PUBLIC SALE OF COAL RIVER LANDS.
By virtue of a decree rendered on the 28th day of June, 1860, in the Kanawha Circuit Court, in the Chancery suit of Abraham B. Clark vs. The Coal River and Kanawha Mining and Manufacturing Company, et als., the undersigned, a Special Commissioner, will offer for sale, at Public Auction, to the highest bidder, in front of the Court House door of Kanawha county, Virginia, on SATURDAY, THE FIRST DAY OF DECEMBER NEXT, 1860,
the following valuable Coal property, to wit:—
All that tract or parcel of land belonging to the said Coal River and Kanawha Mining and Manufacturing Company, estimated to contain FOUR THOUSAND ACRES, lying, being and situated on the waters of Briar Creek, a tributary of Big Coal river, and in the county of Kanawha, together with all the Buildings, Houses and Fixtures thereon, and appurtenances and hereditaments in any wise belonging or thereunto appertaining
Which said tract of land lies on the navigable waters of Coal river, about twelve miles below the Peytona coal mines, and contains veins of cannel coal, of splint coal and of bituminous coal; the bituminous coal being of a very superior quality.
Upon this tract of land are a steam saw and grist mill, miners' houses, coal openings, coal chutes, &c., and by an expenditure of a few thousand dollars, this property could soon be put in a condition for the mining and shipping of coal to the Western and Southern markets
For an accurate description of the metes and bounds of the said tract of land reference may be had to the two following deeds on record in the Clerk's office of the County Court of Kanawha county, to wit: one deed from Edward Keene and wife to the said Coal River and Kanawha Mining and Manufacturing Company, dated the 30th April, 1851, and recorded in Book Q, page 572; and the other deed from the Kanawha Mining Company to the Coal River and Kanawha Mining and Manufacturing Company, dated the 19th January, 1854, and recorded in Book S, page 432.
TERMS OF SALE.
Five per cent of the purchase money in cash, and the residue thereof in three equal annual instalments; the purchaser giving bonds with approved security for the deferred payments, payable in one, two and three years from day of sale.
THOMAS L. BROUN, Special Commissioner.
