TO ENGINEERS AND LUMBERMEN.
A chance to make a fortune in the lumber business with a small outlay of capital.—I own 5,000 acres of heavily timbered pine land on the line of the Charleston and Savannah Railroad 45 miles from Charleston, South Carolina, and desire to make arrangements with parties to manufacture lumber on something like the following basis, viz:—The parties with whom I may contract to put up the mills and manufacture the lumber at their own expense; the logs to be delivered at the mill by me free of charge, and an equal division of the manufactured lumber to be made between us. Lumber sells readily at the mills now in operation for $12 50 per thousand feet. The price in Charleston is $18 per thousand feet. Freight from Charleston to New York averages about $5 per thousand feet. This is an unusually favorable opportunity, as no capital is required in the purchase of land. For further particulars inquire at the office of A. S. & A. G. Whiton, 32 Pine street, New York.
