"GO WEST, YOUNG MAN!"

DRAPER, SOUTH DAKOTA,

is one of the growing towns west of the Missouri river, in the heart of the finest agricultural section of this rich and growing northwest. It is 65 miles west of Chamberlain, on the Milwaukee railroad. Located near the center of Lyman county, the town has great prospects. It now has three general stores, two banks, two hardware stores, two newspapers, six land offices, a fine elevator, and nearly every known business represented, yet still room for more. The climate is excellent and building operations are carried on the entire year. Wages are high, and the demand for skilled and common labor is unabated.

The land in this favored locality is the kind which our Iowa and Illinois friends say is worth $100 an acre, for both corn and alfalfa are produced to perfection. Yields of 25 to 40 bushels corn per acre on sod are ordinary; 50 bushels and up may be raised the second year with little work. Some farmers in this locality are raising alfalfa for seed and making a profit of $75 an acre. This is the grain belt of the west. Plenty of moisture without irrigation; plenty of good water from wells.

If interested, write for further particulars and for list of lands, which can yet be had for $10 to $25 per acre, to O'Rielly-Craig Land Co., Draper, S. D.

DR. J. M. EVELETH, successor to Dr. Jennings, makes a specialty of Crown and Bridge Work.

The cold wave hit this section a stiff bunt and the men who had heating plants to look after were not idle, neither were the coal men.

The O'Rielly-Craig Land Co. of Draper, has an ad in this issue of the LEADER that should interest those seeking paying investments. Read their ad and write them.

Mr. and Mrs. Puckett entertained a 500 party Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ryan of Roundup, Montana. When the game ceased, Dr. Lewis had 500 in a handsomely ornamented circle and Dr. O'Neil was happy. It was a delightfully pleasant party and closed with delicious refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan expect to leave for Roundup next week.

O. H. Lybarger believes in printers ink and he knows it to be a splendid investment. This week he gives his friends and the public a "red letter" announcement. Everything is red and booming. He is offering great bargains. He was somewhat afraid his January thaw wouldn't arrive in time, but he is of the opinion the people won't care whether he missed his guess or not so long as he gives them big bargains.

N. O. Nelson of Grant was a visitor and a renewal subscriber Tuesday. He owns the S. G. Schlager quarter northeast of the city and has made considerable improvement thereon and will make more after he moves thereto March 1st. Mr. Nelson has a fine farm and he intends to make his home one of the best in the county.

The boys say that Asher Anderson is the finest skater in town, and his work on the ice is marvelous. He comes by this naturally as his father, Cashier Anderson of the First National bank, used to be the best of the fancy skaters. It's a delightful exercise and our young people enjoyed it before the recent snow.

George Hokenstad has been appointed deputy treasurer in place of J. C. Tjaden, resigned, and Miss Cannetta Hokenstad has accepted a position as clerk in the county treasurer's office. George Hokenstad is a son of the treasurer and a very competent young gentleman for the position. The LEADER is pleased to see him promoted from clerk to deputy.

Alfred C. Engen, son of Chris Engen of this city, came down from Minneapolis to spend the holidays, but Alfred's many Canton friends were not aware that he was coming home with a beautiful bride, until he stepped from the train. Judge Kelly attended a banquet at Sioux Falls last week given by former students of the Iowa state university, from which he graduated 30 years ago. The Judge responded to a toast entitled "University Ideals." It was a prophetic vision of what he saw in fancy one hundred years hence. It was a brilliant prophecy entirely within the possibilities judging from what we have witnessed in the last thirty years. We shall present a brief of the Judge's remarks next week.

A. E. Stowell, the genial gentleman who manages the Bowman-Kranz Lumber business in this city, won the first prize for dancing, mask ball costume and general appearance at the Yeomen mask ball on the last night of the old year. The prize was a handsome rocking chair. Lloyd Little won second prize for gentlemen. The first prize for ladies was a rocking chair and was won by Mrs. Claude Robinson, and the second for ladies was a pair of gloves won by Miss Edwards.

Tillman Mausbach was a visitor and a renewal subscriber Tuesday. He came in out of the snow storm with a smile on his face that would drive dull care to the winds. He is one of the happiest men on earth and possesses a disposition that is worth a fortune. He allows nothing to disturb him. If anything goes wrong a smile and a laugh settles the matter. He couldn't worry if he tried. There is no worry in his makeup. His great big heart and broad shoulders carried him through the grasshopper period and a small bill of fare in those days of tribulation never disturbed the even tenor of his way. Thrice blessed is a man of that makeup. Tillman came in Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of the Lincoln County Farmers Mutual Insurance company. He left this office smoking a LEADER New Year ElRoyal and said as he left, "be good until I come again."

"LIFE AS ILLUSTRATED IN MUSIC."

By Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus and the Central Church Choir of Chicago.

The Citizens' Lyceum Course Committee are very pleased to present Dr. Gunsaulus and his Church Choir as an extra to this year's lecture course.

Chicago, Jan. 4, 1909.

Prof. C. G. Lawrence, Canton, S. D., Dear Sir: Dr. Gunsaulus and his famous choir will be at Sioux Falls, Jan. 11th. The Doctor is to be with you as contracted on Jan. 12. We enclose you a circular of the Doctor and choir. The Doctor proposes to bring the choir over to Canton with him and give you his full lecture with music. This, as you know is a $350 attraction, but we wanted to do this favor for you, and thought you would be glad to have this extra number in addition to the Doctor. The Doctor failed you last year, and we had a little trouble in getting the dates fixed there, so we want to be generous towards you.

Announce the new lecture "Life as Illustrated in Music," by Dr. Gunsaulus and the choir. This is the famous Auditorium Choir of Chicago, including Mr. George Iott, the famous basso. We thought we would like to extend this little courtesy to you. Believe us Very Truly Yours,

The Slayton Lyceum Bureau, Musical Student, Chicago: An entertainment as unique as it was charming, was given by Dr. Frank Gunsaulus at Kimball Hall in Chicago, in which he had the assistance of the famous Central Church Choir. Dr. Gunsaulus is most sympathetically alive to musical interests and possibilities and his study of the art has been such as to fit him eminently for such a task as that he imposed upon himself. He had selected many songs—songs that pulse with life, and which tell of the varying phases of human thought and feeling, and these he put into a frame or oratory, so that when they were pictured by the singers, their beauties shone forth resplendently. A wide gamut of human experience was depicted, and many a fact of musical theory and point of musical poesy brought to the attention of the students, and friends who filled the hall. These songs were exquisitely interpreted by the Central Church Choir singers—Mrs. E. B. Hodge, Mrs. Anna L. Northrup, Mr. Calvin Cox and Mr. Geo. Iott. This program drew the finest audience of the season.

The committee feels in saying that this will be the finest Lyceum or Chautauqua entertainment ever so far given in Canton.

At the College Chapel, Tuesday evening Jan. 12th. Tickets: 75 cts. To holders of season tickets to lecture course, 50 cts. students and children 35 cts.

The annual corn contest for Lincoln county will be held Feb. 19-20. The corn contest this year will be the most interesting ever held in the county because the school boys will be on hand with their product to compete for honors and prizes, and we presume every man in the contest would not feel bad if the boys won out. Prepare your corn for this great event. The lessons to be learned will be worth thousands of dollars to the farmers.

Fur Glove Lost.

Nels Iverson of Lynn township drove to Worthing Tuesday and took the train for Canton. He lost somewhere on the trip a large electric seal driving glove and would like to find it. The glove is a fine one and Mr. Iverson is of the opinion that the one lost won't do the finder much good and therefore hopes some one will be good enough to return it.

There will be service in the Catholic church next Sunday morning at 10:30 a. m. by Father Twobig.

Louis Asper of Norway township has been appointed Deputy Register of Deeds and Mr. Asper is competent for the work. He is one of the prominent young men in that township and Mr. Ovre has been fortunate in his selection.

Death of Mrs. A. L. Anderson

Mrs. Mary Jane McClintock Anderson, one of the Lincoln township pioneers, died at the family home in this city, at noon, Monday, of consumption. The news came as a shock to the many old friends of the family, few knowing of her serious illness. She was eminently a home lover and enjoyed the comforts of plenty with the devoted companionship of her husband and daughter, Etta.

Mary Jane McClintock was born in Somerset county, Pennsylvania, May 1, 1857, and would have been 51 years old next May. She with her sister came to Iowa, in the spring of 1877, and was united in marriage to Alexander Leonard Anderson, July 4, 1881. To this union five children were born, of whom only one survives. Besides her husband and daughter Etta, four brothers are among the mourners—Martin of Waterloo, Nebraska; Andrew J., Chance and Marcellus of Le-Mars, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were among the early settlers in Lincoln township, where they resided for many years until the work of the farm became too strenuous, compelling Mr. Anderson to retire and seek rest in a comfortable home in this city.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from the family home and was conducted by Rev. Pauquet, the Baptist minister. The body of the beloved wife and mother was laid away in the Beloit cemetery, beside the children that preceded her to the other side.

The LEADER joins with many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Miss Marcia Helme returned from Sioux Falls Saturday.

17 Cents a Day Buys an Oliver

This amazing offer—the New Model Oliver Typewriter No. 5 at 17 cents a day—is open to everybody, everywhere. It is our new and immensely popular plan of selling Oliver Typewriters on little easy payments. The abandonment of one hand in favor of clean, legible, beautiful typewriting is the next great step in human progress. Already in all lines of business and in all professions—the use of pen and ink is largely restricted to the writing of signatures. Business Colleges and High Schools, watching the trend of public sentiment, are training a vast army of young people in the use of Oliver Typewriters. The prompt and generous response of the Oliver Typewriter company to the world-wide demand for universal typewriting, gives tremendous impetus to the movement. The Oliver, with the largest sale of any typewriter in existence, was the logical machine to take the initiative in bringing about the universal use of typewriters. It always leads.

Save Your Pennies and Own The OLIVER Typewriter

THE STANDARD VISIBLE WRITER

This "17-Cents-a-Day" selling plan makes the Oliver as easy to own as to rent. It places the machine within easy reach of every home—every individual. A man's "clear money"—a woman's "pin money" will buy it.

Articles of small salaries can now afford to own Oliver. By utilizing spare moments for practice they may fit themselves for more important positions.

School boys and school girls can buy Oliver by saving their pennies.

You can buy an Oliver on this plan at the regular catalog price $100. A small first payment brings the machine. Then you save 17 cents a day and pay monthly.

And the possession of an Oliver Typewriter enables you to earn money to finish paying for the machine.

Advantages Service Possibilities

The Oliver is the most highly perfected or turns out more typewriting in the same amount of time than any other writing machine. Among its scores of conveniences are:

—The Balance Shift
—The Raising Device
—The Double Release
—The Locking Base
—The Automatic Spacer
—The Automatic Tabulator
—The Disappearing Indicator
—The Adjustable Paper Fingers
—The scientific Condensed Keyboard

The Oliver Typewriter is more of operation and value than any other writing machine. It is the corner stone of its towering supremacy in Correspondence, Card Index Work, Tabulated Reports, Follow-up System, Manufacturing Service, Addressing, Envelopes, Working on Ruled Forms, and Cutting Mimeograph Stencils.

Can you spend 17 cents a day to better advantage than in the purchase of this wonderful machine?
