New York, June 14, 1862.
Sealed proposals will be received at this office, until 4 o'clock P. M., on Friday, the 27th instant, at 12 o'clock M., for pressing 800 straw Hats, more or less—now in a rough state—in regulation sizes, and trimming them with black cotton band and sweat lining.
The Hats are now in the Quartermaster's storehouse in Washington, from which place they will be taken by the contractor, and when finished, delivered at the depot of Army Clothing and Equipage in this city, packed in boxes for transportation.
The Hats, having been pressed, will be divided into proportions of regulation sizes, and be subject to inspection at this depot.
Further information, in regard to sizes, &c., can be obtained on application at this office.
Bonds will be required for the proper performance of the contract.
Bidders will state the shortest possible time in which the service can be performed, and endorse their bids, "Proposals for Pressing Straw Hats," addressing them to Lieutenant Colonel D. H. VINTON,
Deputy Quartermaster General United States Army.

PROPOSALS FOR THE SUPPLY OF FRESH BEEF for the use of United States troops stationed at Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, for one year, commencing July 1, 1862, will be received at the office of the A. A. C. S., Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, until 12 o'clock M. on the 25th inst. The beef is to be of first quality, in equal proportions of fore and hind quarters, necks and shanks excluded, and to be delivered at Fort Hamilton at such times and in such quantities as may be required. Two securities, of five thousand dollars each, will be required for the faithful fulfilment of the contract. Proposals will be addressed to First Lieutenant R. G. Lay, Third Infantry, A. A. C. S., Fort Hamilton, New York harbor, and be endorsed "Proposals for the supply of fresh beef." The undersigned reserves the right to reject all bids which he deems extravagant, as also all doubtful securities.
R. G. LAY,
First Lieutenant, Third Infantry, A. A. C. S.
