in Europe, we can have no disturbance in our money market till August at earliest. Exchange on Europe rules very firm at 110 for bankers' sixty day sterling bills, and 5.10 a .12½ for francs. A few drawers are asking 110¼, but this is above the rate. The demand for bars for export is very brisk, and exporters are sending forward coin freely. In the event of a European war the rate of insurance would probably increase, and a check might thus be imparted to specie shipments.

The course of the stock market during the past week has been as follows:—

	April 16.	April 23
Missouris	88¼	87½
New York Central	76½	72⅞
Reading	50⅞	50⅝
Erie	9⅛	9⅛
Hudson River	33½	32⅞
Michigan Central	53⅛	51⅛
Michigan Southern guaranteed	39⅝	34⅝
Panama	122	122½
Illinois Central	66⅝	65⅝
Galena	67⅞	65⅝
Rock Island	57⅝	57⅝
Pacific Mail	87⅝	89

It will thus be seen that the stock movement of the week has ruled in favor of the bear interest. Persistent and skilful attacks on the Western shares and New York Central, aided by the meager receipts of the roads, have caused a decline of from 5 to 2 per cent. The stocks which have suffered most have been Michigan Southern guaranteed and New York Central, both of which have been the object of special, uncoasing and excessive hammering by the bears. The only speculative stocks which have not declined since last week have been Reading, which is sustained by its Philadelphia friends; Rock Island, which is being freely taken by a party of operators with courage and money; Panama and Pacific Mail, of which the bears lately sold quite enough to cure them of any desire to renew the experiment. State stocks and good railroad bonds, as a general rule, are in good demand at high prices.
