AMUSEMENTS.

WINTER GARDEN.
Continued success of the great American actress,
MATILDA HERON,
whose splendid impersonations have elicited from both Press and Public a unanimous tribute of enthusiastic praise and patronage.
As this famous artiste has imperative engagements for other cities after the present week, her further appearance in the metropolis is peremptorily limited to
THREE NIGHTS LONGER,
THREE NIGHTS LONGER,
THREE NIGHTS LONGER,
viz:
MONDAY, TUESDAY, and WEDNESDAY EVENINGS of the present week. The management has pleasure in announcing this (Monday) night, an entirely novel and original AMERICAN TRAGIC PLAY, founded on one of the most thrilling episodes in the history of the great West, entitled SIBYL.
SIBYL.
SIBYL.
SIBYL.
SIBYL.
In this remarkable drama
MISS MATILDA HERON
will sustain the role of the heroine—a part eminently fitted to a powerful and sensitive nature like hers, which can clothe even the details of domestic life and love with an Oasiastic pomp of feeling.
The plot of
SIBYL,
is mainly founded on the mysterious and terrible "Beauchamp Tragedy," which occurred some thirty years ago in Kentucky, and awakened the most startling sensation both in this country and Europe.
Celebrated novels have been written on the singular facts of this extraordinary affair; but to portray it in anything like its true intensity needs the lifelike action of the drama. Not even "Othello" absorbs so much interest or moves such emotions.
In the wilderness of Kentucky, among planters and backwoodsmen, you see again Orestes and Electra, and the events are as sublime and as terrible as any which Æschylus or Sophocles have immortalized in classic verse. "One touch of nature makes the whole world kin."
Although the incidents of the real tragedy have been altered in some respects, in compliance with dramatic demands, the play presents the essential features of the Beauchamp mystery.
On MONDAY AND
TUESDAY EVENINGS,
April 7 and 8,
will be presented, for the first time in New York, the tragedy of SIBYL,
by JOHN SAVAGE,
with the following cast:—
SIBYL (the unknown) ..... MATILDA HERON
Eustache Clifden (a young lawyer) ..... Mr. C. Barton Hill
Colonel Sharp (a politician) ..... Mr. J. J. Peter Barnabus ..... Mr. C. Walcot, Jr.
William Acton ..... Mr. A. H. Davenport
Mr. Lowe ..... Mr. Davidge
Old Acton ..... Mr. Jeffries
Mr. Shaw ..... Mr. Keans
Major George ..... Mr. Clark
&c. &c.
ON WEDNESDAY, April 9,
FAREWELL BENEFIT OF MISS MATILDA HERON.
