POLITICAL.

BROOKLYN POLITICS.—A GERMAN MASS MEETING came off on the afternoon of the 22d, at No. 489 Columbia street, according to a call in the Staats Zeitung. Notwithstanding the inclemency of weather they enjoyed a full house. Daniel Ehrhard was called to the chair, and Henry A. Meyenborg appointed Secretary. The main substance of the meeting was on the topic of their constitutional rights, of which they have so long been deprived, through the so-called democratic party. They believed such to be the only party in regard to principle and the welfare of the people in common; but the experience of many years has been teaching them, as an intelligent class of people, to study their own interests and those of whom they believe to be their friends indeed. A full explanation was made of party policy in respect to the German vote by Chas R. Friedrichs and John Wolf, the most conspicuous of the whole. There is a determined spirit manifest in the Germans of the old Sixth ward, on a basis of platform—the policy to pursue hereafter—and a committee of seven was selected to confer with neighboring wards, and endeavor to secure a union of the Germans, which they think can be readily accomplished in less than four months. Several other intelligent gentlemen took the floor, discussing matters of importance to the Germans en masse with considerable intellect. Strong resolutions were passed, tending to the point, and a standing committee of seven, composed of the following named gentlemen, was also selected: Herm. Konen Kamp, Chas. R. Friedricks, John Wolf, Capt. Schuck, Capt. Rhehard, George Beidt and Frank Swingman. They nominated Morgan Gray for Alderman and John Holling for Supervisor. On Monday next they intend to take up a Constable, to make their ticket complete. OBSERVER.

CHARLESTON CONVENTION ACCOMMODATIONS.—A family residence on East Bay street, opposite Atlantic wharves, within 100 yards of the East Battery and eight blocks of the Institute Hall, will be rented at a reasonable rate during the sitting of the Convention. The House is 24 feet wide by 64 feet deep, contains 11 rooms, has large parlors, and is in complete order. It is open and airy, and is much preferable to the more densely populated portions of the city. For further particulars inquire of U. H. DUDLEY & CO., 195 Front street, N. Y., or E. M. PORTER & CO., 225 King street, Charleston, S. C.
