Vote 'er straight. An X in the circle at the top of the republican ticket will do the work.

The republican ticket, state and national, is worthy of your support, and a few hours work on election day.

You want present prosperous conditions to continue? Of course you do, then vote the republican ticket from top to bottom.

Up north everybody votes. Down south the democratic bosses vote and make the democratic record with shot guns and night riders.

Oh, McDougal, that gallant warrior up in Marshall county, says old Marshall will be in line with a big republican majority this year as usual.

Bryan says "let the people rule." A proper answer is: "166 electoral votes from the solid south, where the shot gun rules."

Do not forget to ask for the Martin short term congressional ballot. Mr. Martin's name does not appear on the regular ballot for the short term.

Old Lawrence county is good for 2,000 republican majority. That is the opinion of those who know the sentiment of the people in that county.

Don't fail to vote next Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, and don't fail to vote the republican ticket with an X in the circle if you are in favor of the Roosevelt policies. Vote early and ask your neighbor to go to the polls with you.

Senator Vessey will make one of the best governors the state has ever had. He is a splendid type of self-made man. He is a christian gentleman and stands for morality and good government. In casting your vote for him on the 3rd day of November, you will never regret it. He is worthy of every vote in the state.

Oliver C. Carpenter, son of E. E. Carpenter of Canton, has been filling an important position in the republican national headquarters at New York during the campaign. He has won quite a reputation as an orator and is a member of the law firm of Lewis & Carpenter, 141 Broadway. Mr. Carpenter has the thanks of the League for important campaign documents.

A man who votes for Mr. Bryan this year must be anxious for calamity and hard times. Bryan in the White House with all his vague and uncertain theories from government ownership down, would soon have the country gasping between a lack of confidence and a Wall Street panic, and both would come with no safe hand at the financial helm to stay the march of ruin and foreclosure. The man who votes for Bryan in 1908, will go down to Wall Street every morning for nearly a year, to procure a loan of Thompson's bank note, to see the banker could find out how many times he had gone to the wall the year before.

This was under Buchanan's administration. Now we are familiar with the name of Bryan. He is a familiar name to us now as familiar as the name of the man who was president of the United States in 1861. He is a familiar name to us now as familiar as the name of the man who was president of the United States in 1861. He is a familiar name to us now as familiar as the name of the man who was president of the United States in 1861.

Vessey and Ericson in Canton

THE NEXT GOVERNOR MAKES AN INTERESTING ADDRESS AND DEFENDS THE STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Senator Vessey and Hon. E. C. Ericson of Elk Point arrived in Canton last Saturday evening and addressed a small audience in the court house. Even a few ladies braved the down pour to hear the speakers.

It rained all day and rained all night and of course few cared to brave the storm to hear a political address. Mr. Gemmill presided. Mr. Ericson spoke first and devoted his time to ripping up the democratic state platform and easily proved it was a document intended to fool the people. His speech was clear, convincing and logical.

Senator Vessey discussed national issues briefly and then turned his attention to conditions in the state. He referred to the democratic charge of extravagance in state appropriations and then reviewed the condition of the institutions. He spoke of the insane hospital and the splendid work accomplished there and of its economical management and defied any man to show where one dollar had been wasted in caring for the unfortunate insane, and wanted to know if there was a man in the state who was in favor of denying those poor unfortunate every comfort possible to relieve their misery while lingering on this side of the grave. It was a graphic picture and showed beyond language the noble, tender heart of the man who thus defended those who were unable to defend themselves.

"Democracy could out appropriate and compel those people to suffer as they did under Lee's first administration, but I do not believe the people would permit such inhuman conditions. I want to see the insane, the deaf and dumb, the blind and the feeble minded properly cared for and I want to see every dollar appropriated for such a purpose properly applied," said Senator Vessey, and the audience applauded.

"Who wants to deny the deaf and dumb, the blind and the feeble minded proper care and facilities for education," said the Senator, growing eloquent in defense of the unfortunate. "The democrats might and perhaps would cut appropriations for

The polls open at 8 and close at 5 o'clock next Tuesday. Don't forget to vote.

The Northwestern Telephone company will furnish election returns to all stations on the line free of charge. This is a mighty generous offer on the part of the Northwestern and our people will appreciate and remember the company for its liberality. The Northwestern sends complete returns from its Minneapolis office.

Candidates on the county republican ticket are campaigning this week, and nearly all the candidates will be on the stump. The first meeting was held at Worthing Wednesday evening, the second at Hudson on Thursday evening. Friday evening the candidates will be at Milbrook in Brooklyn township, and Saturday evening a grand rally will be held at Cottage Grove school house, No. 29, in Lincoln township.

political effect and compel those poor people to suffer in some degree, but the man or men who would do such a thing could not be classed as worthy citizens of a glorious young state, one of the best in the nation. Whatever comes, let it never be said that South Dakota refused to do her duty to the helpless and afflicted."

"The educational institutions belong to every man and woman in the state. They are numerous it is true, but everyone is filled with splendid Dakota boys and girls seeking the God given privilege of education and mind development, and who shall say that this one or that one must be closed. Education comes high, but it is the one glorious feature of our national wealth and power, and no man who loves his country will say there is too much education and too many schools. I have no use for any party that would strike at the foundation of our national glory. What has made Scandinavia a world power? Her splendid educational facilities, and the blue eyed, light haired people of the north are found today wherever enterprise, industry and religion are prominent in national life. The educational centers of Europe received their first inspiration from those fair haired, blue eyed people of the north and the foundation of English education came from the same source. Take our own country, and we find education and religion the predominant feature of Scandinavian-American life, and our own state and even Lincoln county bears out this glorious testimony."

"No good Dakotan will ever try to cripple our educational institutions and no good Dakotan will ever deny our unfortunate wards the broad and humane protection they ask through mercy in their helplessness." This will find a glorious response from every generous heart in the state and it is also a guarantee that the noble hearted Vessey is just the man our people need for governor.

Senator Vessey met many friends at the Rudolph and left Sunday at noon for Rapid City and Deadwood, where he and Congressman Martin will speak together for a few days.
