THE BURCH DIVORCE CASE.

Evidence of Erastus Corning, the Uncle of Mrs. Burch—Another Letter from Mrs. Burch, &c.

TWELFTH DAY.

NAPERVILLE Ill., Dec 1, 1860.

The prosecution waived the cross examination of David Stuart.

The letter from Mrs. Burch to Judge Skinner, and the deed of Isaac H Burch and Mary, his wife, to Henry Farnam, were put in by the defence. The deed is in the handwriting of Mr. Burch, and conveys a large amount of real estate for the consideration of $1,000. The deed had never been filed, and was obtained from the complainant through an order of the Court.

The letter from Mrs. Burch to Judge Skinner is as follows:—

SIR—I have just executed an answer to Mr. Burch's application for a bill of divorce from our marriage relations. Will you, as my friend and solicitor, appear in court, or find some other lawyer to do so, and do for me what shall be perfectly right and just as between Mr. Burch and myself? Yours, MARY W. BURCH.

Erastus Corning, sworn—I first heard of the difficulty in the Burch family on Wednesday evening, after my return from New York; Mrs Burch arrived at Albany on Friday evening; on Saturday I telegraphed to Mr. Burch to meet me at Suspension Bridge on Tuesday evening; I met him there; I had read the letter from Mr. Burch to Mr. Fruyn; at the interview Mr. Burch gave much the same account as contained in the letter; he told me that one of the arguments he used to obtain the confession was putting his fist in the face of Mrs. Burch and saying, "you shall confess," in describing his action, he doubled up his hand and put his fist in my face, to show me how he did it, Mrs. Turner, the mother of the defendant, was at New York, under the doctor's care; I telegraphed to her, and she came to Albany on Thursday, and remained till the next morning; then her health compelled her to return for medical advice; Mrs Burch, the defendant, went to the Falls with her brother Horace Turner; at the same time I went and saw her there; after the interview with Mr. Burch I told her that Mr. Burch had informed me that she had connived with David Stuart in an attempt to ruin Fanny Burch; I told her nothing more, for I had to go off to Buffalo; I returned to Albany on the following Thursday; I did not see Mrs Burch again; on Friday I went to New York, and on Saturday consulted with defendant's mother; I had no conversation previously with defendant; I saw the letter from Mr. Burch to Mrs Turner either at Albany or New York; not any of the letters received from Mr. Burch, neither that to Mr. Fruyn, those to me nor that to Mrs. Turner, were shown to the defendant before my return from New York; on the following Monday I received a letter from the Rev. Mr Patterson, enclosing one from him to Mrs Burch; I handed it to her and gave her directions and advice not to answer it or write any more letters; the first conversation I had with Mrs. Burch on the matter, since the interview at the Falls, was on the Thursday following my last visit to New York; from the time of the defendant's arrival at Albany until Mr. Sedgwick's visit on the second Thursday after, she was in a nigaly excited state and as like a distracted woman as you could imagine; Mr. Burch told me he had sent Mrs. Burch by the Fort Wayne and Cleveland route to prevent her going direct to where her brother was; Mrs. Burch has no father living; her only brother is Horace Turner.

The counsel for the complainant declined to cross examine the witness. Mrs. Burch was deeply affected during Mr Corning's examination.

Horace Turner, sworn—I was at Mr. Burch's house at the death of my brother Joseph; he was very sick when I arrived; I saw Mr. Stuart there; Mr. Burch said on Tuesday night, after coming from Dawes's wedding he would have Mr Stuart there; I never was out any night playing cards during my brother's illness; never told Fanny Burch so; I conversed with Mr. Burch about Mr Stuart for a time in January, 1858; I had heard of Mr. Stuart in Detroit; I asked Mr Burch "what he knew of Mr. Stuart?" he said "Stuart is a very good fellow;" I said I had heard that Mr. Stuart's reputation as to females was bad; Mr. Burch replied that he knew all that, but did not believe it, and that he thought Mr. Stuart was a gentleman, or words to that effect or that import; from the time I saw Mrs. Burch after this occurrence, until I returned from the Falls with her, she seemed almost crazy; I don't know whether this is a proper description, for she was so much reduced, and so weak and broken in health, that her death, before we reached Albany, would not have surprised me.

Cross-examined—Was absent from the house on Wednesday night during my brother's sickness; I went to the depot to meet my mother, who was expected in the midnight train.

Henry H. Hamlin, clerk of the Tremont House, sworn—He proved the presence of David Stuart at the servants' party on the Christmas eve of 1857, and parlor hops at the Tremont on the 11th of February and 9th of March, 1858.

Cross examined—On the night of the Christmas eve dance I was making myself generally useful, dancing with the girls, &c. (Laughter.) David Stuart engaged himself generally in dancing with all the good looking girls that came along. (Loud laughter.)

The deposition of Wm. Marsh was then read. It proves the meeting of the Historical Society at the rooms of Wm. H. Brown, November 29, 1857. The meeting commenced at seven o'clock, and lasted until after ten, when it adjourned.

The deposition of Mrs Emma R. Banks was read. She deposed to attending the concert at the Melrose Hall, in Chicago, in May, 1857; went with Mr. Burch and his wife; I heard Mr. Burch tell his wife he had given an extra ticket to Mr. Stuart; Mr. Stuart came to the concert during the evening.

Mrs. Harriet Corning's deposition was now offered, when a discussion arose as to its admission.

Mr. Beckwith argued in favor of its admissibility, as being testimony as to the first things said by the defendant after leaving her husband's house in terror, and as being the first time she could speak free from restraint.

The Court ruled the deposition out, except so far as the following sentence:—Clara Burch, on her arrival at Albany, was very excited; she seemed almost distracted."

Mr. Beckwith took exception to the ruling of the Court.

Proof was then given of the date of the first day of the County Fair, on October 14, 1857, and of the enactment of the plays of "Pocahontas" and the "Gentleman from Ireland," at the theatre on that evening.

Christopher Roberts, clerk of the Burch Bank, sworn:—I cannot tell when Mr. Burch went East in 1857; I believe it was on the 5th of September; I cannot tell anything farther of his movements.

Mr. Beckwith here moved for an order from the Court directing the producing of letters to prove that Mr. Burch was at home from the 4th to the 18th of October, when the Court adjourned till Monday, at two o'clock P. M.

Police Intelligence.

A MODEL FATHER.—Honora White, a resident of No. 189 East Thirty-fifth street, appeared before Captain Speight, at the Twenty first precinct police station house, on Saturday evening, and stated that she was left entirely destitute by her husband, who pawned all her clothing for drink, and otherwise ill treated her and her children. A policeman was sent to inquire into the truth of the statement, when a scene of the most abject poverty and wretchedness presented itself. The woman's children were found in rags, with scarcely sufficient covering upon their backs to protect them against the inclemency of the weather, while the tenement was cold, cheerless and devoid of even the common articles of furniture—such as beds and chairs. Mrs. White was sent to Bellevue Hospital for medical treatment, and her children (four of them) were conveyed to the Juvenile Asylum, by order of Justice Quackenbush. The model father could not be found, although the police searched high and low for him.

ARREST OF A BURGLAR.—At an early hour yesterday morning, as policeman Arson, of the Eighteenth precinct, was patrolling his beat, he discovered that the front door of the restaurant No. 289 avenue A was lying open. Suspecting that there were thieves within, he stopped to listen for a few minutes before entering, when some one on the opposite side of the street began to throw stones at him. The stones were evidently thrown by an accomplice of the burglars who wished to distract the attention of the officer, in order that those who were inside might make their escape. Arson was not so easily to be blinded, however, for he stuck to his post until the burglars (three of them) became frightened and ran out of the store. The policeman was close behind them when they made their exit, and after a sharp chase succeeded in overhauling and arresting one of their number, named Eugene Smith. The remainder of the gang escaped, taking with them what small change was in the money drawer. The prisoner was brought before Justice Quackenbush and committed for examination.

Coroners' Inquests.

THE CANAL STREET FIRE—FATAL RESULT.—George Wuest, who jumped from the third story of the tenement house, No. 129 Canal street, during the fire which took place there on Saturday, died yesterday at the New York Hospital from the effects of his injuries. Coroner Jackman was notified to hold an inquest upon the body of the deceased.

HOBSTWAY CASUALTY.—Coroner Jackman was also notified to hold an inquest upon the body of John McGrath, a native of Ireland, aged 42 years, who died from the effects of injuries accidentally received by being crushed by the hoisting apparatus at No. 22 Frankfort street, on Friday. Deceased was a resident of No. 39 Park street, and was a laborer in the store where the accident occurred.

PLAYING WITH FIRE.—John McMahon, a child residing at No. 164 West Thirty-seventh street, while playing with some pieces of lighted paper on Saturday set fire to his clothing, and before the flames could be extinguished he was burned to death. An inquest was held upon the body by Coroner Schirmer.

FATAL FALL DOWN STAIRS.—Coroner Jackman held an inquest yesterday, at No. 325 East Twelfth street, upon the body of Margaret Dennin, who was accidentally killed by falling down a flight of stairs. Deceased was fifty-three years of age and was a native of Ireland.

DANIEL DARROW IS THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE for Alderman of the Seventh Aldermanic district (Ninth and Fifteenth wards).

DEMOCRATS OF THE 8TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.—On Friday evening last a proposition came from A. S. Herrick's friends, suggesting that Mr. Herrick and William S. Robinson choose each name two friends who should meet Si Delmonico's, and determine who should be the joint nominee of the democratic party for Judge in the new judicial district composed of the Fifteenth and Twentieth wards at the coming election. Although Mr. Robinson's friends had already given more favors than they received, yet for the sake of harmonizing the party they resolved to take them at their word and at the hour and place agreed upon James T. Brady, Peter Dolan and Patrick Duff, Mr. Robinson's friends were on hand. Mr Herrick failed to keep his appointment, but at a late hour sent in word that he would not submit his claims to any joint committee. His own friends declared that if either party refused to come into such an arrangement he would thereby forfeit his claims to democratic support. The men present for themselves Mr. Robinson is an old resident and taxpayer having a family in the district. He is a practicing lawyer in a large practice, and he is known and esteemed by the voters of the district. Under no circumstances will his friends now permit him to withdraw. He is a candidate and will remain so.

SCHOOL OFFICERS—THIRTEENTH WARD—CITIZENS, look to your schools. Let us have competent and honorable men as officers. Vote for John H Trapp for school Commissioner. He is a lawyer of good standing a man of family, and he will make an efficient and good officer. Citizens we recommend him to you as an upright gentleman. Burke M. D., 449 Grand street; William S McManus, grocer, at Suffolk street, Peter Roey, 53 Sheriff street, L. Schaeschimer merchant, No. 6 Willett street—

And five hundred other respectable citizens

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT—Sixteenth and Twentieth wards.—I hardly need tell you—for it is notoriously true—that a candidate for the office of Civil Justice of this district has been forced upon you against your will and against the strong remonstrances of nearly all who have been consulted on the subject. It is equally notorious that this has been brought about through the instrumentality of a secret caucus, a packed committee, a liberal use of money, and the engineering of one of the most notorious Tombs lawyers in the city of New York. This practice of forcing candidates for office upon the people, for whom they are compelled to vote, or not vote at all, has become so odious and so detestable that all good citizens have earnestly desired to see the whole system of selecting candidates abolished. And it will be abolished, as soon as the people claim it with their reprobation. And to give them an opportunity to do so at the coming charter election, at the solicitation of hundreds of my fellow citizens, I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Justice of this district. I do this first, because I know that a very large number of the citizens of the district, if not a majority of them, desired me to be the candidate for that office and have given me assurances of their support; secondly, because I am familiar with the duties of the office, having discharged them for several years—how faithfully, I leave you to judge; and, thirdly, because if success attends this effort it will give a death blow to the system of forcing obnoxious candidates upon the people by means of private caucusing and purchased nominations. For the above reasons I appeal to you for your support, promising if elected, to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

ANSON WILLIS.

JAMES BURNS,
Fourteenth Ward.

The undersigned respectfully offers himself to his constituents as a candidate for re-election, trusting that his present term of office has been thoroughly satisfactory.

JAMES BURNS,
Fourteenth Ward.

4TH WARD.—MY NAME HAVING BEEN MENTIONED as a candidate for School Commissioner, I hereby withdraw my name from the canvass, and ask my friends to support James Reilly unanimously for the office of School Commissioner.

PHILIP CERBIN.

4TH WARD—PEOPLE'S TICKET.—ALL OPPOSED TO the present mode of primary elections and the manner in which the school affairs are now conducted, through which means the children of the ward are now without a school, are requested to support the following tickets:—

For Commissioner—John Rhiden.
Inspector—John Marsden.
Trustees— { George Rice, Patrick Crowe, Richard Joice.

5TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT—TENTH, ELEVENTH, Thirteenth and Seventeenth wards.—Independent and Taxpayers' candidate for Councilman, LEWIS B. STANTON.

For Alderman,
LAWRENCE M. VAN WART.

5TH WARD REGULAR NOMINATION OF THE united democracy for Constable, LUDOLF GERKER.

6TH COUNCILMANIC DISTRICT.—REGULAR DEMOcratic nomination from the eighteenth ward for Councilman is ARTHUR ASHBURY, better known by name of Arthur Mooney. Voters look at your tickets, see that the name of Arthur Ashbury is on your ticket, for he is the legitimate choice of a separate himself and a democrat to the backbone of his heart. Vote for him, and you vote for your own interest.

POLITICAL.

7TH WARD.—HAVING SEEN MY NAME PROPOSED AND advertised as the nominee of the so-called people's party, or party in which politics should not be introduced into the school question for Trustee I wish to say to my friends that it has been used in contradiction to my express desire to the contrary. I regard this name as hoaxed by the most prostrate black republicans in the ward—viz. M. T. Hewit for Commissioner, W. D. Murphy for Inspector. Both of these gentlemen have heretofore been entrusted with offices in our schools, which they have exercised in the most violent partisan manner never having deviated from carrying out the black republican programme; in fact they would never have received the nomination but for their well known extreme democratic proclivities. They have adopted the ruse of placing my name together with that of Mr Woodward, on their ticket for the purpose of strengthening it by democratic votes, and thus, by electing another republican member, carrying out the programme of their leaders as demonstrated in the Second, Eighth, Twenty first and other wards in none of which has a democrat been nominated on the people's ticket. I will consider it a personal favor if my friends do not vote for the following ticket, adopted by Tammany and Mozart Halls:—

For Commissioner of Common schools—Dr. John Galvan.
For Inspector—Andrew Martin.
For Trustees—Bernard Smyth, James Samuels.

Yours, truly, WILSON SMALL, 366 Henry street.

7TH WARD.
Our names having appeared to a circular purporting to be an endorsement of the nominees of the so-called People's School Ticket, we would state they were used without authority from or consultation with us, and we call upon all democrats who desire the defeat of black republicanism, under what name it may appear, to vote for the Tax Payers', Workingmen's and United Democratic Candidates.
For School Commissioner,
DR JOHN GALVAN.
For School Inspector,
ANDREW MARTIN.
For School Trustees,
BERNARD SMITH,
JAMES SAMPLE.

Jacob A. Westervelt,	John Marriner,

7TH WARD.—THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING SERVED as members of the School Board of this ward for the year 1859, do hereby certify that M. T. Hewit, the candidate of the black republican (or so called people's) party for School Commissioner, was a member of that board, and that he was a bitter violent and most unreasoning partisan, and by his vote and action on all occasions, opposed all and any measure which did not originate with his fellow black republicans. We therefore call on all liberal men who desire to see the schools of this ward controlled for the greatest good of the greatest number, to unite with us in electing the taxpayers' and workingmen's candidates viz:—

For School Commissioner—Dr. JOHN GALVAN.
For School Inspector—ANDREW MARTIN.
For School Trustees—BERNARD SMYTH,
JAMES SAMPLE.
RICHARD B CONNOLLY,
B. SMYTH.
