SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOWARD ECLECTIC MEDICAL INSTITUTE, NO. 13 Howard street, Boston.—Science has diffused its intelligence rays, and brought to light in Eclecticism the great and coveted boon by which the poor unfortunate invalid the sick, whose very existence is misery, can, with a certainty, surety and safety get relief and a complete restoration to health, by early giving heed and strictly obeying the mandates of the principles of this newly discovered science in medicine. Old superannuated doctors and philosophers, with all the subtlety of genius, which their heated and diseased imaginations can call to their aid, may "carp" and brandish their sarcastic "epithets" against the innovations of new "light" and the unprecedented success of this New Mode of Practice in the Healing Art; but it is all in vain. Eclecticism selects the best from all that is good, and has unfolded the long pent up "secret" of truth for the sole benefit of the present age and generations, and hurls back into oblivion old exploded notions and sophistries so long upheld and heretofore adopted, which has proved so detrimental and fatal to past generations. Eclecticism invites all to come within its hospitals and freely partake of its sparkling beverage, which is health and they will hail with joy the beautiful sunshine of its existence. It imparts new life, new vitality to the physical organs, and new "vigor" to their diseased and heretofore considered incurable constitutions. It removes all the "materies morbi" from the system, so that disease cannot be transmitted from one to another, as is often the case under old systems of medicine, for proof of which there are many living specimens of distorted animated beings, the victims of unsuccessful drugging. In this new system of treating disease there is no presumption, no fashion, no "guessing," but the results are positive, sure and conclusive in evidence of which there are thousands who are ready and willing to add their testimonials in favor and in grateful remembrance of the virtues of the all healing influence of this mighty engine of disease destroying power of heaven. I have thus been induced to make the above remarks in consequence of the impositions practised by a "horde" of ignorant pretenders, who not only extort money, but sacrifice the health, happiness and life of their unfortunate victims, who find out their mistake too late to retrieve their misfortunes. The sunken, phlegmatic eye—the blanched cheek—the tremulous hands—the cramped feet—the enfeebled extremities—the emaciated and decrepid form! all betoken bad treatment and bad medicines from those who knew nothing of the first principles of medicine. The thousands who have been made to rejoice and be "exceeding glad" under our new system of treatment have so importuned me, both in public and in private, that reluctantly I have consented thus, in a public manner, to impart "good news to the afflicted" and "joy to the world" for there is born unto us a new science—so long looked for—which promises and surely will save us and redeem us from the thraldom of error, superstition, despair and death to which we have been so long subject. The beautiful mantle of health has been sent from heaven in this new science to be thrown around all our ills. Come and be made pure, healthy and happy, and your children and after generations will bless you for conferring upon them such a heavenly bequest—a good constitution and perfect health. N. B.—In all cases the doctor desires a personal interview when convenient. Office hours—From 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. Recollect the number, 13 Howard street Boston, Massachusetts. N. B.—All communications strictly confidential. Medicines sent by mail and express to all parts of the United States. All letters requiring advice must contain one dollar, to insure an answer. Address Dr. J. B. Hughes, 13 Howard street, Boston, Massachusetts.
