Miscellaneous.

MR. WM O SMITH, for a long time purser of the steamship Bertholmy, and to whom we are indebted for many favors, has been transferred to the steamship De Soto, of the Havana and New Orleans line.

STEAMSHIP JOHN L STEPHENS, before reported disabled in her machinery, arrived at San Francisco 8th inst in tow of the Golden Age. The damage to her engines is very great and will require two months to repair, at a cost of some $30,000.

SHIP OLIVER PETTIAN, before reported lost at Reunion, Isle of France, was built at Newburyport in 1854, 1054 tons, rated A1—, and owned in that city by Messrs John Currier, J J Knapp and others. She is said to have been nearly covered by the ice. The O P sailed from Liverpool Sept 27 for Calcutta, with a cargo of salt, and was abandoned in a sinking condition July 26. Seven men belonging to her were picked up by the French bark Selina and landed at Mauritius Aug 19. A letter from the U S Consul at Mauritius, dated Sept 3, says no tidings of the officers and remainder of the crew and yet been received. The names of the men picked up are: Charles O Nye, Thomas Dersey, Benjamin E Sloan, William Hughes, John B Jenkins, James Healey and William Robinson.

BRIG Falmouth, Haines, at Baltimore 18th inst from Leghorn, reports: 14th inst, 7 PM, while lying in Lynhaven Roads, the wind blowing a tornado from N to S SE, had 60 fathoms chain out, and was obliged to let go the second anchor to keep her from dragging ashore. On Monday, 15th inst, when commenced heaving up anchors, found the starboard chain had parted and 5 fathoms chain with the anchor gone.

BRIG DELIA (of Boston), Lane, from Cronstadt Sept 20 for Boston, put into Gothenburg previous to Oct 5 leaky, and would discharge to repair.

SHIP MOSES TAYLOR, before reported ashore at Nantucket River St Lawrence, has been sold together with her cargo.

BRIG PLANET, Tooker, from Wilmington, NC, for London, laden with naval stores, put into Yarmouth, NS, on 20th ult. Soon after leaving Wilmington most of the crew were taken ill, and on the 21st the second mate (a native of Denmark) died. Same day encountered a heavy gale and lost sails. Put also port to refit and obtain a crew.

SCHR THOMAS W THOMAS, Davis, of and from Fall River for NYork, was run into early on the morning of the 18th inst, off Point Judith, during a thick fog, by steamer Empire State, her for Fall River, and had her starboard bow considerably damaged. The steamer sustained but trifling injury. All hands, except Capt Davis, of the Thomas W Thomas got on board the steamer at the time of the accident, but were afterwards transferred to their own vessel, which was light, and would probably proceed to New York.

SCHR DELOS, anchored in the harbor of Plymouth, Mass, 14th inst, drifted foul of schr Constitution, at Stevens' wharf, doing her some damage, and went ashore high and dry.

SCHR AGENA came in collision with a schr off of the Cape some time last week, and was so badly damaged as to put back to Plymouth, where she is undergoing repairs. Damage estimated at $600.

SCHR ARMAN, Ireland, at Boston from Wilmington, NC, on 13th inst, 25 miles S of Montauk, was in contact with an unknown schr, lost outwaster and received other damage. Injury to the hull, trifling.

SCHR PERSEVERANCE, belonging to Plymouth, Mass, went ashore during the gale of Sunday night, and stove hole in starboard bow, but was got afloat next day, and is not seriously injured.

SCHR CAMILA, of Stockton, from Savannah for Bath, which put into Newport on the 10th inst, with sickness on board, is now ready for sea and will sail first fair wind in charge of her first officer. Capt Erskine has so far recovered from his indisposition that he left for home 15th.

QUEBEC, Oct 15—Ship Coral Isle, Laverick, from Liverpool for Montreal, struck on a ledge of rocks two miles east of Point Amour, Straits of Belle Isle, during a fog on Sept 18, and became a total loss. A small portion of cargo, consisting of olive oil, tea, rice, &c, saved, and forwarded by a schr to Montreal; the balance, with the wreck, was sold on the spot for $206. Vessel insured in New York.

CAPT BELL OF SHIP PRINCETON—On board ship Princeton, Oct 16, 1860—To Capt Wm R Bell, ship Princeton.—Dear Sir—We the undersigned, on behalf of ourselves and fellow passengers, on board your ship from Liverpool to New York, beg to return you sincere thanks for your kindness and attention to our comfort and happiness, also for the anxiety evinced by you for our welfare and safety; and we will also be glad if you will convey the same feelings of gratitude to the officers under your command. Wishing you and yours every happiness and prosperity, we remain dear sir, yours, most respectfully, Edward Chambers, Thos Murphy, George Jervis, P Carroll, Thos Lloyd, John Grant, James Angus, John Parker, John Alexander, James Marsh, William Shepard, A Anderson and others.

Ship George Hallett, of Boston, was sold at Mauritius on the 6th ult for $2150.

Bark Juniata, 296 tons, built at Cumberland, Me, in 1844, has been sold in New York for $3200.

We notice the following clearers at San Francisco—Ship Champion, 1024 tons, for New York (sailed Sept 12), $6800; Georgia, 677 tons, for Liverpool (sailed Sept 12), 22 12s per ton; bark Oak Hill, 450 tons, for Sydney NSW (sailed Sept 20), 22 12s per ton; brig Seven Anchor, 276 tons, for Valparaiso (sailed Sept 22), at $10 per ton.

LAUNCHED—At Yarmouth, 15th inst, from the yard of Giles Loring, a fine oak ship of about 870 tons register, called the Alice Vennard, owned by the builders and parties in Portland, and Capt Kelley, who will command her.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice is hereby given, that the Nantucket Shoal Light Vessel, which varied her moorings on the morning of the 7th inst, was reanchored on the 17th.

By order of the Lighthouse Board.
