The above property is admirably situated for gentlemen's up town residences, commanding every variety of scenery, and being accessible to down town business localities by various modes of conveyance.
The Eighth avenue is to be finished in 8 months past this property. The Hudson River Railroad cars stop at street adjacent to the tract both above and below it, and the Harlem River boats carry their thousands of passengers in its vicinity on the other side.
The grace of the land its beautiful slopes and delightful knolls, the scenery of the Harlem River, Long Island Sound and shore, the undulating lines of Westchester, all unite to make the tract a lovely and desirable retreat from the crowded and busy city, from which it is just sufficiently removed.
A plot of four, eight or twelve lots here will make a home of pleasure and enjoyment for the present, and become a source of moderate wealth in a few years.
The land will bear scrutiny.
The title is old and perfect. The greater part of the purchase money can remain on mortgage for years.
