The American Bible Society.

The stated meeting of the Board of Managers was held on Thursday, the 4th inst., at half-past three P. M., Hon. Luther Bradish in the chair, assisted by Wm. B. Crosby, Benjamin L. Swan, James Lenox, Francis Hall and Peleg Sprit, Esqs.

Rev. Dr. Krebs read the 90th psalm, and offered prayer

Three new societies were recognized, of which two are in Missouri and one in Kansas.

Communications were received from different parts of the country, showing the state of the work at home; from Rev. Dr. Butler, of Bareilly (India) asking a grant of funds and books; from Rev. L. S. Jacoby, Bremen, sending his account for the past year, with a report of distributions, and asking further appropriations; from Rev. William Tracy, Madura, sending financial account, with encouraging statements as to the good effects of the Bible in that country; from Rev. Isaac G. Bliss, Cairo, stating the number of Bibles distributed in that vicinity, and the good effect of the two depositories in that city; from Rev. J. P. Thompson, the society's agent in Mexico, with regard to the distribution of the Bible in that country; from Rev. S. H. Dabous, Abich, in regard to printing an edition of the New Testament, and the conversion, by means of a Bible, of a whole village, in form at least, to Protestantism; from Rev. Dr. Van Dyck, Beirut, asking permission to print another edition of the Armenian Testament, the former edition being exhausted, and requesting funds; from Rev. Joseph K. Greene, Nicomedia, giving an account of Bible operations in Bughchejuk, acknowledging aid received from this society, and commending the accuracy of the Armenian Bible printed at the Bible House; from Rev. S. B. Bergne, of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in regard to printing the Arabic Testament and the Bulgarian Testament with marginal references; from Rev. Geo. W. Wood, Secretary of A. B. C. F. M., sending a letter from Rev. Dr. Riggs, of Beirut, requesting the electrotyping of the Armenian Pocket Testament.

Grants of books were made to Seaman's Bethel, Wilmington, N. C.; to Missionary Society of Protestant Episcopal Church, for Africa; Danish Bibles and Testaments for Copenhagen; to Rev. M. B. Bird, 500 French Bibles and Testaments for Hayti; also, to Rev. J. T. Holly, for Hayti, with many smaller grants, and eight volumes for the blind. Appropriations in funds were made to various missionary societies for Bible work for the coming year, amounting to $2,8,200.

The afflicting intelligence was received of the decease of the Hon John McLean, one of the oldest Vice Presidents of the society. A committee was appointed today up suitable resolutions, to be presented at the next meeting.

This, the last meeting in the society's year, was peculiarly interesting and encouraging.

Supreme Court—Part Second.

Before Hon. Judge Clerke.

IMPORTANT QUESTION AS TO PARTNERSHIP—A VERDICT OF OVER $6,000.

APRIL 4.—Henry Myers vs. B. Culver and Wm. H. Hoffman, Survivors of Orville Bard.—This action, which has occupied the Court for more than a week, was brought for the amount of two promissory notes. The defence was that these notes were given as memoranda of the amount that plaintiff put in as capital to the concern of Culver & Hoffman. The answers of each of the defendants (Culver & Hoffman) set up that Myers (the plaintiff) was a partner. The only question tried was whether or not Myers was a member of the firm of Culver & Hoffman. The firm of Culver & Hoffman had been engaged very extensively in selling cattle on commission at Bull's Head; their dealings amounting to about $60,000 a month. The plaintiff was engaged in the same business, but, as he claimed, on his own account. Both the defendants (Culver & Hoffman), and a son of Culver, testified to the partnership agreement by which Myers was to be a member of the firm. On the cross examination of these witnesses by ex Judge Dean, statements under oath by the defendants were proved entirely contradictory to the testimony on this trial, and the principal evidence for the plaintiff was from the defendants' sworn statements in other causes. Mr. Myers, the plaintiff, was put upon the stand, and asked the general question—"You have heard the testimony of Joshua Culver, son of one of the defendants, in reference to your saying to him that you were a member of the firm of Culver & Hoffman; is it true?" The plaintiff answered, "It is false, every word of it." The same question was repeated in reference to the testimony of both the defendants, Culver and Hoffman, and the same answer given by the plaintiff, who added that no such agreement was ever made. The plaintiff further testified that the defendant, Bachus Culver, had proposed to him, through his son, to surrender these notes and keep still, and that if he did so, that he (Bachus Culver) would swear that he was not a member of the firm, and that if he refused to do so he would swear he was a member of the firm, and make him liable for the debts of the company. Myers replied that he (Culver) was worse than a burglar, for if a burglar entered his house he ran the chance of being shot; that Culver in making this proposition to him ran no risk whatever. Since that time there has been a coolness between plaintiff and defendants, and he then brought this suit. The defendants' counsel (Mr. Clark) did not cross-examine Mr. Myers.

After summing up of counsel and the Judge's charge, the jury immediately returned a verdict for plaintiff for $6,427 61, the whole amount claimed, with interest.

This question involves a large amount of claims against the firm of Culver & Hoffman. Counsel for plaintiff ex-Judge Dean; for defendants Clark & Whiting.

Court of Appeals.

Before a Full Bench.

APRIL 4.—In the matter of the attachment against the stock of Benoffe & Co., non-resident debtors, on appeal of Edward Rose, executor of Claudius Dord.—The argument in this case was concluded.

In the matter of Dr. Thomas T. Ellis.—This was a motion for a new trial. The defendant was convicted of stealing a ring from a woman who lived with him under peculiar circumstances. It was contended that there was no theft on the part of the doctor, and that the ring was loaned to him by the lady. Ex Judge Whiting for appellant, Mr. J. Sedgwick for the defendant.

Coroners' Inquests.

KILLED OVER A GAME AT CARDS.—John Hopps, a driver in the employment of Mr. Simpson, of West Fourteenth street, died yesterday at the New York Hospital from the effects of a blow received on the 19th ult. while engaged in a fight over a game of cards at the livery stable 172 Mercer street. Two employees of the stable, named Henry Rollins and Frederick Johnson, were playing a game of "forty fives," when Hopps entered the premises and appeared to be interested in the result of the playing. After watching the progress of the game for a few moments, Hopps ventured to give Johnson some advice in relation to the play, when Rollins became angry and told deceased to mind his own business. Hopps, who was intoxicated at the time, felt irritated at the remark made by Rollins, and, seizing him by the throat, slapped his face. Some of the bystanders then interfered and separated the parties, but deceased continued to abuse Rollins, and was evidently anxious for a fight. Soon afterwards the men got together again, and Hopps was about striking Rollins a second time when the latter picked up a stick of wood and struck his assailant over the head, knocking him down. The injured man was found to be insensible from the effects of the blow, and not showing any symptoms of returning consciousness he was conveyed to the New York Hospital. Every effort was made to save the life of the unfortunate man, but in vain. He continued to sink from day to day, and on Tuesday he died. Coroner Jackman held an inquest upon the body, when the facts as above having been elicited, the jury rendered a verdict of "Death from fracture of the skull at the hands of Henry Rollins, but under circumstances of great provocation." The accused, who had previously been arrested by the Fifteenth precinct police, was committed to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury.

HORRIBLE ON SHIPBOARD.—Samuel Powell, the sailor who was injured on board the ship Almena, at Greenpoint, L. I., on Tuesday, the 26th ult., while engaged in a fight with the first mate, Joseph M. Vaughan, died yesterday at the New York Hospital from the effects of his wounds. Coroner Jackman held an inquest upon the body. The testimony went to show that deceased was drunk at the time of the affray, and that he was the aggressor throughout the whole transaction. Vaughan, it appears, did not strike deceased until the latter had twice assaulted him, and it was only when deceased was attempting to strike a third blow that the mate felt compelled to knock him down with a hatchet. The jury, in view of these facts, rendered a verdict of "Justifiable homicide," and the prisoner was discharged from custody. Powell was a native of Ireland, and was about twenty-five years of age.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN BAXTER STREET.—Coroner Jackman held an inquest yesterday, at No. 38 Baxter street, upon the body of Jeremiah Cuffey, a native of Ireland, aged twenty seven years, who died from the effects of injuries accidentally received by falling down a flight of stairs on Tuesday evening. A post mortem examination of the body, made by Dr. Wittig, showed that death was caused by fracture of the skull, the result of the fall in question. The jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the opinion of the physician, and the body was thereupon handed over to the friends for interment.

Boston Boot and Shoe Market.

[From the Shoe and Leather Reporter, April 4.]

A few buyers from the interior States remain in our market, but their purchases are limited, and when their wants are supplied we may look for almost a dead calm. A very few orders are being received from the Western States and some conditional ones from the Southern States, the conditions being that our merchants shall send the goods at regular rates and lose half of the duties which the new Southern government have levied or may impose. These terms would, at present selling rates, result in a loss, and will hardly be complied with. We not on that one of our Charleston, S. C., exchanges makes the statement that over 2,000,000 worth of boots and shoes, about 4,000 cases, were sold in that city during the past two weeks. The manufacturers are making no exertions to increase the stocks of goods on hand, and very little besides ordered work is being made up. The impossibility of making collections in many portions of the South and West is a cause of general complaint, and an improvement in this respect is anxiously looked for. The month of April will, unless favorable circumstances intervene, be a trying one to the trade here, as the notes of August, 1860—the busiest month of last season—will become due, and the manufacturers feel that they have been already called upon to grant an unusually large number of extensions.

We understand that some of the workmen in this vicinity are discussing the feasibility of striking for higher wages. To render this a paying movement we recommend them to strike some other means of getting a strike—obviously the only "strike" which has a ghost of a chance of success.

SERIOUS LOSS.—Mr. G. H. Griffiths, an actor, lost, at a fire in Memphis, on the 22d of March, the savings of seventeen years, consisting principally of $500 in money and a very expensive wardrobe.

Disappointed Love—Probable Murder of a Young Girl and Attempted Suicide.

[From the Boston Traveller, April 3.]

An affair occurred at South Boston yesterday afternoon, which came near terminating fatally to two persons, one of whom is yet in danger. It appears that Albert Dittmer, a young man about twenty years of age, who has worked in Adams' sugar house, was some months since paying attentions to Margaret Padre, a fine looking girl, not quite sixteen years old, whose mother is dead, and who has been officiating as housekeeper for her father, John Padre, living on First street, South Boston. For some reasons she discarded him, and since that time he has been endeavoring in vain to obtain a renewal of the friendly relations between them. Yesterday he went to the house on First street and saw her in the presence of her father. At the close of the interview he said he had something he wished to give her, and which he wanted to deliver with no one else present. He then went into an adjoining room, and with some reluctance she followed him. As soon as she entered the room and closed the door, he drew a double barrelled pistol, and, placing it against her neck, discharged one of the barrels.

The father of the girl was close by the door, and he rushed into the room and wrenched the pistol from Dittmer, who was apparently about to discharge the contents of the other barrel into his own person. Dittmer then rushed out of the house, and running across the street jumped into the water, then about five feet and a half deep, with the intention of drowning himself. Several persons saw him, one of whom jumped in and held his head above the water till he could be got out. He was soon after delivered into the custody of policeman Ferguson.

The barrel of the pistol discharged at the girl was loaded with powder and a gravel stone. The charge took effect on the right side of her neck, inflicting a dangerous wound. Dr. Ferguson was called, but has not been able to find the stone, which remains in her neck. She continues at her father's house, and it is feared she will not recover, as she complains of much distress in her head this morning, and it is feared the stone passed upward.

The parties are both Germans. In a conversation this morning, Dittmer said he had been in this country about two years, and had owned the pistol some time; that he loaded it to kill himself and the girl, but that it went off sooner than he intended; that he was about to put the pistol into his mouth to blow out his own brains, when it was taken from him.

An examination was had in the Police Court to-day, and Dittmer was required to recognize in $5,000 for his appearance for trial in the Superior Court. He has no relatives in this country except a brother in Ohio, and in appearance is rather dull and stupid.

ELOPEMENT IN MINNESOTA.—We learn from a correspondent that the usually quiet town of Rockford, Wright county, was thrown into a high state of excitement last Wednesday, 20th instant, by the elopement of a man named S. S. Parmenter, a noted character, and well known as the hangman at the lynching of Oscar F. Jackson, about two years ago, that was the cause of the celebrated Wright county war, in which the Pioneer Guard, the Shields Guard and the Stillwater Guard so distinguished themselves. Parmenter's leaving was a small matter in itself, but with him went Mrs. Nancy Jenks, wife of J. E. Jenks, of that town, and a borrowed horse and cutter, and about $50 in money belonging to a company of trappers, who had left furs with him to sell. Parmenter left behind him a wife and three children and quite a large number of unpaid bills. Mr. Jenks had no children. It was supposed that the couple went towards Breckinridge. Nancy left a number of very romantic letters addressed to her husband and mother and sisters, informing them that she had left them forever.—St Paul Pioneer, March 26.

EFFECTS OF BAD WRITING.—It is stated that Mr. A. B. Dickinson, of New York, the newly appointed Minister to Nicaragua, was an applicant for the office of Marshal in Nebraska. His handwriting being indistinct, the Secretary of State thought he asked for the post of Minister in Nicaragua, and, being a friend, appointed him Minister instead of Marshal.
