which all must grant is the loadstone of manhood—is the leading feature of our Corps de Ballet. In the dark ages, before civilization had overspread the globe, it was the same as now—PERFECTION IN LOVELINESS DEFIED REASON and more than once revolutionized the world. Who but Helen caused the destruction of Troy; and who but Cleopatra enchained the great Antony. And, although it is the boast of the philosophers of the nineteenth century that the arts and sciences have progressed to such a state of perfection that man's passions are held in check by his mental qualities, yet we still hold that the possession of BEAUTY is the crown of man's ambition. Therefore in the
