Fire in Cherry Valley.

CHERRY VALLEY, Otsego Co., N. Y., April 11, 1862.

Last night a fire broke out in Edwards' cabinet shop, opposite Cain's Hotel, running east on both sides of the street to Lewis' Hotel, then south to Walworth's law office, including Lewis' Hotel, Berges' Hall, Phinney's new building and Peck's Hotel; north to McNamee's dwelling, including the telegraph office. Almost everything was lost. Twenty-five or thirty buildings were burned. The loss cannot be less than $200,000.

Sentenced to be Hung.

BOSTON, April 11, 1862.

Governor Andrew has signed the death warrant of George C. Hersey, who is to be executed at Dedham jail, on Friday, August 8. Hersey was convicted of poisoning Miss Tirrell, in Weymouth, some two years ago.

Counterfeiters' Nest Broken Up.

ST. LOUIS, April 10, 1862.

The police of this city yesterday broke up an extensive counterfeiting establishment and seized about $25,000 in bogus United States Treasury notes and some $10,000 in counterfeit notes on the State Bank of Indiana, together with eleven bank note plates and an assortment of implements and materials used by bank note engravers. An adroit counterfeit note engraver named Harvey Walker, alias Hill, and a number of suspicious characters residing here, and all known to have been heretofore engaged in the sale or passing of counterfeit bills, were arrested.

Suspected Privateer.

BOSTON, April 11, 1862.

A letter from Hamburg, dated March 19, says the British steamer Bahama, of Liverpool, was in port, loading with guns and ammunition to clear for Matamoros, Mexico. The writer had been on board, and thinks she is intended for a privateer. She had the flush deck very heavily laid.

NEWSPAPERS.

GREAT SUNDAY SPECIALTY

FOR TO-MORROW.

NEWS—LITERATURE—HUMOR.

As usual, on SUNDAY, all New York will be on the look-out TO-MORROW MORNING for that unequalled newspaper and inimitable literary journal, the

SUNDAY MERCURY,

which has become celebrated for presenting the latest, most complete and most accurate

WAR NEWS,

no less than for its unequalled array of the most interesting

NOVELETTES, SKETCHES, POEMS, and GOSSIP

of the day.

The SUNDAY MERCURY possesses facilities in the way of monster presses, special telegraphic correspondents, "Associated Press" news, special reporters, &c., enjoyed by but few of the largest daily papers in the world, and is thus enabled to procure and publish the very latest intelligence from all parts of the country up to Sunday A. M.

Those who purchase the SUNDAY MERCURY TO-MORROW MORNING will find it to contain every item of news transmitted by telegraph and mail to this city from the various scenes of army movements, between the issues of this morning's papers and four o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) morning, thus presenting a complete index of the war as it has so far progressed. The same paper will contain the

GENERAL NEWS

of the whole country, including full reports of every event of interest transpiring in other cities and States, together with all the

FRESHEST LOCAL NEWS,

as gathered by the largest force of able reporters employed on any one paper in New York.

In that famous department of the

SUNDAY MERCURY, THE

SUNDAY TABLE TALK,

will be found the usual assortment of original and reliable facts and fancies, such as

I. CHIVALRY'S DECAY.—Wherein it is proved that Chivalry is on the wane in this country, owing to the rude and unprecedentate conduct of the rebel leaders on a late occasion.

II. FROM THE CAPITAL.—A description by the unsurpassed ORPHEUS C. KERR of an Artillery battle fought on strictly constitutional principles, by the Orange County Howitzers, for the relaxation of a rebel, who finally consented to be reconstructed. Members of the democratic party and other conservative martyrs will find much edification in this document.

III. A GENERAL SCANDAL.—An article intended to illustrate the whole art of newspaper generalship, and to show that there is at present a commander in the field whose outrageous misconduct is past all bearing.

IV. MEANING TRANSPARENT.—Which refers particularly to a member of the fair sex.

V. OUR IRONICAL NAVY.—Concerning the beauties of the "Monitor," as appreciated by our excellent old friend, Mr. John Bull.

VI. THE CLASSIC MUSE.—A fine translation from Euripides of the capture of Troy by night, and well worth attention in these days of tedious sieges.

ALSO,

Another witty, unique and side-splitting epistle from that veteran campaigner,

THE DISBANDED VOLUNTEER,

whose lucubrations are just the things to be enjoyed at the Sunday breakfast table or after a good dinner.

THE SUNDAY MERCURY OF TO-MORROW will present, in combination, all the great characteristics of

A GREAT NEWSPAPER,
A LITERARY JOURNAL,
A SOLDIER'S GAZETTE,
A MERCHANT'S RECORD,
A CITIZEN'S GUIDE,
A JOURNAL OF AMERICAN HUMOR,

and a paper worthy of preservation for its authentic presentment of the current history of the country.

The Shipping News, Market Reports, Table of Importations, Military Critiques and Correspondence, Fire Department specials, Base Ball Reports, Gleanings from the latest European Journals, Theatrical Notes, &c., will also merit special attention.

THE SUNDAY MERCURY

enjoys a CIRCULATION LARGER BY SOME THOUSANDS THAN THAT OF ALL THE OTHER SUNDAY PAPERS COMBINED, and is increasing in every week. The community show it to be the ablest and most complete Sunday Journal ever published in this country, and it is believed that its sale to-morrow will reach figures beyond the highest ever before attained by any newspaper.

Your particular attention is called to our California quartz double set Diamond Jewelry, the most beautiful imitation of the real diamond ever seen. It is now ten years since I brought them to the attention of the public, and those of my manufacture still maintain popular favor. One particular reason is, they are set in 18 carat fine gold, of choice workmanship, and so nearly resemble the real as to deceive the most perfect judges. Prominent among the large assortment of Jewelry is the combination and gold Vest Chain, which stands the gold test and costs only one-tenth the price of gold. Watches cleaned and repaired by an experienced workman. Glasses fitted to all kinds of watches for 25 cents. Diamonds, Watches and old Gold and Silver bought or taken in exchange; also Accordeons tuned and repaired.
