JULY 4, 1859.
FIREWORKS FOR THE MILLION.
The undersigned having been selected by Messrs. J. S. Ely, Edge, the celebrated pyrotechnists of Jersey City, as manufacturers of their wholesale depots in New York, would respectfully invite the attention of dealers to their unrivalled assortment, comprising all the standard articles of former years, with additions which make the productions of 1859 unrivalled in variety and unequalled in brilliancy.
The Messrs. Edge having a desire to give to the public fireworks that can be depended upon, and finding anything but poorly made and inferior goods should be sold under their name, have selected central depots for wholesaling, where full assortments and uniformity in prices will be the rule. The public may rest assured that any other parties representing themselves as managers of depots or agents for the sale of our goods, are not worthy of credit, as the following the comprises all of said depots where goods can be purchased at wholesale, except at the laboratory in Jersey City:—
S. D. ROBERTS,
178 Broadway, corner of Maiden lane.
MERWIN & ROBBINS,
267 Broadway,
Third door below Chambers street.
ALFRED WOODHAM,
642 Broadway, between Canal and Howard streets.
Or at JOS. G. & I. SIDGE,
Laboratory, North Point, Jersey City.

4TH DAY OF JULY.—THE MAYOR, ALDERMEN AND Common Council of the city of New York have provided ample and amusing entertainments for all classes and conditions of our citizens; boat races and fireworks; but all these amusements will avail nothing if the public is not in good health and spirits, well and able to enjoy them. To do this every family and household throughout the land ought to have a bottle of STEINFELD'S cognac bitters, the only sure remedy and certain preventative for cholera, diarrhœa, bilious complaints and all derangements of the bowels. During the summer months it is unsafe to be without STEINFELD'S cognac bitters. Diarrhœa and cholera symptoms ought to be attended to at once. Buy this invaluable specific, and keep a bottle always handy for yourself, your wife and family. For sale by S. STEINFELD, 70 Nassau street, sole agent for the United states.
