WESTWARD! HO!!
"Westward the Star of Empire takes its way!"
So does the star of Fashion and the Graces;
Judging, at least, by the vast crowds each day
Rushing to MACY'S.
Broadway no longer tempts with costly glare,
With fancy shop fronts, and still fancier prices;
Cheapness—if good and tasteful for the fair—
Is what entices.
Therefore, we find SIXTH AVENUE to grow
Daily in favor with all sexes and classes,
And on a Broadway palace, people know,
MACY'S surpasses.
Look at his GLOVES! while other folks elsewhere
Charge for their gloves a price almost hethious,
For SIXTY-THREE CENTS MACY robes the fair
In kids delicious.
See what a rich assortment, too, he brings
Of LINENS, FLOWERS, EMBROIDERIES AND LACES,
RIBBONS, HANDKERCHIEFS and a thousand things
For pretty faces.
Hither flock mothers with their pets, and beaus
Come with the objects of their hearts' devotions,
To see the sterling wonders MACY shows
in YANKEE NOTIONS.
Bedecked by him, the very plainest lass
Is Venus—in her beau's imagination;
And youngsters too—in mammas' eyes—surpass
All in creation!
"Westward the Star of Fashion takes it way!"
That it should pass o'er MACY'S is not funny;
'Tis that he SELLS GOODS EQUAL TO BROADWAY
FOR MUCH LESS MONEY.

CARD.—LIQUOR DEALERS OF THE NINTH WARD, your craft is in danger; your old enemy, Capt. Bush, is in the field, a candidate for the Assembly. You can and you must defeat him. Your own candidate, Mr. Sandford, is a gentleman every way qualified to discharge the duties of the office, and who will have a special regard for your interest, which is all important to you at this present time. So up, then, and do your duty. Publicans, shamrocks and Hibernians, arise in your might and strike one of your terrific blows for Sandford. Liberty and Loger, and the day is yours, and away goes the portly Captain, reeling on to the head of Croton river. FREE TRADE.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE PEOPLE'S SYRACUSE Union Convention.
Whereas, the shoddy abolition committee, presided over by Charles Henry Marshall (who recently, in the Defence Committee, retired the administration of Mr. Lincoln in its efforts to preserve the Union), have assigned improper motives to the People's Syracuse Union Convention for their reconsideration of the nomination of Josiah W. Brown and their endorsement of Frederick L. Vultè; therefore,
Resolved, That we proclaim to the electors of this county that the motives which actuated the People's Syracuse Union Convention in were an admiration for the integrity, capacity and character of Mr. Vultè, and disgust for those of Mr. Brown, which connected themselves with Mr. Brown, in his capacity as a city legislator with the notorious forty thieves of 1862; and be it so he is now the nominee of the abolition party of this city, and cannot receive the endorsement of any national organization.
We, therefore, call upon all good and honest men to assist in defeating this conspiracy of corruption and bargain, and so unite with the People's Union "Syracuse Committee" in elevating to the office of Sheriff that competent and reliable citizen, Frederick L. Vultè.
Resolved, That the Shoddy Marshall Abolition Committee do injustice to their candidate, Josiah W. Brown, in charging him with refusing to pay the People's Syracuse Union Committee a liberal assessment. He and his friends proffered them any amount that they might reasonably demand for the expenses of his canvass, but the committee did not believe that any pecuniary expenditure would induce an honest people to vote for such a nominee, or satisfy the consciences of the committee in presenting such a man for public suffrage.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR THE FIRST ASsembly district:—
HENRY VON GLAHN.

MR. EDITOR—I SEE THAT GEORGE W. MATSELL has been nominated for the office of Coroner, by several patriotic associations in our city.
It is known to most of our community that Mr. Matsell held the office of Chief of Police some thirteen years, or from the organization of the department in 1845, under Mayor Havemeyer, until the office was abrogated by the Metropolitan Police bill now in force. During this entire period, and under Mayors of different and opposite politics, Mr. Matsell performed the duties of the office energetically, honestly and faithfully, and accepted by the whole community, and of course came out of it poor. He is, therefore, entitled to the support of our entire people for the office of Coroner, and particularly so because his experience in criminal business, acquired during his long connection with the police of our city, so eminently qualifies him to discharge the duties of that office. Mr. Matsell's claims to the support of every voter, without distinction of party, are strengthened by the fact that his nomination by the Union associations was not endorsed by the old regular political organizations, and impose upon all citizens who desire the elevation to office of men of good moral character, and who are particularly qualified to perform the duties which may devolve upon them, an obligation to vote for such men themselves. Should our citizens act generally upon these views we may hope to elect men to fill the various offices of our State, county and city, who will be in all respects unobjectionable.

NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 2, 1861.—TO THE EDITOR of the New York Herald:—My opponents in the Third Assembly District having circulated a report to the effect that my object was to sell out, I take this method of informing my friends that the report is false, and that I am the regularly nominated candidate of the Workingmen's, People's and Union party in the above district, and will remain so until sundown on Tuesday next. WM. SCHWARZ, Secretary.

POLITICAL.

READ THIS BEFORE YOU VOTE.
To the friends of our country—Citizens, whether by accident or choice.
That there may be no traitors in the next Legislature, scratch every man's name of whose patriotism you have the least doubt. Stand by your party when you can do so without sacrificing your duty to your country in her day of tribulation. An army of half a million of men is making war against her, besieging the national capital and threatening the existence of the government. The next Legislature will be called upon to furnish money for our soldiers and their suffering families. There will be no time for delay. Pinching cold and hunger will have overtaken thousands of poor women and children, who, some natural protectors have gone to the wars, and the action of the Legislature must be prompt and liberal. Will it be either if composed of such men as—
W. J. C. KENNEY, DANIEL YOUNG,
JOHN HARDY, LUKE F. COZANS,
all of whom were members of the late Legislature? And long after the bombardment of Fort Sumter, and while the national flag was being trampled in the dust in nearly half the States of the Union, and our patriotic citizens subjected to loss and indignity of every kind; in a time like this, when the Legislature was called upon to put forth every energy to meet the emergency, there were six false men in that body who voted against the appropriation of a dollar of money with which to pay the defenders of our country for their patriotic services.
Four of these were
KENNEY, YOUNG,
HARDY, COZANS,
who, not only by their votes, but by every parliamentary expedient, and speech making, tried to prevent the passage of a bill to authorize the raising and paying of an army. Had the measure been lost the great cause would have been lost also, for such an example, coming from the great Empire State, would have discouraged and paralyzed the nation. Secession would have prevailed in our city, and these very men, who have been as quiet as lambs since, would have boldly continued in the course they had chosen. They dare not do so now in an open manner, as they did then; public opinion is too firmly set in the right direction, and we have, all of us, too many friends and relations engaged in the struggle to render it safe to utter secession sentiments now, and so they expect, by saying nothing, that their treachery will be overlooked, and their seats quietly secured.
It is for you to say whether they shall succeed.
They do not pretend to deny the charge of having labored and voted to defeat the war bill. They dare not do it. The proofs against them are too near. Their votes are published in the public documents and are to be found in all the papers of the date of April 16, 1861. Turn to any paper of that date—Herald, Tribune, Times, World, Daily News, or Evening Post—and there you will find the report of their speeches and their votes, and, after doing so, determine for yourselves whether your feelings and sentiments can be properly represented by such men.

ADDRESS OF THE PEOPLE'S UNION NOMINATING COMMITTEE TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

We address you on behalf of the PEOPLE'S UNION NOMINATING COMMITTEE, and appealing to you as patriotic citizens, without distinction of party, to aid by every means in your power in securing the success, at the ensuing election, of the several tickets which it presents for your suffrages, we ask your attention to a brief statement of the facts which justify and enforce this appeal.
The representatives of the people of the State of New York, discarding all political divisions, and waiving, for the time being, all party platforms and traditions, assembled in convention at Syracuse on the 10th September, 1861, and nominated candidates for the approaching State election upon the single and simple basis of an unqualified support of the national administration in its efforts to suppress rebellion and to restore the supremacy of the government in every part of the United States.
In aid of the loyal effort thus initiated the Convention invoked the united action of all citizens of this State, irrespective of previous or present political ties or preferences, and recommended the delegates from the different districts to take such action within the limits of their several constituencies as might be necessary to organize the people's Union movement and to ensure its success.
In pursuance of this recommendation, and at the call of their delegates to the People's State Convention, the electors of the city and county met in mass meeting at the Cooper Institute, on the evening of September 25, 1861, and after unanimously ratifying the State ticket, took further action resulting in appointing a committee of sixty-six persons, composed of three delegates from each ward, and elected so as to secure an equal representation of the three political parties known as the democratic, the republican, and the Constitutional Union.
To this committee was entrusted the duty of perfecting the organization of the People's Union in the different wards; of nominating candidates for the Judiciary and County tickets, and for the Senate and Assembly, and of taking such other steps as the case required. They were also instructed to confer with other organizations having the same objects in view, so as to secure, as far as practicable, harmony of views and action.
The duty thus devolved upon the Committee they have endeavored faithfully to discharge. They have assumed that in this great popular movement the voice of the people of the State of New York unmistakably demands that during the present struggle all mere party interest must and shall be silenced and set aside; that so long as the question of our national existence as a nation is at stake, there is no neutral ground upon which party issues and party preferences can find place; that while so many of our fellow citizens have left home to repair to the defence of the government, and so many have fallen in battle, sealing their devotion to the cause of their country with their blood, the least that can be asked of those who are not in the field is a cheerful and unselfish surrender of all partisan preferences for the sake of the same great object—the preservation of the constitution upon the government, and the enforcement of the laws.
We believe that the tickets now presented by the People's Union State and County organizations fairly embody this patriotic sentiment. The candidates have been selected from the several political parties, after conference with other organizations, and upon the basis of their personal integrity and capacity, of their tried devotion to the Union and the constitution, and of their fitness to represent, before the people, the great principle involved in the present crisis.
We now appeal to all our fellow citizens to rally to their support, to discard all party ties and, by earnest, organized and untiring effort, to secure the election of the People's ticket by an overwhelming majority. There are many considerations relating to our State and local interests which might properly be urged in behalf of a united movement among us, but this does, to elevate the standard of qualifications for places of trust, to correct existing abuses growing out of bad legislation, and to secure the services of good men in public office. These should not be lost sight of, and they enter into the grounds of our present appeal. We insist upon honesty in every department of the government—economy in public expenditure—reduction of public burdens, and strict accountability on the part of public servants. But the paramount and controlling motive springs from the peril of our free institutions, and that regard to the safety of the republic which, in a popular government, should be the supreme law of individual as well as of national action. This regard can now be tested by the support of a candidate representing this simple issue. The right of free suffrage, always of inestimable value, was never invested with such dignity and responsibility as at this moment, when it is to be exercised, not as the organ of individual preferences or political opinions, but in defence of all the most sacred rights and the very life of human freedom. WM. TUCKER,
Chairman People's Nominating Convention.
WM. C. CONNELL, ROBT BEATTY, Secretaries.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF New York.—It being persistently reported that I contemplate withdrawing from the canvass as a candidate for District Attorney, I hereby give notice that I have not and will not withdraw, nor be withdrawn; but am and shall remain a candidate, all reports and assertions of my opponents to the contrary notwithstanding. ABRAHAM R. LAWRENCE, JR.
