NEWSPAPERS.

FIGHT FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP—MR. GEORGE Wilkes, the Editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, has made arrangements to furnish his report of the Fight for the Championship in advance of any other report to be published here. It will be in the extra of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, printed in London, under the supervision of Mr. Wilkes. One hundred thousand copies will be shipped in the Vanderbilt, which will be immediately after the fight, and will be here with almost a certainty on Saturday, the 28th of this month. These copies will be landed and forwarded by express to all parts of the country without delay. By this method, the full and exclusive report of Mr. Wilkes will be circulated thirty hours in advance of any other report of the fight in this country. One hundred thousand copies are all that we shall receive from England, and they will be speedily exhausted. We make this announcement thus early in order that news agents in distant cities may have time to order their supplies, the extra will contain the portraits of Heenan and sayers, and a picture of the ring and its surroundings, just as the men are declivered by their seconds at the scratch.
GEORGE WILKES.

P. T. BARNUM announces with eminent satisfaction that additional pains having been taken to effect it, the Museum will be found a place of FAMILY RESORT of the most gratifying character, and one which ladies and children may generally enjoy, without encountering anything objectionable.
The public will observe that the Lecture Room Entertainments on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, have now been raised to an equality of excellence with those of Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. This is only one, however, of the many improvements initiated and in contemplation by Mr. Barnum for the public benefit.
