Fairview.

Nov. 18, 1908.

A jolly crowd of young people drove out to Wheatley home Monday evening to remind Miss Mammie that it was her birthday. All were well entertained and at a late hour the crowd returned to their various homes having a delightful evening.

Mrs. Cort Vermilya was a Hudson visitor last week.

Mrs. A. G. Pond and daughter went up to Sioux Falls Wednesday returning home Friday afternoon.

Dr. Morrison of Canton was in Fairview last week on professional business.

Rev. Morris of Sioux Falls preached in the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon.

Alf Minor is very sick at this writing.

Arthur Lion is home from Hudson for a two weeks vacation after which he will go to Canton to enter Augustana College. We wish him much success.

The basket ball teams are doing some pretty good playing and those who play are being benefited by the splendid exercise which the game affords.

Amos Amundson went to Canton Tuesday morning.

A. W. Helder was an Orange City visitor the first of last week.

Lesley Jones entered school in Miss Hanson's room Monday.

The Bellanca elevator building has been moved from Elm Springs, and now stands on the South Dakota side near the Fairview depot. The moving of this building was certainly a big undertaking, but Mr. Bellesfield has had long experience at this kind of work, and thoroughly understands such undertakings.

During Mr. Jones absence from Fairview, Frank Iseninger attended to the rural mail route.

There will be a Thanksgiving entertainment in the Fairview school house Wednesday afternoon Nov. 25.

Dayton Gleesings.

Nov. 18, 1908.

Church and Sunday School same as usual last Sunday. Rev. Vernon arrived in time to help in the Sunday School.

Miss Phoebe Bankson has returned from her visit and says she had a fine time.

Mrs. Roe has been on the sick list for a few days but is better.

A. H. Wells returned from his North Dakota trip last week and reports the young folks up there well and doing well. Good crops and lots of ice garden stuff for winter.

Mrs. Paul Bankson was quite sick for a few days but we are glad to report her able to be around again.

Jim Wells shelled corn the first of the week. He expects to leave soon for his claim in North Dakota. One by one they are leaving till Dayton's young people are nearly all gone.

Scott Thornton visited with his brother Arthur in Sioux Falls over Sunday.

Mr. Gorman is entertaining company from Illinois this week.

Lynn Township.

Nov. 17, 1908.

There will be church services at the Wignin school house on the 22nd inst at 10:30 a. m. Come everybody. Rev. Fred Smith will be on hand with his usual good sermon.

Miss Emma Selom was a home visitor Tuesday.

Mr. K. L. Knutson and family were Sunday visitors at the Frank Wignin home.

Frank Noel's new house is nearing completion and Frank is hoping for more fine weather to help it on.

Frank Wood informs us that his brother Ed is now in "Sunny Tennessee" and getting along fine.

Ed Smith and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Geo. Wagoner north of Worthing.

F. O. Wignin and wife with their two sons Henry and Gifford, were up in Le Valley Saturday visiting the Chrysler and Schrimmer families, returning Sunday.

There is a scarcity of news in Lynn this week owing to the fact that people are busy with their corn husking. Our girls may not be so "full" as some but we have many and large ears of corn ever here and all are well pleased with the crop a wise precaution has been taken upon us. Our huskers are first class and our soil can't be beaten, so we have much to be thankful for. Bob Cruise.

Worthing Home.

Nov. 18, 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knutson and Mr. Knutson and family were in Worthing Monday afternoon.

Olaf A. Fodnes was marketing hops Saturday.

The Grant township scribe received a very nice compliment from the scribe and accomplished Grand-Valley scribe last week, which of course is deeply and sincerely appreciated.

number of friends Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bessie Rector of Sioux Falls is visiting with the Misses Hall.

Miss Hattie and Nellie Hall attended the Clapp-Jacobson wedding reception at Canton Tuesday evening.

Canton Township.

Nov. 17th, 1908.

Melvin Beset who fell from a hay loft at J. J. Richardson's a week ago and was so badly hurt that he was confined to his bed for several days, has recovered sufficiently to go to work again. He fell about twelve feet and was badly bruised up but no bones were broken.

Mail carrier Scott is off duty this week and his brother is taking his place.

Jesse Martin and Harle Arnold went down to Vermillion Wednesday to visit Percy Arnold and witness the foot ball game between North and South Dakota. They returned Thursday evening and reported a fine time and good game.

Carey Ellis and family have all been under the weather with bad colds and baby Walter had to have a doctor attend him Wednesday night.

A card from Mrs. Sorum announces their arrival at Dog Tooth, N. D., Wednesday, safe and well and the country looks good to her.

Mrs. Johnson kindly invited her neighbors to her home Wednesday afternoon when she had the Congregational Ladies Aid meet with her. Anyone who has been entertained at the Johnson home is pleased to go again.

P. Atwood has purchased the property just south of Nessa's and will enlarge the house to accommodate his family as soon as possible and will move from the farm.

A. Arnold is attending court this week as a juror.

Hazel and Homer Richardson went to Floyd Haw's birthday party Monday afternoon and of course had a fine time. Floyd was eight years old that day.

Lincoln Township.

Nov. 17, 1908.

B. Tunland is carrying his arm in a sling as a result of a bee sting. The bee willingly stores up honey for us to use on our pancakes and hot biscuits but it objects to being carried around in our coat sleeves while it is being robbed.

Ralph Millage was pleasantly surprised last Sunday by about forty of his relatives, the occasion being his 22nd birthday. The participants left him a number of useful tokens as an evidence of their esteem. We hope that Ralph may live to enjoy many similar occasions.

Mr. Wallem has been suffering with blood poison caused by a scratch on his hand. He has been under the doctor's care for more than a week but is considerably improved at this writing.

Osmund Wallem and wife and baby Mildred came down from Madison, S. D., last week to see their father and visit old friends and neighbors in this vicinity.

The ladies aid at Selom's was well attended and everybody reports a fine time.

Mrs. Erland Rusten returned from North Dakota Saturday. Her brother died of a complication of diseases, having stomach trouble first and later typhoid and lung fever. He was living alone on his homestead when taken sick but was taken home to his father's later, and medical aid summoned. Although everything was done that medical skill could do, he passed away within a week. His heartbroken mother and brother and sister have the sympathy of their old neighbors and friends in Lincoln.

Osmund Wallem and family spent Sunday with Ole Tunland Jr. and family.

Mrs. Will Parke was on the sick list the first of the week but we hope she may recover soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geppert had their baby baptized Sunday in the Catholic church at Worthing.

Ole Tunland, M. Nelson, and M. T. Eneboe hauled home the last ears of corn from their fields last week and are now sitting around their "clean winged hearths" enjoying these good republican corn pieces.

Paul Kaffer has bought a new Joliet corn sheller and an International ten horse power gasoline engine and in about a week will be ready to take jobs. Satisfaction guaranteed.

A. Tunland was in Berezford the first of the week buying a new supply of household furnishings.

Steve Jackson has been suffering from a sprained wrist and dislocated thumb but is getting better at this writing. He was wrestling with an ear of corn that had grown higher than his head. Suddenly the ear let go its hold and a fall came with the above result. Take our advice Steve and be satisfied with what is within easy reach. The Jackson brothers have a "bumper" corn crop.

Gilbert Thompson has been marketing corn this week.

Grant Township.

Nov. 18, 1908.

Theodore Fodnes' new house is enclosed but owing to the cold weather of late the carpenters did not make much progress.

Olaf A. Fodnes was marketing hops Saturday.

The Grant township scribe received a very nice compliment from the scribe and accomplished Grand-Valley scribe last week, which of course is deeply and sincerely appreciated.

clated. Thanks. Do not think we are always in the "dandy" class. Things are different sometimes, especially when our better half calls us pet names in dead earnest. We shall enter no protest at this time, but simply remark that it is our opinion that that dear, charming and beautiful G. V. scribe overlooked the beauty and charm of the Fairview Bachelor, and the lovable s'ister from Dayton, to say nothing of that handsome young gentleman who has made Riverside a charming retreat in the opinion of so many sweet maids in Grand-Valley and elsewhere. When you look over that LEADER picture, no one will deny Riversider's right to sit at the head of the LEADER banquet table a year hence.

Haldan Odegard returned last week from Stanley county where he had been looking after his farm interests.

Melvin Sundvold and family were callers at Henry Skie's Sunday.

A number of farmers are through husking corn out this way and some new corn has already been put on the market.

Oscar Sather had quite a lot of corn shelled last week and hauled to market.

Frank Neuman is very busy with his corn sheller and will be crowded from now on.

Mrs. Gunder Johnson has been very sick for some time but is getting better slowly.

Ed Gedstad shot a coon a week ago close to his home. The little fellow must have traveled a long distance from some stream as it is the first one killed out on the open prairie.

Adolph Brandhagen had corn shellers was marketing corn Saturday.

Some of our bachelors have been kind of crippled up this last week but we hope nothing serious will happen so near the end of Leap Year.

Ed Hegge, Mrs. Dent, Oscar Gedstad and Wilson Dent came down Saturday from Lennox in Ed Hegge's auto to visit with Mrs. Dent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Johnson.

Mrs. Hilda Skie has become quite an expert in painting and decorating so we are informed.

The Worthing Telephone Company has extended its line to the homes of Mrs. O. Fodnes and Ole A. Fodnes.

Miss Olga Lier has the cutest pair of twins we have ever seen. They are large dolls dressed in blue bib overalls with good caps to protect their eyes. Their names are Ole and Joe but we would call them dandies.

Oscar Sather and Mrs. S. Hanson were callers at Frank Neuman's Sunday.

Miss Anna Gundersen came down from Worthing to see the folks and enjoy a moonlight ride.

One of George Sweetser's little girls was taken to Lennox for treatment. She has been very sick for a few days.

Mrs. Thea Larson is at present staying with Mrs. Dent at Lennox.

Syvret Johnson returned Saturday from Woonsocket where he had been visiting for a week.

Hike Erdmond has his new house enclosed and will soon be ready for a tenant. We understand a party from Iowa will move into it and work some of Erdmond's land.

Inwood Items.

Nov. 16, 1908.

Mrs. John Erickson and baby of Bryan, Minn., arrived last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hillesland, and other relatives.

C. B. Lamkin and family departed for Oregon last week where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Renshaw and their daughter Ruth and Mrs. Augusta Renshaw returned on Thursday last week from a several weeks' visit at points in Oregon and other coast states.

Joseph Hanson arrived home last Saturday from Minneapolis where he has been on business.

Mrs. Ole H. Knudtson will hold a farm sale on November 24th, and her son Sam is going to work it next year. Jens and Johannah are going out on their claims.

Grover Miller of Farmersburg, Iowa, who has been here on a visit with his sister, Mrs. B. F. Datsman, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. G. Ladd went to Parker, S. D., last Saturday for a visit with her daughter Mrs. C. L. Jones.

On Monday Nov. 9th, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lee died of diphtheria. The body was buried on Tuesday afternoon. No other case reported.

Myrtle Lake, Pearl and Ralph Harris went up to Alpena, last Tuesday to visit friends and relatives.

The farmers are busy picking corn and there are quite a number who have finished.

DR. J. M. EVELTTE, successor to Dr. Jennings, makes a specialty of Crown and Bridge Work.

John Evenson of Dayton was in town Monday.

Mr. Bowman of Lodi, Wis., visited with his old Lodi friends in this city Sunday.

Mrs. A. D. Smita took the train for Harrisburg Wednesday to visit friends for a few days.

Thomas Thorson went to Yankton Thursday to attend the closing session of the consistory.

C. H. Tegen, a carpenter, has rented the house formerly occupied by Mr. Wilcox and has taken possession.

On Monday Nov. 23, the annual election of officers for the Canton fire department will take place at the hose house at 8 p. m.

A regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be held next Monday evening and the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place.

Geo. Byers left for his Lyman county ranch Monday and he said he would not be back until about the first of March when he would bring a big bunch of fine draft horses.

H. H. Stubstein of Lynn township, a prominent farmer over in the southwest corner, was in Canton Wednesday and called to renew his subscription. He finished husking on Tuesday.

Rev. J. B. Dibble of this city occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church at Parker last Sunday. Rev. Dibble, although on the retired list, is an earnest, effective preacher and puts the spirit into his preaching.

Ladies, you are cordially invited to visit my Art Parlors, and look over the beautiful line of novelties, stamped and tinted linens. Suitable for Christmas gifts. Stamping done to order. Lessons free.

Mrs. Lova Christy.
Recipe for cleaning and polishing your silverware for Thanksgiving; buy a jar of our Silver Cream polish and we guarantee it will make your silverware look like new.

SVYERUD & MOE,
The Old Reliable Jewelers.

Mr. Thomas A. Berry and bride arrived from Mitchell on Tuesday, where the wedding took place on Monday, Nov. 16. Mr. Berry is a member of the new firm of Berry Brothers, successors to Mr. Thayer.

Last Friday evening Miss Fannie Whitehead and Miss Pearl Mallory entertained about twenty young lady friends in honor of Miss Anna Jacobson. The young ladies showered the guest of honor with many beautiful and useful gifts. A most delightful lunch was served and the guest departed at a late hour declaring it would long be a memorable occasion.

The College Boy, one of the best of recent comedy successes and for which Chas. Riggs and sons are sponsors, will be the attraction at the Opera House on Saturday, Nov. 21. "The College Boy" comes rather under the head of musical comedy, and, unlike the majority, the music being interpolated theatre goers will hear the very latest popular songs and those that are entirely new here. Rex Wilson has the title role, supported by the same favorites that have made the attraction so popular in the past. The stage settings and scenic adornment are complete and artistic. There is a convulsion of laughter in every line and a world of tuneful song in every act. There are vocal hits that will be whistled everywhere. The play is in three acts and is a scream from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Seats on sale at Noid's Drug Store.

A Bold Robber.
The Seubert hardware store was entered some time last Sunday night and about $100 worth of guns, knives and razors stolen. The burglar was a bombastic sort of a chap and didn't seem to fear detection. He enjoyed a lunch with a bottle of beer which he brought with him, and left the empty bottle and lunch box behind as much as to say, "I had a good time while engaged in a little game of robbing Peter to pay Paul." The evidence left behind by the burglar is somewhat peculiar, inasmuch as it indicates one thing which could be dug out to mean something entirely different. We hope the city authorities will make a determined effort to find the bold marauder who thus enters a store on a prominent street, lights a light, eats his lunch, and tops it off with a bottle of beer and then marches away with a swag.

The legal and detective forces of the city government should run that fellow down if it cost a leg.

Death of Mrs. Strickler.
Mrs. Strickler, wife of C. C. Strickler of this city died very suddenly Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock, heart failure was assigned as the cause. She was a daughter of Alexander Hannah, and a woman thoroughly devoted to her home and little family. Two little daughters aged 6 and 9, with a devoted husband are left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. Besides the husband and children, her father, two brothers and two sisters are among the chief mourners.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the family home and was conducted by Rev. Cave of the M. E. church. Interment was in Forest Hill cemetery.

Steer Taken Up.
Taken up on my premises November 8, one red yearling steer. The owner is requested to call and pay expenses and remove the same.

John Benz,
Canton, S. D.

Wedding Reception.

At three o'clock Tuesday afternoon Thomas Warner Clapp of Sioux City and Miss Anna E. Jacobson of this city were united in wedlock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Overeth, Rev. P. H. Telle of the Lutheran Church officiating, and none but immediate relatives of the groom and bride were present to witness the ceremony.

The handsome new residence of Mr. and Mrs. Overeth was elegantly decorated in honor of the event, and five hours after the wedding, guests began to arrive for the reception which continued from 8 to 11.

Prof. and Mrs. Lawrence and K. E. Jacobson and Miss Mattie Holden of Corson received with the bride and groom, and Miss Wold of Minneapolis received the guests as they entered. The bride wore white silk and looked charming as she received the congratulations of a hundred or more friends.

During the reception hours the Hotchkiss Orchestra stationed over the main hall discoursed sweet music which added to the charm and joy of the event. Mrs. Carl Glaettli and Mrs. John Isakson presided at the refreshment table assisted by Misses Cora Juel, Edna Sandven, Blanche Isakson and Emma Rossun.

The reception was perfect in every detail and up stairs the gentlemen had a smoking room where they enjoyed a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp received many valuable presents from friends.

Mr. John Overeth, brother-in-law of the bride, was suffering from a sprained ankle and took little part in the merry making but he found sympathy enough to cure any ordinary twist of the foot. Mrs. Overeth assisted by her sisters, Mrs. Rise and Mrs. Lawrence, sisters of the bride, arranged the details for this delightful event, enjoying it with the pleasure that comes with success.

Mrs. Claypole, sister of the groom and Mrs. Holt and daughter of Sioux City, were present as guests of honor.

The LEADER joins with a host of friends in extending congratulations to Mr. Clapp and his charming bride.

District Court.

The regular October term was adjourned to Monday November 16, at which time Judge Jones and his official staff were present and the business for the term commenced.

The first case called was that of John Evenson of Dayton township against William Finn. The trouble began over Evenson's cattle getting into Finn's corn stalks. Finn shut the cattle up and Evenson replevined. Finn sued for damages and was offered $10 by Evenson to pay the damage his cattle were guilty of committing upon the harmless corn stalks. Finn refused the $10 offer and thus by degrees the case got before Judge Jones and a jury. It was tried earnestly and well by Forrest & Solem for Evenson and by U. S. G. Cherry for Finn. Then the jury retired and after mature deliberation awarded Evenson $1 for the unlawful manner in which Finn had confined his cattle, and then gave Finn $7 for the damage to his corn stalks and $2 for feeding John's cattle while detained by him, leaving the costs upon Finn. That jury had level heads and are entitled to a vote of thanks for settling the case in such an equitable manner.

The next case called was that of Mrs. M. A. Lowell against Frank Hamilton and others of Hudson for selling liquor to Leslie Lowell while intoxicated, claiming damages to the amount of $2000. Lowell was killed by a train at Hudson. The jury got the case Wednesday afternoon. C. B. Kennedy for plaintiff and Carlson and Kirby for defendants. Jury found Hamilton.

The third case tried was that of J. A. Ross and wife against J. M. Sols for commission in a land deal, and was on trial when the LEADER went to press. Attorney Carlson for Sols and Attorney Bates of Sioux Falls for Ross.

Baby Ringheim Dead.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ringheim are mourning the death of one of their month old twins, a dear little boy, who died Tuesday and was buried Wednesday.

Card of Thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ringheim desire to express their sincere thanks to the many kind friends who assisted them during the burial of their dear little baby.

Dr. Moore of Worthing was in Canton Monday.

L. N. Waldorf, Earl Waldorf, Frank Jackson, Roy Parkin, John Gilman, J. A. Pierce, Chas. Thorpe, and Arthur Amundson were a jolly party of Hudsonites who came up to attend court Monday.

Look out for a Dutch market. If you want to know what a Dutch market means, ask any of the ladies belonging to the M. E. aid society.

Mr. John E. Burch and Carrie A. Banning, both of Brookfield, Linn county, Missouri, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wm. Cloud of this city, on Wednesday afternoon at half past four. Rev. Geo. S. Eyrans officiated. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony and a number of guests were present.

Congregational services next Sunday Nov. 22nd as follows: Morning worship at quarter of eleven. Subject—"Missions," and a thankoffering will be taken up. Sunday School as usual, 12 o'clock and Young People's Society in the Lecture Room at 7 o'clock. Evening preaching service at 7:30 p.m. You are invited to any of these meetings.

The Emperor and Empress of China died last week, and Prince Chun, a progressive, was named regent during the minority of his three year old son. Pu Yi, who was proclaimed Emperor. China will begin a new life and adopt the customs of European nations and will soon become a mighty power with whom Japan must reckon in the future.

Governor Crawford has appointed Circuit Judge Charles S. Whiting to the supreme bench to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Fuller. Judge Whiting is considered an able lawyer and in every way fitted for the new honor conferred upon him.

Mrs. Cantonwine, wife of the Douglas county merchant who claimed he was robbed, told in court at Sioux Falls that she had $3000 stowed away in her bustle under a stylish gown and was somewhat modest about telling where she had it hidden, which reminds the editor of his army life and how he used to capture contraband whisky.

DINING ROOM FURNITURE

---FOR---

THANKSGIVING DAY

TO MOST OF US the day conjures up visions of a happy group gathered around the festive board. The Thanksgiving spirit takes on an added meaning when relatives and friends unite in the celebration. So, in a sense, it becomes dining room day, and a day when that room must make its bravest showing; when the furnishings must be at their best and complete.

THEREFORE, this is an opportune time to call your attention to the dining room furniture exhibit in this good furniture store, assuming that you may need one or more pieces to complete your furnishing; or, it may be an entirely new outfit.

The showing of dining room tables, chairs, buffets, and China cabinets, etc., are greater than ever.
