PUBLIC EXHIBITION

and

EXTENSIVE SALE

of

DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES,

in the

CITY OF BOSTON,

Under the direction of

THE NEW ENGLAND SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF MANUFACTURES AND THE MECHANIC ARTS.

FIRST NEW ENGLAND TRADE SALE

FOR TWENTY YEARS.

The New England Society for the Promotion of Manufactures and the Mechanic Arts, having, by unanimous vote, resolved to co-operate with the manufacturers and artisans of New England, in re-establishing at Boston, as the headquarters of New England manufactures, a home market for the sale of the various products of their skill and industry in first hands, have through the committee appointed for the purpose, made arrangements for a public exhibition, and series of sales of American fabrics of all descriptions, at FANEUIL HALL, in BOSTON, and at other conveniently adjacent halls, or places of deposit, commencing

ON MONDAY, JULY 11, 1859,

and continuing throughout the week.

The following description of goods will be sold, embracing, in all upwards of 50,000 packages:—

1. Boots and shoes at 9 o'clock A. M., on Wednesday, July 13, at store Nos 86 and 90 Pearl street.

2. Glass ware, at 9½ o'clock A. M. on Wednesday, July 13, at store 42 Summer street (on the lower floor), opposite Arch street.

3. Dry goods, comprising cottons, woollens, carpets, hosiery, &c., at 9 o'clock A. M. on Thursday, July 14; Friday, July 15, and Saturday, July 16, at Faneuil Hall, and at the place of the house of Messrs. Francis Skinner & Co., lately erected in Franklin street and generously offered for this purpose, and also at the store in Robbins' Building, 45 Summer street, which has been offered by E. H. Rudge, Esq.

All the goods will be open for exhibition at the above named places, and catalogues ready for distribution on Monday, July 11, and throughout the week.

It is confidently believed that this exhibition and series of sales will embrace an amount of goods greater by far in value and variety than has ever before been offered at public sale at one time in this country. Large invoices of staple goods have been already received and it is expected that all the manufacturing establishments in New England will have specimens of their fabrics on exhibition, and contribute liberally to the various catalogues of goods to be sold.
