NEW YORK, Feb. 19, 1862.
Sealed proposals are invited and will be received at this office until 12 o'clock on Tuesday, the 4th of March next, when they will be publicly opened, for furnishing by contract the following army supplies and materials, deliverable at the Depot of Army Clothing and Equipage in this city, corner of Broome and Greene streets:—
200,000 yards bleached Sheeting, 36 inches wide, best quality.
20,000 yards Mosquito Netting, linen.
20,000 Forage Cap Covers (glazed).
15,000 pieces colored Bed Sack Binding.
50,000 square feet Leather for chin straps for caps.
60,000 Tin Canteens, with cork stoppers, 3 pints, to weigh 11½ ounces without the stopper; to be covered with cloth after an inspection has been made of them.
40,000 Axe Handles, best hickory.
2,000 Drum Heads, better.
2,000 Drum Heads, snare.
2,000 sets of Drum Snares.
500 Hospital Tents and 1 Flies.
500 recruiting flag halliards.
The tents to be 14 feet long, 15 feet wide, 11 feet high, with a wall 4½ feet, and having on one end a lappel, so as to admit of two or more tents being joined and thrown into one, with a continuous covering or roof, to be made of duck, thirty inches wide, and weighing 22½ ounces per yard.
The fly to be 22 feet 10 inches long, and 14 feet wide; to be made of duck 30 inches wide, and weighing 15½ ounces per yard.
500 sets hospital tent poles.
6,000 hospital tent pins, large.
10,000 hospital tent pins, small.
All the above mentioned articles must conform in every respect to the sealed standard patterns in this office, where they may be examined and additional information received concerning them.
The articles must be of domestic fabrication. Bids from manufacturers or regular dealers will be preferred, which must be made for and conform to such articles only, in quality and description, as are required by the advertisement and the samples in this office; but contracts will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder who shall furnish satisfactory securities for the faithful performance thereof.
The manufacturers' establishment or dealers' place of business must be distinctly stated in the proposal, together with the names, addresses, and responsibility of two persons proposed as sureties. The sureties will guarantee that a contract shall be entered into within ten days after the acceptance of said bid or proposal.
Proposals will be received for any one of the articles separately, and for any portion of each.
The privilege is reserved by and for the United States of rejecting any proposals that may be deemed extravagant.
All the articles must be delivered within twenty days after the acceptance of the proposals, except the Tents and Tent Poles and Pins, of which one-quarter of the quantity contracted for must be delivered in twenty days, and the remainder in fifty days from date of acceptance, or sooner if practicable.
All articles will be subject to inspection by sworn inspectors, appointed by authority of the United States.
It is to be distinctly understood that contracts are not transferable without the consent of the proper authority; and that any such assignment or transfer, without such consent having been obtained (except under a process of law), will be regarded as an abandonment of the contract, and the contractor, and his or their securities, will be held responsible for all loss or damage to the United States which may arise thereby.
Payments will be made on each delivery should Congress have made an appropriation to meet them, or as soon thereafter as an appropriation shall be made for that purpose. Ten per cent of the amount of each delivery will be retained until the contract shall be completed, which will be forfeited to the United States in case of default on the part of the contractor.
Forms of proposals and guarantee will be furnished upon application to this office, and none will be considered that do not conform thereto.
Proposals will be endorsed, "Proposals for Furnishing Army Supplies," and be addressed,
LIEUT. COL. D. H. VINTON,
Deputy Quartermaster General United States Army,
Box 3,286 Post office
