NATIONAL HORSE FAIR—CONTINUED. AT THE HARTFORD TROTTING PARK, HARTFORD, CONN., On Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 29 and 30, 1861. Under the management of the HARTFORD HORSE ASSOCIATION.

This Association published a national exhibition to occur on the 8th, 9th and 10th of October, 1861, in which there were nearly 300 entries of competing horses. The first and second days exhibition were held with the most brilliant and gratifying success, and with the attendance of one of the largest and most respectable assemblages of people ever seen in New England. On the third day a violent rain storm compelled an adjournment, which, after consulting the exhibitors, was fixed for the 30th day of the month. Whereupon the Association have added IMPORTANT PURSES FOR ANOTHER DAY. The adjourned day (October 30) contains six classes, five of which are for speed, and are filled by the best collections of TROTTING HORSES ever brought together for a day's exhibition. The following day (October 30) contains seven classes, five of which are for speed, including a TWO MILE STALLION TROT; A FIVE MILE TROT FOR ALL HORSES, and a TROT FOR HORSES TO SADDLE, open to all horses. Among the entries already made, are "BROWN DICK," "ROCKINGHAM," "JOHN MORGAN" and "LANCET," besides two large fields of noted STALLIONS, several PAIRS OF CELEBRATED FAST TROTTING HORSES. Several of the fastest PRIVATE HORSES owned in New England. And a positive arrangement has been made for the unequaled TROTTING STALLION "GEORGE M. PATCHEN," with some of his FINEST COLTS, to be exhibited on both days. Patchen is looking finer than he ever did, and his owner has agreed to exhibit his speed at this fair.

There has been no attraction on the turf this year possessing so much interest as will be presented in the two days of this exhibition.

For particulars see the Hartford daily papers of Friday and Saturday, October 25 and 26.

539—Is celebrated for the crowds who nightly visit it.
539—Is celebrated as being the only Theatrical College from which aspiring artists date the commencement of their career.

THE MELODEON, 539 BROADWAY,

Is celebrated for having the most experienced manager ever engaged in the business of catering for the public's amusement. The proprietor, determined to retain not only his own reputation, but the reputation of the

MELODEON,

Has collected upon the stage all the available first class talent presentable.

He has made it a special point to engage all the most celebrated ladies in the profession, subject to the following conditions, viz:—

Youth must and will be a prominent qualification.

Grace is essential, and will be made a condition of engagement.

Beauty rules the world, and instead of being ignored, will be insisted upon as the prominent specification in the articles of agreement.

Combined with all the above qualifications, it is absolutely necessary that the candidate for engagement should possess real merit as an artist, and be celebrated in some special line of business.

By these proceedings, the patrons of the

MELODEON

are sure to witness a performance by the

BEST ARTISTS,

engaged regardless of cost. Last week of the engagement of the

FIRST CLASS TALENT,

such as the

BRYANT'S, FOX'S, SLARPLEY'S or the BUCKLEY'S,

why, then, we will give the patrons of the Melodeon a touch of

SOMETHING GOOD;

but until then we must content ourselves by knowing that we have

DECIDEDLY, WITHOUT ANY HUMBUG,

Even our enemies will own up to this point, the

BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;
BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;
BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;
BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;
BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;
BEST COMPANY IN THE CITY;

but, hang it, you see, the Melodeon has no

LOOKING GLASSES;

there's the rub; but what the public lose in mirrors the Melodeon gives them in talent, and if any of the patrons of the Melodeon should wish to

GAZE AT THEMSELVES

during the entertainment, by applying at the box office, one of the

LARGEST LOOKINGGLASSES

in the establishment will be immediately loaned them, so that on that point we can be even. But on the

TALENTED PERFORMERS

there is no way of getting even, except by good management and financiering. Amen.

READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

THE HERALD says, IN POINT OF

WITTY DIALOGUE,
SPLENDID COSTUMES,
FINE SCENIC EFFECTS,

IT IS SUPERIOR TO ANY PIECE yet produced under Miss Keene's tasteful management. The World calls its scenery

CAVERNS WHERE NAIADS AND NEREIDS

Might dream opalescent dreams of the submarine shining

STALACTITE HUNG VESTIBULES
OF
OLD OCEAN'S INNER COURT.
IDYLLIC DELLS AND FOUNTAINS
WHERE LILIES LIE IN SLEEP;

STAND UP AND TAKE THE SUNLIGHT.

The Herald also says:—

THE QUESTION OF THE REBELLION AND ITS CAUSES,

and the

CONDUCT OF ENGLAND TOWARDS THIS COUNTRY

Are freely discussed. The

APPLAUSE WHICH FOLLOWED EVERY TELLING HIT

announced that Miss Keene had not only selected

POPULAR SUBJECTS FOR HER DIALOGUE,

but had hit to a nicety the

CURRENT PUBLIC OPINION UPON THE SUBJECTS,

and the public pronounced this to be the

BEST SPECTACLE YET PRODUCED ON THE NEW YORK STAGE.

The Daily Times says:—

THERE ARE THREE TABLEAUX WHICH HAVE NEVER BEEN SURPASSED IN AMERICA.

The eye can dwell with pleasure on such pictures as the

CORAL CAVE, WITH ITS CURIOUS SPIRAL STAIRCASE,
THE
ASCENT OF THE SPIRITS OF THE LAKE, AND THE GREAT
WATTEAU SCENE OF ARCADIAN NYMPHS
RECLINING AMONG THEIR FLOCKS.

There is a

SERMON AND CAPER IN EVERY SCENE,

Every man, woman and child who has a dozen lines to speak is a

WALKING LEADING ARTICLE.

The Dispatch says:—

IT IS A BRILLIANT PRODUCTION,

full of

SHARP HITS, HUMOR AND WISDOM.

The

SONGS, MUSIC, DANCING,
DRILLS, MARCHES, EVOLUTIONS,

are exceedingly attractive.

The Extravaganza will be presented with a combination of artistic talent, comprising the following

STAR COMPANY,
viz:—
